Section 810 In the construction or repair of any highway in any township of the first or second class it shall be unlawful to raise such highway above the ordinary grade thereof when a drain or culvert shall be constructed under such highway or when such highway shall be constructed or repaired over such drain or culvert. That this section shall not be construed in any manner to interfere with the work of the State Highway Department in the reconstruction or improvement of any State highway or State-aid highway or when a township improves a township road under the direction plans and specifications of the State Highway Department.

(m) Assessment of Property Outside Limits of Township for Street Improvements

Section 820 Whenever any street or alley entirely within the limits of any township of the first or second class shall divide such township from any other municipality or township located in the same county the property on the side of the street or alley opposite the line of such township of the first or second class shall for a depth of one hundred and fifty feet be assessed for municipal improvements on such streets or alleys on which property shall abut. Such assessment shall be made in the same manner and in the same proceeding as is used for the assessment of property within such township of the first or second class for such improvement.

(n) Cutting Trees or Shrubbery Within Limits of Highway

Section 830 Where any highway in any township of the first or second class passes through or along forested lands wild lands or uncultivated lands no trees growing within the limits of such highway at a distance beyond fifteen feet on either side of the centerline thereof and which measure four inches or over in diameter at a point two feet from the surface of the ground shall be cut down or destroyed by the commissioners supervisors or road-masters employed by them or any other person without first obtaining the consent of the abutting owners.

Whenever any highway running through improved or cultivated lands has been opened and there are growing along the roadsides and within the road limits shrubs or trees not interfering with public travel no commissioners supervisors or road-masters or other persons in their employ shall remove cut injure or destroy or in any other manner interfere with such shrubs or trees. If such removal or cutting is absolutely necessary for the purpose of maintaining the highway at its highest efficiency the commissioners supervisors or road-masters or other persons in their employ may so cut or remove such shrubs or trees after notifying the abutting property owners and entering into an agreement with them relating to the removal cutting or interference with said shrubs or trees.

Section 831 In either of the cases set forth in the preceding section if the consent or agreement of the abutting property owners cannot be obtained the board of commissioners or supervisors may appeal to a judge of the court of common pleas. The judge shall inquire into the facts of the case and after hearing all parties in interest shall make such order as seems just having due regard for the demand for road improvement as well as for the preservation of the trees. From such order there shall be no appeal.

Section 832 All logs cordwood branch wood or other forms of wood which shall be derived from the destruction or removal of any trees growing along the highways shall be surrendered to and remain the property of the abutting owners.

Section 833 The commissioners or supervisors may clear out brush and other refuse from along the sides of the road to the legal width thereof. All such clearing and removal of brush and refuse shall be confined to growth that is within the limits hereinabove described and to the removal of branches that in any way interfere with public travel. No other injury by fire cutting abrasion or otherwise shall be done to the standing timber.

Section 834 If any commissioner supervisor road-master or person in their employ or any other person shall cut down kill or injure any living tree growing as aforesaid and of a size four inches in diameter or greater at a point two feet from the surface of the ground or shall violate any other provision of sections eight hundred and thirty to eight hundred and thirty-three of this act he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a penalty of not more than five dollars for every tree so cut injured or destroyed with costs of suit. Such penalty shall be recovered in an action brought before any justice of the peace of the county wherein the offence was committed. If any defendant upon conviction for any offence fails or refuses to pay the fine and costs imposed or does not give bond with approved surety to pay the same within ten days he shall be committed to the county jail for not more than thirty days or until he has paid the fine and costs in full.

Section 835 Nothing in sections eight hundred and thirty to eight hundred and thirty-four of this act shall be so construed as to prevent the commissioners supervisors or road-masters or other persons in their employ from removing such roadside trees which may be thrown down by the wind or lodged in such position as to be a menace to public travel or which by reason of any other cause become a source of danger to the public. Every such act of removal shall be made with due regard to the circumstances of the case so as to preserve the true intent and purpose of this act

(c) Penal Provisions

Section 845 If any person working upon any road or highway in any township of the first or second class or if any one in company with such person shall ask money or reward or by any means whatever shall extort or endeavor to extort any money drink or other thing from any person traveling upon or near such road or highway the person so offending shall for every such offence forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding five dollars

If any township commissioner or township supervisor shall connive at any person so asking demanding or contriving to extort money drink or any other thing from any person traveling as aforesaid such commissioner or supervisor shall for every such offence forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding ten dollars

Section 846 If any person shall stop or obstruct any public road or highway in any township of the first or second class or shall commit any nuisance thereon by felling trees making fences turning the road or in any other way and shall not on notice given by the township commissioners or township supervisors forthwith remove the obstruction or nuisance and repair the damages done to such road such person shall for every such offence forfeit and pay a sum not less than ten dollars nor more than forty dollars. Nothing in this section shall debar an indictment for any such nuisance as in case of misdemeanor at common law

Section 868 The township of the first class may also enter into a contract with the county commissioners and also with railroads street railways and other companies or parties interested for the building and maintenance of such bridges or viaducts and for the payment of any damages caused by the location or erection thereof

Section 869 Nothing contained in the preceding section shall authorize a township of the first class to contract with a county for the maintenance of any bridge or viaduct which does not cross a place over which the county is authorized to build bridges but such viaduct or bridge shall be maintained as a township structure and the township is authorized to contract with any party interested except the county for the maintenance of the same

Section 870 The contracts herein provided for may stipulate that the township of the first class county railroad company street railway or other company or party interested shall pay a certain part of the contract price of the work including damages or may stipulate that each shall construct a certain portion of the work and may provide otherwise for the payment of damages

Section 871 When any railroad company street railway or other company or party interested agrees to pay a certain portion of the cost of such work it shall pay the same into the township treasury and the township treasurer shall pay the same over to the contractor as may be provided in the contract but the amount to be paid by the county shall be paid directly to the contractor. The agreements may provide for the maintenance of the bridges and viaducts after their erection

Section 872 After any such contract has been entered into the township of the first class in conjunction with the county commissioners shall have prepared plans and specifications of the entire work and shall advertise for bids and award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder

Section 873 The contract for the work shall provide that the county shall pay its part of such bridge or viaduct and the township shall contract for the other part of the work. The contract as to the township's part shall be based upon the appropriation made by the township for the part of the work for which it had agreed to pay and the remaining part of the contract price shall be based upon the amounts the other parties have agreed to pay

Section 874 The contractor shall have a right of action against each party uniting in the contract provided for in sections eight hundred and seventy and eight hundred and seventy-one of this article for the part thereof agreed to be paid by each party

Section 875 In case the county commissioners do not unite in the contract or in case the viaduct does not cross any river creek stream or place over which the county is authorized to build bridges the township may contract for the construction of such bridge or viaduct and may pay for the entire work or may contract with all or any of the other parties for such work. Plans and specifications shall be prepared and advertisement shall be made for bids by the township and the contract shall be let in the manner hereinbefore provided

Section 876 Any of the contracts provided for may be recorded in the recorder's office of the county and such record shall be notice to all persons who might be affected thereby

Section 877 Before any railroad which has not contributed to the cost of the construction of any such bridge or viaduct shall be permitted to run its tracks under or upon such bridge or viaduct it shall enter into a contract with the township to thereafter pay a reasonable part of the upkeep thereof

If any such bridge is built across the township boundary line the township commissioners or supervisors shall put up and maintain such notices only at or near the end of the bridge within their township.

Section 922 All fines and penalties which may be incurred under any of the provisions of sections nine hundred and twenty and nine hundred and twenty-one of this act shall be recoverable in the name of the Commonwealth at the instance of any person who will sue therefor in the same manner as debts of like amount are recoverable with costs of suit. One moiety thereof shall be paid to the person recovering the same and the residue shall be paid into the treasury of the township for the use of the township.

CHAPTER XIII

Sidewalks

ARTICLE I

In Townships of the First Class

(a) Footways Constructed by Township Along Highways

Section 950 Townships of the first class may construct footways along the township highways at the expense of the township.

(b) Establishing Width and Location of Sidewalks

Section 960 The commissioners of any township of the first class upon the request of any land owner whose land fronts upon a public highway within such township may establish the width and location for a sidewalk along each side of said highway along the lands of such owner. The width of the walk on each side of said highway shall not be less than six feet for roads fifty feet in width or less and for roads over fifty feet in width shall be ten feet in width. When said sidewalks are so established such land owner shall pay for and keep the same in repair.

(c) Grading Paving and Curbing Sidewalks in Villages Upon Petition of Owners of a Majority of the Frontage in Lineal Feet

Section 970 Whenever a majority of the owners in lineal feet of property fronting on either side of a public highway in any village in a township of the first class by petition request that a sidewalk with or without curbing be constructed along that side of the highway between certain points at the expense of the property owners the board of township commissioners may by ordinance require the owners of property abutting on that side of the highway between designated points to grade and pave the sidewalk in front of their respective property in the manner prescribed in the ordinance and also to curb the same if deemed necessary.

The ordinance shall provide for written notice to be given to the property owners to construct such sidewalk in front of their respective properties.

Section 971 If such owners fail to so pave and curb such sidewalk within sixty days from notice of the ordinance the board of township commissioners may cause the same to be done and collect the cost thereof from the abutting property owners in proportion to their frontage. If such cost is not paid the commissioners may file municipal liens therefor against the abutting properties in the court of common pleas and include therein a penalty of twenty per centum on the amount of the cost of the work.

(d) Laying Out Grading Curbing and Paving Sidewalks Within Towns or Villages

Section 980 The boards of township commissioners may survey lay out enact and ordain foot-walks pavements boardwalks culverts and drains over and upon the land abutting on turnpike roads where the same pass through any town or village and to fix the size and width thereof. Damages for any taking or injury of any property and benefits to any property caused by any action under this section shall be assessed and paid for as provided in sections five hundred to five hundred and eight of this act relating to the widening of roads and streets by township commissioners.

The commissioners may require the grading paving and curbing of such foot-walks pavements board-walks culverts and drains by the owners of the land fronting thereon in accordance with general regulations to be prescribed by ordinance.

Section 981 The board of township commissioners in townships of the first class may require and direct the grading curbing and paving of the sidewalks and foot-walks along the highways within any town or village by the owners of the lots fronting thereon in accordance with general regulations prescribed by ordinance.

Section 982 On failure of any owner of land to do any work required under the two preceding sections of this act within the time prescribed by the township ordinance the township commissioners may cause the same to be done and collect from the owners the cost of the work and material together with a penalty of ten per centum thereon to cover the expense of collection by filing a municipal claim therefor against the abutting property.

(e) Sidewalks Along Turnpike Roads Within Towns or Villages

Section 990 Whenever a turnpike road managed and controlled by a private corporation runs through any town or village in any township of the first class the board of township commissioners having first obtained the written consent of the turnpike company or other corporation having control of such road may ordain and establish sidewalks along either one or both sides of the turnpike road within the lines of same. The township commissioners may charge the cost of construction of such sidewalk to the owner of the abutting properties according to frontage.

Section 991 The ordinances establishing any such sidewalk shall specify the width thereof and shall require such grading and filling as is necessary. It shall also specify the kind and character of the pavement or provide for the construction of a board walk in any case instead of a paved sidewalk. The manner of laying the pavement may be specified in the ordinance or provided for by general ordinance or by the regulation of a committee of the board.

Section 992 The ordinance shall provide for written notice to be given to the property owners to grade and construct such sidewalk in front of their respective properties within a certain period not less than thirty days from the date of service of such notice. Service of such notice shall be made by handing the same to the property owner or by leaving it at his place of residence if he has one in the county or if he does not reside in the county by mailing the notice to his address if his address can be obtained. In all cases a copy of such notice shall be served upon the occupant of the premises.

Section 993 Should any property owner fail to comply with the requirements of the ordinance within the time specified in the notice the board of township commissioners may cause the sidewalk in front of his property to be constructed in accordance with the requirement of the ordinance and collect the cost thereof including the costs of grading and any other incidental matters together with the penalty of ten per centum by action of assumpsit or by filing a municipal lien against said property.

Section 994 If at the time of the passage of the ordinance a sidewalk paved with brick stone or concrete has already been constructed by a property owner in front of his property the township commissioners may accept such walk as a compliance with the ordinance although not constructed according to the specifications thereof. If such sidewalk is not accepted the township shall bear the expense of reconstructing it.

(f) Establishing Grading and Curbing Sidewalks Along the Sides of any Principal Street or Highway Leading to or Connecting Cities Boroughs Villages or Places of Public Resort

Section 1005 The board of township commissioners of any township of the first class may ordain and establish sidewalks within the lines of any principal street or highway in the township along either one or both sides thereof leading directly to or connecting cities boroughs villages or places of public resort for such distance as the board of township commissioners may deem proper and may provide for the grading and curbing of the same. In case the street or highway is a turnpike or other road managed and controlled by a corporation incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth by a corporation incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth the written consent of the corporation shall first be obtained.

Section 1006 Such sidewalk shall in no case be less than five feet in width nor leave a roadway of less than twenty feet in the clear.

Section 1007 The ordinance establishing any such sidewalk shall specify the width thereof and shall require such grading and filling as is necessary. It shall also specify the kind and character of the pavement or provide for the construction of a boardwalk instead of a paved sidewalk. The manner of laying the pavement may be specified in the ordinance or provided for by general ordinance or by the regulation of a committee of the board.

Section 1008 The ordinance shall provide for written notice to be given to the property owners to grade and construct such sidewalk in front of their respective properties within a certain period not less than three (3) months from date of the service of such notice. Service of such notice shall be made by handing the same to the property owner or by leaving it at his place of residence if he has one in the county or if he does not reside in the county by mailing the notice to his address if his address can be obtained. In all cases a copy of such notice shall be served upon the occupant of the premises.

Section 1009 When such notice is given on or after the first day of September in any year the property owners affected shall not be in default for failure to construct the sidewalk until the first day of June of the following year.

Section 1010 Should any property owner fail to comply with the requirements of the ordinance within the time specified the board of township commissioners may cause the sidewalk in front of his property to be constructed in accordance with the requirements of the ordinance and collect the proportion of the expense thereof which under the ordinance is chargeable upon the property owner including the costs of grading and any other incidental matters together with the penalty of ten per centum by action of assumpsit or by filing a municipal lien against said property.

Section 1011 The board of township commissioners may charge to the owners of the properties abutting on such sidewalk according to frontage such part of the expense of the construction thereof including grading and curbing as they deem reasonable. Such part of the expense shall in no case exceed fifty per centum of the total cost of the construction of the sidewalk. The remainder of the expense of the construction of the sidewalk shall be paid out of the township funds.

Section 1012 When any sidewalk has been constructed by an abutting property owner in front of his property as required by the ordinance the township commissioners upon the presentation to them of a receipted bill for the cost of constructing such sidewalk shall forthwith pay to the property owner the part of the expenses of the construction of the sidewalk which by the terms of the ordinance is to be defrayed from the township funds. If such part of the expense of the construction of the sidewalk which is to be defrayed from the township funds is not paid forthwith to the property owner by the board of township commissioners the property owner may collect the same in a suit or suits against the township as debts of like amount are now by law collected.

Section 1013 If at the time of the passage of the ordinance a sidewalk paved with brick stone or concrete has already been constructed by a property owner in front of his property the township commissioners may accept such walk as a compliance with the ordinance although not constructed according to the specifications thereof. If such sidewalk is not accepted the township shall bear the expense of reconstructing it.

(g) Repair of Sidewalks

Section 1025 In townships of the first class where sidewalks have been established by township ordinance the owner of the abutting property shall keep the sidewalk immediately in front of his property in good order and repair and at all times free and clear of all obstruction to safe and convenient passage.

Section 1026 If the owner of any property neglects to perform the duty required of him in the preceding section the township commissioners may serve written notice upon him requiring him to do what is necessary. If such property owner fails to comply with the requirements of such notice within thirty days from the date of its service the township commissioners may make the necessary repairs or remove any obstruction. The cost of the same together with a penalty of ten per centum shall be paid by the delinquent property owner and may be collected by action in the name of the township as debts of like amount are collected or the township commissioners may file a municipal lien against the property.

Section 1027 The notice provided for in the preceding section may be served on the property owner by leaving the same at his place of residence or if he has no residence in the township then by leaving the same with the tenant or occupant of the premises and mailing a copy thereof to the owner at his last known address.

CHAPTER XIII Sidewalks

ARTICLE II

In Townships of the Second Class

Section 1040 The supervisors of any township of the second class upon the request of any land owner whose land front upon a public highway within such township may establish the width and location for a sidewalk along each side of said highway along the lands of such owner. The width of the walk on each side of said highway shall not be less than six feet for roads fifty feet in width or less and for roads over fifty feet in width shall be ten feet in width. When said sidewalks are so established such land owner shall pay for and keep the same in repair.

Section 1041 The township supervisors of townships of the second class may construct sidewalks of board plank or cement or other suitable material along the highways through towns and villages in such townships upon the petition of abutting property owners. The expense of the construction of such sidewalk shall be paid by the township and the abutting property owners in proportion agreed upon between the supervisors and the property owner before the construction of such sidewalk. Not more than ten per centum of the road taxes raised in the township for the current year shall be used for such purposes.

Section 1042 Supervisors of townships of the second class may regulate by ordinance the grade and width of sidewalks constructed along the highways in such townships and shall have general supervision over the same.

CHAPTER XIV Sewers and Drains

In Townships of the First Class

(a) Establishing and Constructing Sewer and Drainage Systems Sewer Connections and Rates Disposal of Sewage Assessment of Cost of Construction

Section 1070 Townships of the first class may establish and construct a system of sewers and drainage locating the same as far as practicable along and within the lines of the public roads of the township as seem advisable to the commissioners. The township commissioners may permit and where necessary for the public health require adjoining and adjacent property owners to connect with and use the same. All persons so connecting shall pay in addition to the cost of making such connection a monthly or annual rate prescribed by ordinance. Such monthly or annual rate shall constitute a lien until paid against the property so connecting with such system and the amount thereof may be recovered by due process of law.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to repeal or modify any of the provisions of the Public Service Company law.

Section 1071 Where it is reasonably impracticable in the judgement of the commissioners in any part of such system to carry such sewers or drains along the lines of public roads the commissioners may locate and construct so much of the same as is necessary through private lands.

Section 1072 The commissioners shall make the necessary provision for the disposition of the sewage and drainage within or for carrying the same beyond the limits of the township and to this end they are hereby authorized to enter into contracts with other municipalities and other corporations or persons and to purchase acquire enter upon take appropriate occupy and use such lands rights and interests therein within the corporate limits of other townships or boroughs as shall be necessary for the proper location construction maintenance use and operation of sewer main drains or disposal plants including such lands rights and interests therein as shall be necessary for future additions to and enlargements of such sewage facilities and as may be necessary to carry out the plans and specifications upon which a permit has been issued by the Commissioner of Health in accordance with the provisions of the act of April twenty-second one thousand nine hundred and five entitled "An Act to preserve the purity of the waters of the State for the protection of the public health."

Section 1073 In the event of inability to agree with the owners either for the land necessary for so much of the line of sewers and drains as are not located upon public roads or for so much land as is required for the disposition of the sewage the commissioners may enter upon said land and mark thereon the route and width necessary for the construction of the line of sewers or drains or the boundaries of so much land as is necessary for disposition of such sewage and occupy the said land for such purposes. For all damage done or suffered or which accrues to the owner or owners of such land by reason of the taking of the same the funds of the township raised by taxation shall be pledged and deemed as security.

Section 1074 The court of common pleas on application thereto by petition either by the township commissioners or by the owner of the land may appoint a jury of viewers from the county board of viewers who shall not be the owners of property or residents in the township and appoint a time not less than twenty nor more than thirty days thereafter when the viewers shall meet upon the land. Ten days' notice of such time and place shall be given to the petitioners and to the other party by the viewers.

Section 1075 The viewers having been sworn or affirmed faithfully justly and impartially to decide and a true report to make concerning all matters and things to be submitted to them and in relation to which they are authorized to inquire and having viewed the premises shall estimate and determine what amount of damages if any has been or may be sustained by reason of such occupation taking and use and to whom the same is payable and shall make report thereof to court.

Section 1076 When the report is filed in court the same shall be confirmed nisi. Thirty days after the filing of the report if no exceptions thereto have been filed nor an appeal to the court for a jury trial is taken the report shall be confirmed absolutely.

Within thirty days after the filing of the report either party may file exceptions thereto or appeal to the court and demand a trial by jury.

From such final confirmation of the report or from any judgment on a verdict of a jury either party may within six months appeal to the Superior or Supreme Court.

Section 1077 The damages as awarded when the report is finally confirmed shall be entered as a judgment and if the same is not paid within thirty days after the entry thereof execution to enforce the collection thereof may be issued as in other cases of judgment against townships.

Section 1078 The board of township commissioners of townships of the first class shall charge the cost of construction of any system of sewers or drains constructed by the authority of section ten hundred and seventy of this act upon the properties accommodated or benefited thereby. The ordinance providing for such charge shall be adopted by the board within six months from the date of the final completion of such system of sewers and drains.

Section 1079 Whenever a sewer system is constructed by a township of the first class for the accommodation of a certain portion only of the township the commissioners of such township may constitute the territory accommodated into a sewer district or divide it into several sewer districts. In every such case the commissioners shall make an estimate of the proportion of the cost of the sewer system which should equitably be charged on each of said districts and declare and establish such apportionment by ordinance. No district shall be charged with more than its due proportion of the cost of the main sewers pumping stations et cetera used jointly by more than one district. The aggregate amount charged on property in any such district shall not exceed the amount of such estimate.

Section 1080 Any amount not properly chargeable upon properties benefited shall be chargeable either upon all property within the sewer district on a pro rata of the assessed valuation thereof or else shall be paid out of the general township funds raised by taxation as the commissioners may decide.

Section 1081 The charge for any such sewer construction in any township of the first class may be assessed upon the properties accommodated or benefited in either of the following methods as the board of township commissioners may determine:

(a) By an assessment of each lot or piece of land in proportion to its frontage abutting on the sewer allowing such reduction in the case of properties abutting on more than one sewer as the ordinance may specify. No assessment by frontage shall be made on property of such a character as not to be lawfully subject to such manner of assessment. The ordinance providing for assessment by this method shall specify the manner in which the charge on each lot shall be calculated and ascertained.

(b) By an assessment in proportion to benefits whether the property charged abuts on the sewer or not. The amount of the charge on each property to be ascertained as provided in sections ten hundred and eighty-two and ten hundred and eighty-three of this act.

When a township is divided into sewer districts the assessment in each district may be by different methods.

(c) By an assessment of a special sewer tax on all properties located within the sewer district which shall be levied on the assessed valuations thereof as established for general taxation. Such tax may be levied for a single year or for a term of years as the commissioners may determine and shall be collected as other taxes.

Section 1082 In all cases where an assessment according to benefits is adopted the court of common pleas of the proper county shall appoint three disinterested from the board of county viewers as viewers neither of whom shall be a resident of that portion of the township which is accommodated by the sewers in question. The viewers or a majority of them having been sworn or affirmed to perform their duties with fidelity and impartiality shall assess upon each piece of land located within the sewer district which in their opinion is benefited by the construction of the sewer system whether abutting on a sewer or not such amount as in their judgment represents the benefit accruing to such lot. The aggregate of the assessments in any sewer district shall not exceed the amount charged to such district for its share of the cost of the sewer construction.

Section 1083 The viewers or a majority of them shall make report in writing specifying the amount assessed by them on each lot or parcel of land and shall file the same with the township secretary within the time directed by the ordinance appointing them. After the report is filed the viewers shall cause public notice thereof to be given by publication for two weeks in two newspapers published in the township or if there are not two newspapers so published then in such other manner as they deem proper. Such advertisement shall state a time not less than fifteen days after the filing of the report and a place where the viewers will meet and exhibit their report and hear all exceptions and objections thereto on behalf of any property owners or by representatives of the township. After the hearing of such objections the viewers shall make whatever changes they deem proper in their report.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE RECALLED FROM GOVERNOR.

Agreeably to order,
The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 335, as follows:

An Act to amend section two thousand thirty-four of article twenty of an act entitled "An Act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven by authorizing and empowering the State Board of Education to make purchases and sales of real estate for normal schools purchased by the State and prescribing the disposition of the proceeds of any such sale.

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section two thousand and thirty-four of article twenty of an act entitled "An Act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven which reads as follows:

"Section 2034 Upon the payment of the purchase money to the stockholders of any such State Normal School properly executed deeds of conveyance for all of its real estate together with all of its other property shall be delivered to the Commonwealth and thereafter such State Normal School shall be owned controlled and maintained as a State Institution.

"The Corporation of any State Normal School conveying its property to the Commonwealth as herein provided shall then be dissolved by the stockholders thereof in the manner provided by law" is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 2034 Upon the payment of the purchase money to the stockholders of any such Normal School properly executed deeds of conveyance for all of its real estate together with all its other property shall be delivered to the Commonwealth and thereafter such State Normal School shall be owned controlled and maintained as a State institution and the State Board of Education is hereby vested with full power and authority to purchase in the name of the Commonwealth for any such Normal School from the earnings thereof and from moneys received from the lease grant sale or conveyance hereinafter in this section authorized or from moneys specifically appropriated therefor by the Commonwealth any real estate deemed necessary and proper for the use of any such Normal School and to lease grant sell and convey by agreement deed or other proper instrument of writing the real estate of any such Normal School or any portion thereof when it appears that the same shall be no longer needed for the use thereof or that the interests of the Commonwealth or its citizens will be promoted thereby. The proceeds from any such lease grant sale or conveyance shall be paid direct to the State Treasurer who shall hold such proceeds in a special fund which fund shall be available to the State Board of Education to purchase land for the Normal School whose land or part thereof was leased granted sold or conveyed as hereinbefore provided or for betterments of or repairs to the property thereof as the State Board of Education may deem necessary. Such money shall be paid on warrants signed by the president of the State Board of Education and itemized vouchers for all expenditures from such money shall be filed with the Auditor General. If the State Board of Education shall notify the State Treasurer that the proceeds of such lease grant sale or conveyance will not be used for the purchase of real estate as above provided such proceeds shall then go into the general fund of the treasury.

The corporation of any State Normal School conveying its property to the Commonwealth as herein provided shall then be dissolved by the stockholders in the manner provided by law.

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That except as is provided for non-residents no motor vehicle shall be operated or driven upon any public street or highway in this Commonwealth until the said motor vehicle shall have been registered with the State Highway Department of this Commonwealth.

Section 2 The term "motor vehicle" as used in this act shall apply to all wheeled vehicles operated or propelled by any form of engine motor or mechanical power vehicles operated by power received from any source other than from engine motor or mechanical power forming part of such vehicle excepting traction engines road rollers agricultural machinery and vehicles which move upon or are guided by a track. The term "motor cycle" as used in this act shall apply to all two or three wheeled motor operated vehicles of the bicycle or tricycle type whether the motive power be a part thereof or attached thereto. The terms of this act shall apply to vehicles trailing after or propelled by a motor vehicle.

The term "owner" as used in this act shall except where otherwise plainly intended be taken to mean or include the person or persons having such motor vehicle in his or their possession custody or control under a contract of conditional sale or other like agreement vesting in him or them a qualified or defeasible ownership in the same

Section 3 Application for the registration of motor vehicles shall be made to the State Highway Department. The application shall contain the full name and residence of the owner or owners with a brief description of the motor vehicle, the name the manufacturers number the character of the motive power and the horse power and if equipped with solid or metal tires the gross maximum weight of load and vehicle combined. For registration purposes the horse power of motor vehicles equipped with other than solid or metal tires except those propelled by steam or electricity shall be computed by the following formula: Diameter of bore in inches squared times the number of cylinders times four tenths (.4). The accepted horse power for registration of motor vehicles propelled by steam or electricity shall be that given and certified to by the manufacturer. The said application shall be made upon a blank provided for the purpose by the State Highway Department. It shall be signed by the owner or owners in case of joint ownership and be verified by oath or affirmation. Upon receipt of the application and the proper fee the State Highway Department shall register the said motor vehicle in a book to be kept for that purpose and shall issue to the owner or owners a registration certificate. Such certificate shall show the name and address of the owner or owners the name type horse power and manufacturers number of the motor vehicle and the registration number thereof. The Highway Department shall also issue two (2) number tags having thereon the registration number the figures of which shall be not more than five (5) inches in height the abbreviated name of the State and the year except in the case of motor cycles the tags for which shall have figures not more than three and one-half (3½) inches in height. The number tags for motor vehicles equipped with solid tires shall bear in the corner or corners thereof a star or stars indicating the classification of the vehicle for which it is issued as provided for in section five. On the tags for motor cycles to which side care are attached the number shall be preceded by the letter

No motor vehicle or trailer shall be registerable which shall exceed ninety (90) inches outside over all width of vehicle and load combined except that motor busses for carrying passengers to be used within the city limits only in cities of the first second and third class may be registered up to one hundred (100) inches outside over all width of vehicle and load combined or shall exceed a maximum of twenty-four thousand (24,000) pounds gross weight of vehicle and load combined or shall exceed eighteen thousand (18,000) pounds maximum gross weight of vehicle and load combined upon any axle or shall exceed seven hundred and fifty (750) pounds maximum gross weight of vehicle and load combined upon any one wheel for each nominal inch of width of solid tire upon the wheel. No motor vehicle equipped with metal tires shall be licensed as aforesaid but the owner shall upon application to the Highway Commissioner upon payment of a fee to be fixed by the Commissioner be given a special permit subject to rules and requirements to be established by the Highway Commissioner and any violation of such rules shall constitute sufficient cause for revocation of such special permit. Applicants for registration who reside outside of this State shall in addition to the above requirements designate in their application the State Highway Commissioner as their authorized agent upon whom process may be served.

Section 4 Motor vehicles owned or kept by manufacturers or dealers solely for the purpose of demonstrating testing or selling shall be exempt from the necessity of individual registration provided said manufacturer or dealer registers with the State Highway Department in the "dealers class". Applications for such registration shall be made upon a blank provided for the purpose by the State Highway Department which shall set forth the full name and business address of the applicant and shall be verified by oath or affirmation. Upon receipt of the application accompanied by the proper fee for each certificate and pair of number tags desired. Said application to call for a minimum of two sets the State Highway Department shall issue to the applicant as many certificates of registration and pairs of number tags as may be desired such tags having thereon the number of the registration in figures not more than five (5) inches in height or in case of dealers in motor cycles three and one-half (3½) inches in height the year and the words "Penna. Dealer". It shall be unlawful under any circumstances to operate a motor vehicle under a dealers registration unless both number tags are displayed as is provided in this act.

It shall be unlawful to use or permit the use of the tags issued under a dealers registration on any motor vehicle other than those owned and operated by such dealer or his employees or for any other purposes than those set forth in this section.

Section 5 The fee for the registration of a motor cycle shall be three dollars. The fee for a motor cycle with a car attached shall be five dollars. The fee for the registration of other motor vehicles equipped with pneumatic tires except as is provided for in the dealers class when registration is issued prior to September of any year shall be ten dollars for each motor vehicles of less than thirty-five horse power fifteen dollars for each motor vehicle of thirty-five and less than fifty horse power twenty dollars for each motor vehicle of fifty horse power or more. The fee for the registration of motor vehicles equipped with solid tires shall be ten dollars for each motor vehicle of less than three thousand pounds gross maximum weight of load and vehicle fifteen dollars for each motor vehicle of three thousand pounds and less than four thousand pounds gross maximum weight of load and vehicle twenty dollars for each motor vehicle of four thousand and less than seven thousand pounds gross maximum weight of load and vehicle twenty-five dollars for each motor vehicle of seven thousand and less than fifteen thousand pounds gross maximum weight of load and vehicle thirty dollars for each motor vehicle of fifteen thousand and not more than twenty-four thousand pounds gross maximum weight of load and vehicle. The fees for registration of vehicles trailing after or propelled by motor vehicles shall be two dollars for each such vehicle of less than one thousand pounds gross maximum weight of vehicle and load combined three dollars for each such vehicle of more than one thousand and less than five thousand pounds gross maximum weight of vehicle and load combined and five dollars for each such vehicle of more than five thousand pounds and less than twenty-four thousand pounds gross maximum weight of vehicle and load combined.

Motor vehicles either solid or pneumatic tire used for transporting passengers for hire over a regular route and on a fixed schedule shall be one dollar ($1.00) for each passenger seat in the motor vehicle in addition to the regular fee for registration.

The fee shall be fifteen dollars for each certificate and pair of number tags issued to persons registered in the dealers class except for dealers in motor cycles for whom the fee shall be five dollars and in both cases the minimum number of sets of tags that shall be issued one dealer shall be two.

The fees for registration when issued on or after September first except for motor-cycles and dealers shall be one-half of those required above.

No fee shall be charged for the registration of motor ambulances motor fire apparatus motor patrol wagons and motor cycles used by police officers owned and used by any city county incorporated town borough township duly authorized volunteer fire department hospital humane society or anti-cruelty society nor for any motor vehicle owned by the State of Pennsylvania or the United States but all such vehicles shall be registered and shall display number tags as provided for in case of privately owned vehicles. All registrations shall expire December thirty-first of the year issued.

The term pneumatic tires as used in this section shall be construed to mean any tire containing air at greater pressure than the surrounding atmosphere and all other tires shall be considered as solid tires except that electric motor vehicles used for pleasure purposes shall be registered in the pneumatic tired class and according to horse power.

Section 6 Motor vehicles owned by non-residents of this State and the drivers thereof shall be exempt from the provisions of this act relating to the licensing of drivers and the registration of motor vehicles and the display of drivers' badges and registration tags provided that they have complied with the provisions of the law of the foreign country state territory or Federal district in which they reside relative to the registration of motor vehicles and licensing of drivers thereof and the display of registration tags and shall conspicuously display the registration tags required thereby.

The aforementioned provisions of this section however shall only apply to such non-resident for such time and to such extent that under the laws of the foreign country state territory or Federal district of his residence similar exemptions are granted to the residents of this State. Provided however that this section shall not apply to motor vehicles permanently kept in this State and owned by foreign corporations or non-residents nor to the drivers of such vehicles.

Section 7 Upon the transfer of ownership or destruction of any motor vehicle its registration shall expire. The original owner may however by proper affidavit accompanying his application register another motor vehicle upon payment of a fee of one dollar ($1) provided such motor vehicle be of equal or less horse power or classification than that originally registered or upon payment of a fee of one dollar ($1) and the difference between the fee paid originally and that due if the motor vehicle be properly registerable in a higher class and such owner shall be assigned the number previously issued to him unless the original registration tags have been destroyed.

In the event of change of tires from pneumatic to solid or vice versa the owner shall make affidavit to that effect upon a blank furnished by the State Highway Department and shall forward a fee of one dollar ($1) to pay for a set of license tags under the new classification together with additional fee required for increased horse power or weight where transfer to new car of opposite classification is made transfer application to be executed and forwarded the State Highway Department together with one dollar ($1) transfer fee one dollar ($1) for set of new tags and added horse power or weight fee of new vehicle if any and the return of tags previously issued.

Section 8 The Highway Commissioner may at his discretion revoke or suspend the registration of any motor vehicle or the license of any driver for improper conduct in operating a motor vehicle upon hearing after due notice in writing of the proposed action and the grounds therefor has been mailed to the owner thereof or to the licensee at the address given in his application and may also refuse to issue a license to any applicant who in his estimation is an improper person to operate a motor vehicle.

Section 9 No person under sixteen years of age whether the owner of a motor vehicle or not shall drive or operate a motor vehicle upon any public street or highway in this Commonwealth nor shall any person owning or having charge of any motor vehicle permit any person under sixteen years of age to operate such vehicle.

No person who is mentally or physically incapacitated shall be permitted to operate a motor vehicle on the public highways of the State. Any person who has lost one hand or both or who has lost the use of one hand or both or who has lost both feet or who has lost the use of both feet or whose eyesight is so impaired that with the aid of glasses he cannot distinguish objects clearly at a distance of one hundred and fifty (150) feet or who shall have less than twenty (20) per centum of normal vision or who shall have lost within two (2) per centum of normal hearing shall be considered physically incapacitated and if any such person shall have obtained a license it shall be void. Provided That the Highway Commissioner may at his discretion issue special licenses to persons otherwise disqualified under the terms of this act to operate motor vehicles.

Section 10 Every person desiring to operate a motor vehicle as a paid operator or who is an employee of the owner or custodian thereof shall first obtain a paid driver's license. Application for such license shall be made upon a blank furnished by the Highway Department and shall be signed by the applicant and be verified by oath or affirmation. It shall contain the full name of the applicant with his place of residence and shall state that said applicant is eighteen years of age or over has had at least ten days experience in the operation of a motor vehicle and is not mentally or physically incapacitated and shall clearly set forth any physical defect or disability which might disqualify the applicant from operating a motor vehicle.

Upon receipt of the application and fee of three dollars ($3) the State Highway Department shall if the applicant fulfills the requirements issue to the applicant a paid driver's license and a badge. The license shall show the licensee's name and residence and the date and number of the license but shall not be valid until the licensee's signature is attached thereto. It shall be carried by the licensee at all times when operating a motor vehicle.

Upon the badge shall be the words "Penna. Licensed Driver" the year and the number of the license which it accompanies. It shall not be less than one and one-half inches and not more than two and one-half inches in its greatest diameter and shall be conspicuously worn on the front of the outer garment of the licensee at all times when said licensee is operating a motor vehicle. All such licenses shall expire December thirty-first of the year issued.

Every person other than a paid operator desiring to operate a motor vehicle shall make application for a license to the State Highway Department upon a blank furnished by the Department. Such application shall be signed by the applicant and be verified by oath or affirmation. It shall set forth the name and residence of the applicant who must be sixteen years of age or over and must have had at least ten days experience in the operation of a motor vehicle and be not mentally or physically incapacitated and shall clearly set forth any physical defect or disability which might disqualify the applicant from operating a motor vehicle.

Upon receipt of the application the State Highway Department shall if the applicant fulfills the requirements issue to such applicant a license which shall be carried by the licensee at all times when operating a motor vehicle. Such license shall be numbered and shall set forth the licensee's name and residence but shall not be valid until the licensee's signature is attached thereto. All such licenses shall expire December thirty-first of the year issued.

The Highway Commissioner shall issue Learners Permits to persons sixteen years of age or over not mentally or physically incapacitated desiring to learn to operate a motor vehicle. Such permits shall be issued for a period of thirty days but shall be valid only while such person is accompanied by a licensed driver. The charge for such permit shall be fifty cents (50c).

The Highway Commissioner may refuse to issue a license to any applicant who in the estimation of the Commissioner is an improper person to operate a motor vehicle.

Section 11 No person shall operate any motor vehicle the registration of which has been suspended or revoked.

No person whose license has been suspended or revoked or the registration of whose motor vehicle has been suspended or revoked shall operate any motor vehicle upon any public street or highway of this Commonwealth nor shall any person owning or having charge of any motor vehicle knowingly permit any person whose license or registration has been suspended or revoked to operate any such motor vehicle.

No person shall display upon any motor vehicle altered or false registration tags or operate any motor vehicle under any other number than that of its own registration.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than three hundred dollars ($300) or imprisonment not exceeding one year or both at the discretion of the court and upon certification of such conviction by the clerk of the court to the State Highway Commissioner he may revoke the license of any licensee so convicted and refuse to issue to such person another license during a period not exceeding one year.

Section 12 Any person operating a motor vehicle when under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any narcotic or habit producing drug or any person taking part in any race or speed contest for a prize or wager or otherwise upon any public highway or attempting to establish or lower any speed record upon any public highway shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25) nor more than three hundred dollars ($300) or imprisonment for not more than one year or both at the discretion of the court and upon the certification of such conviction by the clerk of the court to the State Highway Commissioner he shall revoke the license of any person so convicted or the registration of the motor vehicle owned by him and no license or registration shall be again issued such person until after the expiration of one year from the date of such conviction.

Section 13 The moneys derived from registration and license fees under the provisions of this act shall be paid by the State Highway Department into the State Treasury for safe keeping and shall by the State Treasurer be placed in a separate fund to be available for the use of the State Highway Department upon requisition of the State Highway Commissioner. All such moneys hereafter paid into the State Treasury are hereby specifically appropriated to the State Highway Department for the purpose of assisting in the maintenance improvement and repair of the State Highways and State-aid Highways of Pennsylvania. The Auditor General shall upon requisition from time to time of the State Highway Commissioner draw his warrant upon the State Treasurer for the amount specified in such requisition not exceeding however the amount in such fund at the time of making such requisition.

Section 14 On no motor vehicle owned by a resident of this Commonwealth while operated or driven upon any public street or highway in this Commonwealth shall there be displayed number tags issued by any other state territory federal district or foreign country.

Only one set of number tags shall be displayed upon any motor vehicle and except as provided in this act for non-residents no number tags shall be displayed other than those issued by the State Highway Department.

No motor vehicle shall be operated upon any public street or highway in this Commonwealth unless the registration tags are rigidly attached thereto parallel to the axles of the motor vehicle so that they cannot swing or oscillate one on the front the other on the rear of such motor vehicle. The lower edge of the tags shall be not less than fifteen (15) inches above the ground. They shall be entirely unobscured and be kept free from oil grease dirt or other substance likely to impair their legibility and shall not be bent or defaced in any manner and between one hour after sunset and one hour before sunrise the rear number tag shall be illuminated so that the number can be plainly distinguished provided however that motor cycles need display but one registration tag which shall be attached to the rear thereof in such manner as to fully comply with the provisions of this section.

Should a tag or tags be so defaced that the number thereon becomes illegible it shall be the duty of the owner of the motor vehicle for which same have been issued to apply promptly for new tags.

In case of the loss or defacing of one or both number tags or of a badge a new pair of tags or a badge of another number than that of the lost or defaced tag or badge shall be supplied by the State Highway Department. Upon the receipt of the new tags the applicant shall return to the Highway Department for cancellation the tag or tags in his possession which were originally issued him. A new pair of tags or badge may be obtained by filing with the State Highway Department upon a blank furnished by said Department an affidavit reciting the loss defacing or destruction of said tag or badge accompanied by a fee of one dollar ($1).

No owner or operator of a motor vehicle shall be subject to fine by reason of one number tag or his badge being missing provided that he make affidavit that the same has been lost destroyed or removed without his knowledge or consent within a period of one week and that application for new tags or badge be promptly made.

Section 15 Every motor vehicle shall be provided when in use with good and sufficient brakes and with a horn bell or other signal device and where such vehicle is so constructed or so covered as to prevent the driver or operator thereof from having a sufficient view of the traffic following it shall be equipped with some device that will show the operator the road to the rear.

Every motor vehicle whether standing or in motion upon any public highway shall from one hour after sunset until one hour before sunrise and whenever it is impossible to see clearly for a distance of two hundred (200) feet show at least two white or amber colored lights on the front of such vehicle provided however that motor cycles to which no side car is attached need display only one such light.

Every motor vehicle including motor cycles shall also display one red light visible from the rear but if a trailer or trailers is attached to such motor vehicle a red light shall be displayed on such trailer or on the last trailer if more than one shall be clearly illuminated tag on the rear of every motor vehicle and trailer or last trailer if more than one shall be clearly illuminated from one hour after sunset until one hour before sunrise.

The induction into office will be deferred until the arrival of one of the Judges of the Dauphin County Court.

PRESENTATION OF TESTIMONIAL TO HON. E. E. BEIDLEMAN.

Mr. CROW. Mr. President, Senator Beidleman: During this long and more or less trying session of the Legislature you have been our President Pro Tempore. The wisdom of your selection has been justified by an administration characterized by rare ability, strict integrity, and uniform fairness and consideration. I voice the unanimous sentiment of your Colleagues, I am sure, when I say to you, Sir, that you retire from this honorable position, holding to the highest degree the respect, confidence, love and esteem of its membership. Permit me, in their behalf, to express to you their deepest appreciation of unnumbered kindnesses extended. Of this, it is their desire that you and the loved ones about you have some concrete proof, therefore, speaking for your Colleagues in the Senate, I present you this silver service in evidence of their affectionate regard. May it always be an unfailing source of pleasure and satisfaction, and bring back to you, in the years that are to come, a flood of pleasant memories. May long life bless you, and good luck always attend you is our earnest prayer.

Mr. BEIDLEMAN. Mr. President, I have always regarded, and I know my colleagues in the Senate will join with me in saying that there is no more distinguished legislative body than the Senate of Pennsylvania. The highest ambition to which a man attains is to represent a senatorial district in this most honorable body. But it is more of an honor to be chosen by your colleagues to serve in the office of President Pro Tempore of this Senate. When I took my position in the commencement of the session I said that I would endeavor to faithfully discharge the duties of my office, and if I had anything to say it would be from my seat in the Senate and not from the chair of the President Pro Tempore. I have endeavored faithfully to follow out the promise I made at the commencement of this session, and if I have failed in any respect I do not know it, because I have endeavored always to do what I believe was fair and honest and honorable to every member of this body, as well as to my constituency of the State of Pennsylvania. When I leave this body I shall leave it with sincere regret but I shall always have among my most pleasant memories the friendships which I have made here, which will always be near and dear to me. This present which you make to me to-day, my fellow Senators, shall always be the most cherished possession I have in my whole life and I shall care for it and have it stand forever as representing pleasant memories and friendships I have made with the members of this Senate, I thank you from the bottom of my heart for this appreciation which you have shown to me.

PRESENTATION OF GAVEL TO HON. E. E. BEIDLEMAN.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, and Senators: That which should be a pleasant duty to me has become an arduous task, for knowing you, Senator Beidleman, as I do, and being acquainted with the fact that you are averse to platitudes, I am at this time unable to properly express to you the high regard and esteem in which you are held by your fellow-members of the Senate, and in order that these moments may not be embarrassing to you and that you may not feel uncomfortable, I will not further go into details. At the request of the Chief Clerk of this body I present to you this gavel, the emblem of authority, and in passing it over to you I want to express the feeling and the thoughts of those men who are best qualified to know, in saying to you they are all of one opinion, that you have been the best presiding officer of this body in the last two decades; and that we further feel that the only emblem and the only reward that you will ask of them in the days to come is that you will be known as plain "Eddie" Beidleman of Dauphin County, a man's man.

Mr. BEIDLEMAN. Mr. President, and members of the Senate, I appreciate the hard work of any session that is done by the members at the desk. If it were not for the faithful service we get there both the President and President Pro Tempore, at many times, would be in deep water. We have always been fortunate in the clerks we have had; we have been extremely fortunate in having the office of Chief Clerk filled by men for whom this Senate always has most profound respect. We passed one to a higher office during the session but he was succeeded by the same character of man, who will continue to reflect credit upon this Senate and upon his position as long as the Senators shall see fit to elect him and I hope it will be during many years.

PRESENTATION OF TESTIMONIAL TO HON. CLARENCE J. BUCKMAN.

Mr. PHIPPS. Mr. President, members of the Senate, we have finally reached the concluding hours of another legislative session at Harrisburg. To some of us, of course, this day means possibly our last appearance in this arena. There are some among us who have had a larger political bee buzzing around them and I know it is the wish of every member of this Senate that it will finally alight in the right place; and there are others among us who expect to stay at home by the special request of our friends, relatives and neighbors. But, Mr. President, the associations and the memories and the good fellowship of our Harrisburg experience can never be forgotten. To my mind the State Senate of Pennsylvania is the finest legislative body in the United States. For the past six months it has been my pleasure to have become very intimately acquainted with one of the real big men in this distinguished body. At our Harrisburg home, where he has presided at the head of our family table with dignity and dispatch, we have all learned to love him, and as Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations of this Senate I am sure he has made a record for honesty and square dealing that can scarcely be eclipsed and, Mr. President, if hard work and an honest heart is any criterion by which to judge the busy activities of every day life then no words of mine can add one iota to the ability, the honesty and reputation of Clarence J. Buckman. By night and by day he has waded through an almost endless mass of figures, advice and abuse, mindful always of trying to do the most good to the largest number of people, mindful alike always of the welfare, the interest and the prosperity of the large number of interests scattered throughout the length and breadth of our beloved Commonwealth until this morning, when our labors are almost over, I think we can all unite in saying that the finances of this great Commonwealth were never more ably, honestly and intelligently administered; and, Senator Buckman, when the session shall have ended I am sure you can take back home with you the good wishes of every member of this body. I am especially gratified this morning to have the pleasure of presenting to you a slight token of the esteem in which you are held by every member of this distinguished body.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, Senator Phipps and my colleagues in the Senate of Pennsylvania:

The end of this legislative session has about arrived. This is the fifth legislative session that I have served here at Harrisburg, and this is the second session that you have honored me with the Chairmanship of the Appropriations Committee of the Senate. My duties as Chairman of that Committee, have, of course, been difficult and at times tedious, but I do at this time, Mr. President, desire to express to the Senate of Pennsylvania, my appreciation of the consideration and courtesy shown to me not only by the members of this Senate, but by the House of Representatives, and also by the officers and the clerks and the attaches of this body. We have been in session now for nearly six months and in all that time I have not had an unpleasant circumstance with any member of this body, and that is a record of which I can be very proud. To be called upon to be the Chairman of the committee which has had the parcelling out of some eighty-five millions of dollars, is indeed no light task. I realize full well that you have not all gotten what you asked for, you have not gotten what your constituents demanded that you should get, in many instances, but I assure you that whatever has been done by this committee has been done in an effort to do equity and justice to all. I have had the pleasure of traveling over the State with the members of this Committee and I am sure that I have learned many many valuable lessons. It is indeed a great experience for any man to serve in the Senate of Pennsylvania. It is indeed a greater experience for any man to be Chairman of this important committee, and as Chairman of that Committee, if he intends to do his duty, or tries to do so, he cannot help but have experience which will be beneficial to him for all the rest of his life. In learning the charities of this State, many many of our cities, Mr. President, do not have any conception, of the enormity of the work, the charitable work, that is done by this State for its dependents. I also desire to thank the members of this Appropriations Committee, which comprises practically the whole Senate, for the consideration they have shown me in the meetings and deliberations of this Committee, and at the same time, Mr. President, I especially want to thank the members of this Senate for the token of regard. I do not know what it is, but I am sure that it is something that will be the wherewithal of providing something for me that will be a keepsake for me for the rest of my life. I thank you most heartily.

PRESENTATION OF TESTIMONIAL TO HON. CHARLES H. KLINE.

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, and Members of the Senate: There has been delegated to me a very pleasant duty, one that I do, not only on behalf of the Committee of Judiciary General, but on behalf of a number of gentlemen of the Senate who are not members of that Committee. We have in this Senatorial body a man who has served in every capacity. As President Pro Tempore of the Senate he conducted that office every way in a manner that met with the approval of his constituency; as Chairman of the Judiciary General Committee he was always fair and honest, and always did to the best of his ability oblige his fellow members of the Senate, and now today it seems only right to give a little token to him. At the same time, Mr. President, there is a certain sadness that comes over us. While it is right for men to have ambition in this world, it is sometimes sad to think that that ambition will carry men away from us, and I say to the gentleman, that I am giving this to, that while we probably may lose him as a member of the Senate of Pennsylvania, we wish him all success in his campaign, and we hope when this session ends and when the next one comes around and he enters the portals of this Chamber, we will say to them, "Judge Charles H. Kline, Allegheny, has seen fit again to elect an able and an honest man as a member of the Judiciary; and it is with great pleasure, Senator Kline, that I give to you, on behalf of the Committee, this watch, as a token of their affection, their love and their esteem for you.

Mr. KLINE. Mr. President, Senator Daix, and Members of the Senate of Pennsylvania: The highest ambitions are laudable, and I know of no office within the gift of the people of Pennsylvania that compares with that of a member of the Senate of Pennsylvania. They all pale into insignificance, and no one realizes that more than I as a member of that body to-day. I have been honored, as was stated by the esteemed gentleman from Philadelphia, with all the honors that could possibly come to a member of the Senate of Pennsylvania, Chairman of the Appropriations Committee for two terms, President Pro Tempore, and at last head of the legal body, a committee of this body, and I say that on other occasions beautiful presents have been given to me as a token of esteem, which the members of the Senate have held for me as a member of this body. There are pleasant moments in my life and this will be one of mine in receiving this beautiful present. It is also a sad moment in my life when I think that I no longer will be a member of this august body. My friends, words are inadequate to express my appreciation of all the courtesies and kindnesses that have been extended to me as a member of this body and I know of no body where the men are such real men as in this body. We may squabble over differences of opinion in regard to legislation, but thank God the men who compose this body are broad enough that after the gavel sounds and the words sine die are announced we are broad enough to throw aside all those little differences and extend the right hand of fellowship. This is the true spirit that characterizes members of this great body and I will cherish these thoughts and my experience in this great body as the choicest gift of my life and when I look at this beautiful present in time to come I assure you if I have any dark moments in my life they will be dispelled by the memories of this beautiful gift.

PRESENTATION OF TESTIMONIAL TO HON. AUGUSTUS F. DAIX.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President and Members of the Senate: I feel that now we are coming to the close of our presentations, and getting away from the subject, and following somewhat the thoughts of the previous speaker, I feel that after all that is said and done, the education that we all receive in political life and through political affiliations is such, that although at times they are eclipsed and their thoughts and actions not quite understood yet the education that we all receive in political life, I think, makes us broader, more charitable and more really human beings. I know of no institution in God's creation that brings men closer to men, particularly in the hours of distress, than the education all in political life get, and it is only necessary for those who have never known it to once put their feet on the threshold of that education and find out that every word that we have uttered is true. It has been the custom and the proper custom for the various committees to present to their chairmen tokens of respect, tokens of affection, showing to them that they appreciate the work that has been done, but once in a while, but not very often, there arises in the horizon of this particular political atmosphere, one, who by his actions and his affection to his duty and by his devotion to the cause he represents, and to the interests of his people, arises out of the multitude, and such a man, although he is not a chairman of a committee, although it is an unusual proceeding, has arisen in our Committee of Judiciary General. I refer to the Honorable Augustus F. Daix of Philadelphia County, a man small in stature but great in heart and loving kindness. Never before in my time have I craved the power of speech more than I do now, and I wish that I could draw a picture to you members of the Senate, a portrait of the character of this man, and on behalf of members of that committee, although he is not the Chairman, I present to him that beautiful clock that adorns the wall at this time, and in the days to come may the mystic cards of memory carry his mind back to the moments when he first heard the chimes of this clock and remember the session of 1917 as I know he will.

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, Senator Salus and Gentlemen of the Senate: I would not be human, sir, if my voice were not choked with emotion. The members, not only the members of the Judiciary General, but to be more explicit even than Senator Salus has stated, even from the outside of that committee, as I understand it, I want to say this, Mr. President, perhaps it will not be amiss at this time, the end of the session, to say to you, sir, that this present comes as well from the members of the Democratic side of the house, the members even,—if there is such a thing as a faction,—on both sides, from every side; simplifying what has been expressed here to-day, that even in this gift for me, if it takes that form, that the Senate of Pennsylvania stands for, the expressions always used and seldom meant, the brotherhood of mankind. When I left the Senate here this morning and went out into the grey dawn of morning it was something like a chill that I felt upon me. Upon reaching my home as the sun came up I realized, as the warmth of the sun touched me, so the warmth of love comes into the hearts of men and makes them love one another. If the time could only come when ambition would not make men hate each other but make men love each other more, and I thought how much better it would be and all I can say is, gentlemen, in thanking you for this gift, in conclusion, whether we men meet in the Senate again or on the outside, whether it is across the great divide into the world beyond when we answer the other roll call, I simply say to you God be with you till we meet again.

OATH OF OFFICE ADMINISTERED TO PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair appoints the Senator from Fayette. Mr. Crow, and the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. DeWitt, a committee to escort the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, the newly elected President Pro Tempore of the Senate, to the bar of the Senate, there to take the oath of office, which will be administered by the Honorable Samuel J. M. McCarrell, Additional Law Judge of the Twelfth Judicial District.

Mr. CROW. Mr. President, I have the honor to present the newly elected President Pro Tempore of the Senate, Hon. Clarence J. Buckman.

The oath of office was accordingly administered.

The PRESIDENT. Gentlemen of the Senate, I present to you your President Pro Tempore, the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, gentlemen of the Senate of Pennsylvania: It is indeed a great honor for any man to serve as a Senator in this body; it is indeed a greater honor for a man to serve as chairman of your Appropriations Committee; it is yet the highest honor, to my mind, that can come to any member of this body to be elected its President Pro Tempore. I was honored eight years ago by the people of Bucks County, where I was born and raised, and where my ancestors have lived since the Good Ship "Welcome" landed there in 1682, by being sent to this body. You have twice honored me by being Chairman of that most hard-worked committee. You have now conferred upon me that highest honor within the gift of this office, by being elected to the third Executive office of the Commonwealth. Should I be called upon during the term for which I have been elected to preside over this body it shall be my earnest effort and desire to do so with fidelity and faithfulness toward all. I shall as a Senator represent the people of my county, but as presiding officer of this body I shall represent the whole Senate of Pennsylvania and every member thereof, be he Republican, Democrat, or that party which did not caucus. I thank you, my friends and colleagues for this honor, more than words can express. My one hope is that I may be able to carry out and fulfill the confidence which you have thus expressed in me.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS TO HON. SAMUEL J. M. McCARRELL.

Mr. SONES. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. SONES offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Senate be extended to the Hon Samuel J. M. McCarrell, Judge of the Courts of Dauphin County, for his favor and courtesy in administering the oath of office to the newly elected President pro tempore, the Honorable Clarence J. Buckman.

HOUSE CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS MADE BY THE SENATE TO HOUSE BILL NO. 335.

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented communication from the House of Representatives, informing the Senate that the House was concurred in amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 335, entitled

An Act to facilitate the labors of the judges learned in the law of the courts of common pleas and orphans' courts of the several counties of the State by providing suitable clerical assistance.

SENATE BILL NO. 1643 RETURNED WITH AMENDMENTS.

He also returned to the Senate, Senate Bill No. 1643, entitled

An Act to amend an act approved the seventh day of July one thousand nine hundred thirteen entitled "An Act authorizing the State Highway Commissioner to take over the rights of way of canal companies and of railroad and railway companies that have been abandoned or that have not been built upon for the use of the State Highway Department for the purpose of locating and constructing State highways and providing a method of condemnation procedure."

with the information that the House has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Said amendments having been printed as required by the Constitution, were twice read as follows:

In Section 1, page 2, line 3, by inserting after the word "procedure" the following: "Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the State Highway Commissioner be and is hereby authorized to take over in his discretion for the use of the State Highway Department any abandoned canal or any part thereof that is no longer used for the purpose for which it was intended except where such abandoned canal is used or occupied by a railroad or railway in actual operation or any abandoned right of way of a railroad or railway and rights of way or railways that have not been used occupied or built upon for a period of not less than five years for the purpose of re-locating public highways constructing them as State highways when such abandoned canals and rights of way extend in the general direction as that of the State highway originally projected"

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the same?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—42.

Baldwin,	Eyre,	McConnell,	Semmens,

RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING THE PRINTING OF FIVE THOUSAND COPIES OF HOUSE BILL NO. 682.

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 28, 1917.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That if House Bill No. 682, entitled "An Act concerning townships and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" is approved by the Governor, the Secretary of the Commonwealth is hereby directed to have printed five thousand extra copies of said act in advance sheet form.

Mr. CROW. Mr. President, I move that Rule 39 be dispensed with, in order that the resolution may be considered at this time.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

Whenever the ownership or possession of any dog licensed under the provisions of this act is transferred from one person to another except the temporarily transfer of dogs for hunting purposes or for breeding trial or show as provided in section nine of this act such transfer shall be noted on the record of the county treasurer

Section 15 An accurate record of all license fees collected by the county treasurer or paid over to him by any justice of the peace shall be kept as a matter of information but all such funds shall be turned into the county funds All moneys at present in the "dog fund" derived from taxation of dogs under the existing law shall be turned into the county fund All bills incurred under this act or due at the time of the passage of this act shall be paid out of the county fund and any excess moneys collected under this act shall be used for other county purposes

Section 16 The assessors for taxation purposes in each township borough town and city of this Commonwealth shall annually at the time of assessing property as required by law make diligent inquiry as to the number of dogs owned harbored or kept by any person so assessed

The assessor shall annually on or before the thirty-first day of December make a complete report on a blank form furnished by the county commissioners to such commissioners setting forth the name of every owner of any dog or dogs how many of each sex are by him owned or harbored and if a kennel is maintained by any person such fact shall also be stated It shall be the duty of the assessor at the time of making the assessment to notify the owner of such dog or dogs that he must obtain a license for the same as provided for in this act but the neglect or failure so to notify such owner shall not relieve the owner from his duty to obtain such licenses

Section 17 On and after the fifteenth day of January one thousand nine hundred and eighteen it shall be unlawful for any person to own or keep any dog six months old or over unless such dog is licensed by the treasurer of the county in which the dog is kept and unless such dog at all times wears the collar and tag provided for by this act or unless such dogs are temporarily brought into the State for breeding trial or show purposes

Section 18 It shall be the duty of every police officer to seize and detain any dog or dogs which bear a proper license tag and which are found running at large and unaccompanied by its owner or keeper. It shall be the duty of every police officer to kill any dog which does not bear a proper license tag which is found running at large. The chief of police or his agents of any city the high constable of any borough or the constable of any borough not having a high constable and the constable of any incorporated town or township shall cause any dog bearing a proper license tag and so seized and detained to be properly kept and fed and shall cause immediate notice either personal or by registered mail to be given to the person in whose name the license was procured or his agent to claim such dog within ten days. The owner of a dog so detained shall pay all reasonable expenses incurred by reason of its detention under the provisions of this section before the dog is returned.

Section 19 If after ten days from the giving of such notice such dog has not been claimed such chief of police or his agent constable or high constable shall dispose of such dog by sale or by destruction in some humane manner. No dog so caught and detained shall be sold for the purpose of vivisection. All moneys derived from the sale of such dog after deducting the expense of its detention shall be paid to the county treasurer and by him placed in the county fund. For services under sections eighteen and nineteen of this act such officers shall be paid the sum of one dollar for detaining a licensed dog and the sum of one dollar for the killing of a dog. All expenses incurred under this act or the preceding section and not otherwise provided for shall be paid by the proper county.

Section 20 For failure to perform his duty under the provisions of this act such police officer shall be liable to a penalty of two dollars for each offense which amount shall be deducted from any amount due such police officer from the county at any settlement between such officer and the county commissioners.

Section 21 Any person may kill any dog which he sees in the act of pursuing worrying or wounding any live stock or attacking human beings whether or not such dog bears the license tag required by the provisions of this act. There shall be no liability on such person in damages or otherwise for such killing.

Any unlicensed dog that enters any field shall constitute a private nuisance and the owner or tenant of such field or their agent or servant may kill such dog while it is in the field without liability or responsibility of any nature for such killing.

Licensed dogs when accompanied by their owner or handler shall not be included under the provisions of this section unless caught in the act of worrying wounding or killing any livestock or attacking human beings.

Section 22 All dogs are hereby declared to be personal property and subjects of larceny. Except as provided in section twenty-one of this act it is unlawful for any person except a police officer to kill injure or poison or to attempt to kill injure or poison any dog which bears a license tag for the current year.

It is unlawful for any person to place any dog button or any poison of any description in any place on his own premises or elsewhere where it may be easily found and eaten by dogs.

It shall be unlawful for any person except the owner or authorized agent to remove any license tag from a dog collar or to remove any collar with a license tag attached thereto from any dog.

It shall be unlawful for any person to harbor or permit to remain about his premises any dog not having a license.

This section does not prohibit the Board of Game Commissioners or any of its officers and agents from placing poison under the provisions of the game laws of this Commonwealth.

Section 23 It is unlawful for the owner or keeper of any female dog to permit such female dog to go beyond the premises of such owner or keeper at any time she is in heat unless such female dog is held properly in leash.

Section 24 The owner or keeper of every dog shall at all times between sunset and sunrise of each day keep such dog either (a) confined within an enclosure from which it cannot escape or (b) firmly secured by means of a collar and chain or other device so that it cannot stray beyond the premises on which it is secured or (c) under the reasonable control of some person or when engaged in lawful hunting accompanied by an owner or handler.

Section 25 Whenever any person sustains any loss or damage to any live stock or poultry by dogs or any live stock of any person is necessarily destroyed because of having been bitten by a dog such person or his agent or attorney may complain to any township auditor or to any justice of the peace magistrate or alderman of the township town borough or city. Such complaint shall be in writing shall be signed by the person making such complaint and shall state when where and how much damage was done and by whose dog or dogs if known. Such township auditor justice of the peace magistrate or alderman shall at once examine the place where the alleged loss or damage was sustained and the live stock or poultry injured or killed if practicable. He shall also examine under oath or affirmation any witness called before him. After making diligent inquiry in relation to such claim such township auditor justice magistrate or alderman shall determine whether any damage has been sustained and the amount thereof and if possible who was the owner of the dog or dogs by which such damage was done.

Any owner or keeper of such dog or dogs shall be liable to the owner of such live stock or poultry in a civil action for all damages and costs or to the county to the extent of the amount of damages paid by such county as hereinafter provided.

Section 26 Upon making the examination required in section twenty-five of this act the township auditor justice magistrate or alderman shall immediately make a certificate thereto signed and sealed by him that such appraisal was regularly and duly made. If by such examination it appears that any damage has been sustained by the complainant the township auditor justice magistrate or alderman shall deliver the report of such examination and all papers relating to the case to the claimant or his agent or attorney upon payment of the costs up to that time. Such report shall be delivered to the county commissioners to be filed in their office.

Section 27 Township auditors justices of the peace magistrates and aldermen for the special service required under sections twenty-five and twenty-six of this act shall receive two dollars for each case and five cents per mile for each mile traveled to be paid by the claimant in each case. In all cases where damages are awarded the fees paid by claimants shall be included in the amount of such damages.

Section 28 Upon the commissioners of the county receiving such report if it appears thereby that a certain amount of damage has been sustained by the claimant they shall immediately draw their order on the treasurer of the county in favor of the claimant for the amount of loss or damage such claimant has sustained according to such report together with necessary and proper costs incurred. Such amount shall be paid by the proper county. No person shall receive any order for any claim until the township auditor justice of the peace magistrate or alderman before whom the claim was made has certified that due diligence was made to ascertain whose dog or dogs did the damage and that the carcasses of the live stock or poultry killed and for which damages have been assessed were buried within twenty-four hours after the assessment of damages. The owners of any live stock or poultry killed by dogs or live stock necessarily destroyed because of having been bitten by a dog shall be paid fifty cents each for burial of such live stock or poultry killed to be paid as other damages under this section. Upon payment by the county of damages to live stock or poultry by dogs the rights of the owner of such live stock or poultry against the owner of the dog to the extent of the amount of damages so paid by such county shall enure to the benefit of the county.

Section 29 No payment shall be made for any item which has already been paid by the owner of the dog or dogs doing the injury. The fact that no such payment has been made shall be certified by the township auditor justice of the peace magistrate or alderman.

When any payment is made by the county for any live stock bitten by a dog such payment shall not exceed one hundred dollars for each horse or mule forty dollars for each head of cattle or six dollars for each head of swine.

Section 30 Any valid claims or parts thereof for loss or damage to sheep horses mules cattle or swine which have accrued under any general or local laws at any time prior to the passage of this act shall not abate by reason of the repeal of such general or local act but shall be paid out of the general fund of the proper county.

All claims or parts thereof remaining unpaid for any reason at the close of any year shall not abate but shall continue as claims until paid in full.

Section 31 If in the report of the township auditor justice of the peace magistrate or alderman the name of the owner of any dog or dogs having caused loss or damage to any live stock is definitely and conclusively shown the county commissioners shall notify such owner or keeper immediately to kill said dog or dogs and if said dog or dogs be killed in accordance with such notice or order the owner or keeper of said dog or dogs shall be exempt from all further liability.

Upon failure however of such owner to comply with such order within a period of ten days he shall be liable for the damages caused by said dog or dogs and the chief of police or his agent of the township town borough or city in which said dog or dogs are kept shall upon notice from the county commissioners kill such dog or dogs wherever found. For such service he shall be entitled to one dollar for each dog so killed to be paid by the proper county upon a certified statement to the commissioners that such dog or dogs have been killed by him. The county commissioners shall issue an order on the county treasurer for such amount unless payment has been made by the owner or keeper of the dog or dogs provided however that the owner or keeper of any licensed dog or dogs that have caused loss or damage to poultry shall not be obliged to kill said dog or dogs unless said dog or dogs are mad but shall be liable for said loss or damage.

Section 32 It is unlawful for any person knowingly to make any false statement or to conceal any fact required to be disclosed under any of the provisions of this act.

Section 33 In any proceedings under this act the burden of proof of the fact that a dog has been licensed or has been imported for breeding trial or show purposes or that a dog is under the age of six months shall be on the owner of such dog

Any dog not bearing a license tag shall prima facie be deemed to be unlicensed

Section 34 The Secretary of Agriculture through his officers and agents shall have the general supervision over the licensing and regulation of dogs and protection of live stock and poultry from damage by dogs in all counties of the Commonwealth The commissioners of each county shall enforce within their respective jurisdiction the provisions of this act To this end the Secretary of Agriculture may employ all proper means for the enforcement of this act Any other State Department Bureau or Commission may on request of the Commissioner of Agriculture assist in the enforcement of the provisions of this act

Section 35 Any person violating or failing or refusing to comply with any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding three months at the discretion of the court

All fines collected under the provisions of this act shall be forthwith paid to the treasurer of the proper county

Section 36 This act is intended as a complete and uniform system throughout the Commonwealth for the licensing of dogs and the protection of livestock and poultry from injury by dogs but nothing in this act shall interfere with any law for the protection and preservation of game Except where such acts or parts of acts are specifically repealed this act does not repeal or affect any acts or parts of acts relating to mad dogs or dogs affected with any disease

Section 37 Nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent the owner of a licensed dog from recovery by action at law the value of any dog which dog has been illegally killed by any police officer farmer stockman or other person within this Commonwealth from said police officer farmer stockman or other person In case such police officer or other person fails to pay the value of such dog so killed the same shall be paid by the proper county Said value of said dog to be ascertained in the same manner and form as provided in section twenty-five of this act for assessing the damage done to live stock by dogs

Nothing in this act shall be so construed as to prevent the killing of a dog caught chasing deer at any time of the year on either public or private lands or to prevent the killing of dogs by any officer empowered to enforce the game laws of this Commonwealth when said dogs are pursuing game during the closed season for the training of dogs on game providing said dogs are not under the immediate control or accompanied by their owners or keepers and also provided that legal notice has previously been given said owner or keeper as required by the Game Laws of this Commonwealth

Section 38 In the event that any one or more of the provisions of this act should be decided to be unconstitutional the court's decision holding the same unconstitutional shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this act it being the intention of the Legislature that the provisions of this act are severable

Section 39 The powers and duties given to and imposed upon county commissioners and other officers by this act shall not extend to cities of the first and second class In cities of the first and second class the power and duty to fix and collect license fees provided in section four of this act and issue license tags and otherwise perform and carry out the provisions of this act within the limits of such cities shall be and are hereby given to and imposed upon the council or councils of each of said cities respectively

NOMINATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

He also laid before the Senate the following nomination by His Excellency the Governor of the Commonwealth, reported with a negative recommendation, from the Committee on Executive Nominations at today's session.

MEMBER OF THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Member of the Public Service Commission of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Robert K. Young, Wellsboro, from date of confirmation to July 1, 1923.

Whereupon.

A motion was made by Mr. VARE,

That the Senate do advise and consent to the nomination reported.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, as the Honorable Robert K. Young comes from my district I think that I owe it to this Senate to give a few reasons why the Senate should not consent and approve of his nomination to this high office, I know, Mr. President, that in the closing hours of the Senate rather pleasant words have been said, pleasant speeches have been made, and while friendship seems to sit upon the throne and we are saying good bye, and while the best of fellowship exists one does not like to put into it anything of a contrary nature, and for that reason I am going to be as mild as possible in the few objections that I shall make.

The Republicans of Pennsylvania, as most of you know, have honored Robert K. Young many times. He has carried the horseshoe, several of them, since his earliest days. The records will show that from the time he was elected Justice-of-the-Peace in his town of Wellsboro in 1889. That was followed up by being elected to the General Assembly for two terms. After that he was made attorney for the Capitol Commission and served for a period of four or five years. After that, as you know, he became Auditor General and I want to call to your attention that at the time he was a candidate for Auditor General when he came down here to the convention, and I was here, most of you gentlemen were, many of you, and three of the delegates of his own county were not for him as the candidate for Auditor General, but it was supposed by the arrangement which was made at that time that there would be peace with the friends of Mr. Young at Philadelphia and at Pittsburgh, and you gentlemen know what the peace was. You know we had no sooner honored him as Auditor General than he notified that veretan State Chairman, Wesley R. Andrews, that he would not attend the notification meeting at the home of Former Governor Edwin S. Stuart, and would not attend without some other Republican would be made State Chairman. He was elected and served through that office. He was next elected to the office of Treasurer in 1912. He was saying during the time he was a candidate, in 1912, it was his policy in Chicago and afterward in his own home, to say that his venerable father, the Honorable U. Young, had the distinct honor of being present at the first National convention where the Republican party was given birth, back in 1856, and that he, the son, sixty years afterwards or more, had the more distinguished honor of attending the National convention at which the funeral knell of the Republican party was sounded. He came home and you know the position he took in the campaign. He was elected Treasurer, made speeches all over the district against our Republican candidate for President. In 1914 you know how he supported the Republican candidates. I want to call your attention to a clipping, and many of them appeared at the time, it was a speech which he made in your City of Harrisburg, which was headed as follows: "State Treasurer Young Speaks for McCormick. The Republican nominee has none of the equipment of a Governor." Harrisburg, October 29, "just before election time, as you well remember, State Treasurer, R. K. Young, presided at a non-partisan meeting here tonight, in the interest of Vance C. McCormick, declared that Martin G. Brumbaugh does not possess the qualifications which a Governor should have. Young remarked that he had known several Governors during his many years in public life and that a Governor must have four requisites; he enumerated these as ordinary intelligence, common honesty, common sense and courage, and then he said he believed Brumbaugh was lacking in all of these." I want to call the attention of you gentlemen here to the fact that while Mr. Young was going over this State advocating the election of Vance C. McCormick for Governor, that your humble servant was traveling over his county spending his money, his time and whatever ability he had, making speeches for Dr. Brumbaugh and the entire Republican ticket and I went in every town of my county of any consequence. Now in the recent campaign what position was Mr. Young in? For instance, at my primaries? He was out with his friends doing everything he could to defeat me for the nomination. After I had obtained the nomination in a regular, orderly way he comes back into the district, into his own county, he forms a combination against me of an independent candidate, buys off the Democratic candidates or they are taken off the ticket, and he substitutes a new candidate on the Democratic ticket, Washington party ticket, Prohibition, Progressive and I know not what, and he contributed a thousand dollars to that candidate's election, as Mr. Longstreet's personal accounts show. Gentlemen, it seems to me as if we should consent and confirm the nomination of such men as Robert K. Young as a Republican that we are offering a premium upon disloyalty. Mr. Young has not been a Republican for years. You know, some of you, how far back from the time when Governor William Stone was nominated General Young was against him for the nomination and his friends, and after he was elected he soon ingratiated himself into his favor. It seems to me that we have men in Pennsylvania, either Republicans or Democrats, who are fitted to fill the highest appointment that we have in the gift of our party. It seems to me further, Mr. President, and gentlemen of this Senate, that out of courtesy to Republican members from their own counties, and I refer to Senator Williams and Frank Martin, the members who have gone along with the Governor in all of his policies; two years ago Senator Williams was Chairman of the Law and Order Committee and he did everything that could be done, and Mr. Martin, for the carrying out of Governor Brumbaugh's policies; yet in their county, or mine, no one has been consulted as to whether we were interested in this appointment or not. I say that in this Senate of Pennsylvania, which I consider one of the most dignified exclusive and finest bodies of men that exists anywhere under the sun, that there should be and I think is a Senatorial courtesy and friendship which does accord to wishes of the Senators and members from the district in which I am elected to office. That has not been done in this case. I do not see how Governor Brumbaugh could expect to make a nomination of this kind and hope for the Senate of Pennsylvania to consent and confirm it, and I ask as one of your number, one who has tried during the days he has lived to be able to look every man or woman in the face and tell them to go to hell as far as pledges broken and lack of loyalty to friends or party is concerned. I did not expect an instance of this kind, I think you should resent this nomination. I do not know what motives have prompted the Governor and am making no criticism. I believe that things have been misrepresented to Governor Brumbaugh and I ask you gentlemen of the Senate to approve of the negative report made by the Committee on Executive Nominations.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, and members of the Senate, ever since I have had a seat in this Chamber it never occurred to me that a man was ever appointed to any high office because he was a Republican or an anti-Republican. If he has good qualifications for the office I think that is all this chamber requires and I agree with everything Senator Baldwin says in regard to his politics, but I did not think the Governor was making recommendations or I did not think we were confirming men on what their politics were.

Mr. LEIBY. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Potter, Mr. Baldwin.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Potter, Mr. Baldwin permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, certainly.

Mr. LEIBY. Mr. President, I would like the Senator from Potter to tell me whether his judgment was correct or whether Robert K. Young's judgment was correct that Martin G. Brumbaugh was not a fit man to be Governor.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I would answer, I would think that Mr. Young would be correct if Governor Brumbaugh has not been deceived in making this nomination. I do not believe that Doctor Brumbaugh, our Governor, can realize all the situations and I have not related the unpleasant ones connected with it.

Mr. LEIBY. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Potter, Mr. Baldwin, whether he contends that Robert K. Young has not sufficient ability to fill the position for which his name has been submitted to us for appointment?

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, no such contention is pretended or made. I merely say that there are loyal men in one party or the other that you know where they stand, they have not been disloyal to their party, that we can approve and I want to say further with all the gracefulness in the world that I would approve of any good Democrat nominated here, as I would a Republican.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—20.

Burke,	Homsher,	Patton,	Snyder,
Graff, J. F.,	Jenkins,	Salus,	Stewart,

Catlin,	Graff, W. P.,	Nason,	Weaver,
Craig,			Whitten,

Less than two-thirds of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the negative.

Ordered, That the Governor be informed accordingly.

Mr. CROW. Mr. President, I move that the executive session do now rise.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION PROVIDING FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF A JOINT COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE THE CO-ORDINATE BRANCHES OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE COMMONWEALTH.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. McNICHOL offered the following resolution, which was twice read:

Whereas, investigations by several standing committees of the General Assembly have brought to the attention of the members thereof the need of readjustment in the organization, management and administration of the co-ordinate branches of the State Government, and

Whereas, it appears that there is duplication of work, encroachment of authority, lack of co-ordination of similar duties, and lack of such organization as is essential to the best business interests of the Commonwealth, and

Whereas, it is apparent to the members of the General Assembly as a result of their investigations, that the salaries of many positions connected with public offices are disproportionate to the responsibilities imposed, and

Whereas, by reason of their present scheme of organization it has been possible for some divisions of the State Government to expend public moneys legally, but not in conformity with the intent of the General Assemblies that appropriated such funds, and

Whereas, the present system of management has permitted certain divisions to expand unnecessarily and to develop along lines that have resulted in the afore-mentioned duplication of work and encroachment of authority, and

Whereas, The Acts of Assembly creating some divisions have delegated powers and duties to new divisions that were originally possessed and discharged by divisions which have consequently become unnecessary or obsolete; therefore

Be It Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That a joint committee to consist of five Senators, two of whom shall be members of the minority political party, to be appointed by the President pro tempore of the Senate, and five representatives, two of whom shall be members of the minority political party, to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, be, and the same are hereby constituted a Special Committee, whose duty it shall be to investigate the present organization of the co-ordinate branches constituting the Government of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; the number, character, duties and compensation of each position connected therewith; the business methods and procedures now used in the management of public business; the necessity for continuing and the cost of administration of the several divisions of the State Government; and to report to the next General Assembly recommendations for such changes as will put the co-ordinate branches of the State Government on a sound business basis, by co-ordinating similar duties, preventing duplication, eliminating encroachment and overlapping, providing improved methods for supervising the expenditure of public moneys, abolishing unnecessary or obsolete departments, offices and positions and such other reorganizations as will improve the administration of the public business and will bring about greater economy and efficiency in the public service.

This Committee shall be authorized to employ such clerical, expert or other assistance as necessary to discharge their duties, and the funds for these expenses and the necessary traveling expenses of the members of the Committee shall be provided by an item in the General Appropriation Bill to be paid by the Auditor General and State Treasurer on requisition of the Chairman of the Committee.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. VARE. If the purpose of this resolution is to go into an honest and thorough investigation as to the overlapping of the laws and proper management of the departments, we concede that there are some extra laws, creating positions that overlap and all doing the same work, whereby if they were separated,—for instance, an inspector in the Health Bureau, an inspector in the Fire Bureau, an inspector in the Board of Labor and Industry all visit the same building and make their inspections, whereas one inspector could cover what now is covered by three. If the purpose of this resolution is to make a thorough investigation along honest and straight lines, not a repetition of the Catlin Commission, the Governor, as well as the Governor's friends in this in this Senate, will be glad to help this resolution through, and if this resolution is offered in good faith and if the Senator from Philadelphia will guarantee that, I will be glad to vote for it and help it along.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. President, this resolution is the result of at least two months and a half of laborious work upon the part of the joint committee of the House and Senate upon the different appropriations requisite for the two years of 1918 and 1919, and during that investigation we discovered just such conditions as are recited in this resolution. I can say to the Senator from Philadelphia that is the purpose of those who designed it, and upon the committee there can be members of both political parties. It is for the purpose of having some efficient and up-to-date system of operating the different departments of the State government. As to any desire to have any semblance of inquisitorial powers, I do not think any member of the Senate who had anything to do with it has anything of the kind in mind. I know I have not, and I think it will result, after investigation by the Senators and members of the House who will constitute the Committee, something that will be beneficial, not only to the State Government, but also to the people of this whole Commonwealth.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution.

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

HOUSE MESSAGES.

RESOLUTION CONCERNING THE PRINTING OF THE JOURNALS OF THE TWO HOUSES.

The Clerk of the House of Representatives, being introduced, presented communication from the House of Representatives, informing the Senate that the House had concurred in resolution from the Senate as follows:

ANNOUNCEMENT OF DEATH OF TIMOTHY J. REARDON.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, and gentlemen of the Senate: It is with great regret and sorrow, that I have to announce to the Senate the death of one of my best friends, the elevator man of the Senate elevator, Timothy J. Reardon of Coatesville, and I move you, sir, that the Chief Clerk of the Senate be instructed to send a floral emblem in the name of the Senate to the funeral house of the deceased, and that the sympathy of the Senate be extended, through the Chief Clerk, to the widow of the deceased.

Mr. PATTON. Mr. President, I second the motion. The motion was agreed to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Chester, Mr. Eyre, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, in the General Appropriations Bill, I am reported by the conference committee on page 22, line 4, in the following paragraph: And provided further That no portion of the money appropriated for schools by this act shall be paid to or for the normal school of the First School District known as the Westchester Normal School located at Westchester in the county of Chester for any purpose or purposes whatsoever so long as George M. Philips shall be connected in any way directly or indirectly with this institution.

Mr. President, and Gentlemen of the Senate, I want to state my reason for asking the conference committee to place in the General Appropriations Committee that provision. In the first place, however, I want to say that there was some objection on the part of the House to this provision, on the ground that it was unconstitutional, and had no place in the general appropriations bill. I, therefore, early in the afternoon, not wanting to assume the delay for the passage of this important measure, moved to strike out that provision before the Conference Committee, and the said provision was stricken out at my instance, with the assurance of the Conference Committee that if I desired it should remain therein. My reason, Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, for asking for the insertion of this provision is because I believe George M. Philips to be totally unfitted to preside as principal of a State institution of the magnitude of the Normal School at West Chester. George M. Philips in 1911, before an investigating committee of the Board of Trustees of that institution, of which I was one at that time and of which I was a member of the investigating committee, was convicted, unquestionably of charges that are not calculated to promote the best interests of an institution of this character. It was clearly proven and practically acknowledged by the said George M. Philips that he had deceived and withheld from the Board of Trustees information that he possessed of the character of the steward of the institution, who subsequently eloped with one of the students of that institution, and believing in the utmost protection of our growing girls in this community I, as a member of the Board of Trustees, voted for and succeeded in removing George M. Philips from the principalship of that institution. A few months thereafter the institution became the property of the State of Pennsylvania and George M. Philips, by the Board of Education of the State of Pennsylvania, was reinstated to the principalship of that institution, notwithstanding the fact that he had condoned and held in his possession for a period of some five years a knowledge that the steward of the institution, who was a married man, was preying upon the student girls of that institution, as well as the female help of the institution. Mr. President, I want to say to you and the gentlemen of this Senate that I had no motive in placing this proviso in the general appropriation bill other than for the best interests of an institution of the State of Pennsylvania and I want to say to you that I protest against the Department of Education coming on the floor of this body in an effort to have this proviso removed. George Becht, the Secretary of the State Board of Education lobbied on the floor of the House of Representatives industriously this morning to try to arouse an interest to secure the obliteration of this proviso and it was only, Mr. President, in consequence of my desire not to delay this legislation that I agreed to withdraw the same and make my statement to this body. I want, Mr. President, to ask unanimous consent to have printed as a part of my remarks the brief that was prepared by the attorney of the Trustees of the school and presented to the State Board of Education protesting against the reappointment of the said George M. Philips to the principalship of this institution. I want further, Mr. President, to ask unanimous consent to have inserted as a part of my remarks all reports of the investigating committee, which set forth in full the facts concerning this disgraceful transaction.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senate give unanimous consent to print the papers indicated? The Chair hears no objection.

WEST CHESTER STATE NORMAL SCHOOL.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF DR. GEORGE M. PHILIPS FOR APPOINTMENT AS PRINCIPAL OF SAID SCHOOL BY THE TRUSTEES OPERATING THE SAME UNDER THE STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

ARGUMENT IN OPPOSITION TO APPOINTMENT OF DR. PHILIPS.

The State Board of Education is respectfully requested, in the appointment of Trustees for the above mentioned School, by virtue of the provisions of the Act of 1911, to select men who will not be dominated by or appoint Dr. George M. Philips as principal of said School, for the following reasons:

1. Dr. Philips, in December, 1907, or January, 1908, was officially informed that Harry Johnson, the then steward of said School, had committed gross acts of immorality in said School; and he not only failed to report the same to the Board of Trustees, by whom he was employed, and to whom he owed the duty of reporting, but suppressed all information thereof from them for a period of almost three years.

2. Dr. Philips, after reporting said act of said Johnson, in October, 1910, was directed by the Chairman of the proper committee of the Board of Trustees, to go to a reliable Detective Agency in Philadelphia, and employ them to investigate Johnson and the said charge of immorality, and report to the Board of Trustees. Instead of obeying these orders, Dr. Philips went to the Pinkerton Detective Agency in Philadelphia, and not only failed to mention the name of Johnson, or the fact that he was to be investigated, but falsely and deliberately told the Detective Agency that the School desired a colored detective to investigate immorality and petty thieving among the colored employees.

- Dr. Philips not only disobeyed orders, and made this investigation a farce, but never thereafter co-operated to have a detective allowed in the School at all, or to pursue the investigation to any extent whatever.

3. Dr. Philips, although many times thereafter was asked by the Chairman of the Committee as to what he had been able to find out concerning Johnson, wholly failed to inquire of others of the faculty, or other employed at the School, or from anybody, but reported that he had heard nothing concerning Johnson, whereas, if he had inquired, he could have readily found that he had extended his immorality from female employees of the School, to female students, and thus have prevented the unfortunate scandal which resulted with the final elopement of Johnson with one of the girl students.

4. Dr. Philips, throughout the investigation, has been guilty of willful and deliberate falsehood; has tried to shift the responsibility for Johnson upon the Board of Trustees, or some of them, falsely and untruthfully, and has otherwise proved himself unworthy to head an institution where it is most important that truthfulness be taught the students attending the same.

I.

Dr. Philips, in December, 1907 or January, 1908, was officially informed that Harry Johnson, the then steward at said School, had committed gross acts of immorality in said School; and he not only failed to report the same to the Board of Trustees, by whom he was employed, and to whom he owed the duty of reporting, but suppressed all information thereof from them for a period of almost three years.

In the year 1907, Harry Johnson, the steward, debauched a young female employee at the School, whose name was Wolfinger, and who is spoken of in the reports of the Committee, as the German girl. He not only did this, but attempted to commit an abortion on her in the School building, and subsequently sent her away. She turned up in a charitable institution in Philadelphia, known as the "Midnight Mission," late in 1907, and remained there until her child was born, in February, 1908. She told the authorities at the Mission that Johnson, the steward, was responsible for her condition, and the records of the institution show that he paid the costs of her maintenance there as well as at the Jefferson Hospital. Mr. A. A. Stull, the President of this charitable institution, deeming it of the utmost importance that the head of the institution of which Johnson was steward, should be advised of his conduct, in view of the fact that many young and innocent girls and young women were in attendance at said School, and likely to be brought into contact with the steward, sent for Dr. Philips and had him come to Philadelphia, and told him the circumstances, including the fact that Johnson practically admitted his guilt, by paying for the maintenance of the girl. Although Dr. Philips knew that Johnson was the one man who had authority, and access, with authority and freedom, to every room in and about the Normal School properties, and therefore the greatest opportunities to prey upon females in and about the property, he, upon being informed by Mr. Stull, manifested neither surprise nor much interest, and for almost three years, or until October, 1910, he suppressed this information from his Board of Trustees, made no investigation, apparently, and did nothing to either watch over Johnson, the steward, or prevent his continuance of his acts of immorality in and about the premises.

It is but a fair conclusion, when we consider the character of the Board of Trustees of the School, and their vigorous action as soon as they heard of Johnson's latest crimes against morality, that had Dr. Philips performed his duty in December, 1907, or January, 1908, to his superior officers, or had he investigated and kept upon Johnson a most watchful eye, the School would have avoided these other and latest acts of immorality upon the part of Johnson, to which we shall refer, and this latest scandal in the School.

It is respectfully contended, that Dr. Philips is responsible for the acts of immorality of Johnson and the scandal arising out of these acts, since January, 1908.

Dr. Philips, if he be fit to occupy the office of principal, knew that Johnson, as the testimony shows, had access to every room, nook and corner in the School, and authority to go there; that if he were neither punished, nor given to understand that he had been detected in his first acts of immorality, that he would continue to prey upon other female employees, and finally upon the younger, more attractive, and more unsophisticated students in the institution, as he did.

II.

Dr. Philips, after reporting said act of Johnson, in October, 1910, was directed by the Chairman of the proper committee of the Board of Trustees, to go to a reliable Detective Agency in Philadelphia, and employ them to investigate Johnson and the said charge of immorality, and report to the Board of Trustees. Instead of obeying these orders, Dr. Philips went to the Pinkerton Detective Agency in Philadelphia, and not only wholly failed to mention the name of Johnson, or the fact that he was to be investigated, but falsely and deliberately told the Detective Agency that the School desired a colored detective to investigate immorality and petty thieving among the colored employees.

Dr. Philips not only disobeyed orders, and made this investigation a farce, but never thereafter co-operated to have a detective allowed in the School at all, or to pursue the investigation to any extent whatever.

In October, 1910, Johnson's immorality or misconduct tending to immorality, had become so notorious, that, according to Dr. Philips' written reply (See Pamphlet, p. 29), the matron, who had just then resigned her position, spoke to Dr. Philips of Johnson's improprieties with some of the women servants. This was followed almost immediately by information conveyed to Dr. Philips by Mrs. Emerson, the then new matron, who had apparently learned of it as soon almost as she took her place, to the effect that Johnson, according to rumors in and about the School, was guilty of improprieties with the women about the institution.

These rumors must have been many, and with foundation, as otherwise Mrs. Emerson, the new matron, would not, so early in the occupancy of her office, have deemed them important enough to take to the principal.

In Dr. Philips' written reply, he states that these reports from these two matrons "were quickly followed by information from an official of a Philadelphia institution that a woman who was then a patient there and had formerly been a servant at this school, had made positive charges of immorality against Johnson." Dr. Philips further says: "I then went promptly to Mr. Eyre, who was then and has ever since been Chairman of the Household Committee * * * I told him all that I had heard."

This was a positive falsehood, as Dr. Philips himself now admits. The truth is, that Dr. Philips, having heard from these two matrons that Johnson was still misbehaving with females about the premises, knowing his own dereliction of duty in failing to report Johnson's self-confessed crime in the school some three years before, was fearful that the Board would hear of Johnson's self-confessed crime, and know of his almost criminal neglect in reporting the same, and thought it best to report Johnson's self-confessed crime as though it had just happened.

This is confirmed by the fact that when Mr. Eyre told Dr. Philips to go to the Detective Agency to employ a detective to investigate Johnson, he went to the Agency, but did nothing of the kind. He never mentioned Johnson, according to his own statement, but told the Agency that he wanted a colored detective, to investigate colored help in the School.

Dr. Philips did this because he knew that if, as Mr. Eyre, as Chairman of the Committee, had told him, he told the Detective Agency that he wanted to investigate Johnson's crime against the German girl, of which report had been made, the Agency would discover and report that that crime had taken place some three years before, and the Board of Trustees would thus know that Philips had knowingly and intentionally suppressed the information which he got from Mr. Stull.

How could the Board of Education, with its eyes open, entrust the further management of this school to Dr. Philips, in the face of this duplicity and lack of fidelity to his former employers, and in the face of this disregard of the welfare and safety of the hundreds of young girls whom he knew to be in the school, and upon any of whom he knew Johnson could prey at any time.

III.

Dr. Philips, although many times thereafter was asked by the Chairman of the Committee as to what he had been able to find out concerning Johnson, wholly failed to inquire of others of the faculty, or others employed at the School, or from anybody, but reported that he had heard nothing concerning Johnson, whereas, if he had inquired, he could have readily found that he had extended his immorality from female employes of the School, to female students, and thus have prevented the unfortunate scandal which resulted with the final elopement of Johnson with one of the girl students.

To show further Dr. Philips' duplicity and lack of fidelity he never even took the interest or displayed sincerity enough in the investigation which he had been ordered to make, through detectives, to see to it that a detective got into the building, or to in any way co-operate with any detective in the investigation of Johnson. In other words, he made a farce of the investigation, and thus again shielded Johnson, the steward, and allowed him to browse about the building in the pursuit of his duties, and prey upon any young and innocent girl therein.

Dr. Philips admits that after this investigation, Mr. Eyre, as Chairman of the Committee, a number of times asked him if he had discovered anything further concerning Johnson, and he had uniformly and always replied that he had not.

Dr. Philips has been in charge of that school for many years, he knows enough about mankind to know that a man who once commits, with impunity, a crime such as Johnson did, back in 1907, would be likely to repeat it. He was continually asked by Mr. Eyre if he had found out anything about Johnson; and yet, according to Philips own testimony, he never inquired of his private secretary, or any other single member of the faculty, from 1910, until this last unfortunate scandal, concerning the man Johnson. If he had done so, he would according to the admitted evidence, have discovered, from many or all of the other people to whom he would have naturally gone, the fact that Johnson was still and almost brazenly, committing acts of immorality in and about the building.

Miss Speakman, the Preceptress, testified, as will be found in the first report of the Committee, that she knew it; that it had become so bad in the case of the Wolf girl that Mrs. Johnson twice informed her of it, and asked her to inform Dr. Philips.

Dr. Philips would have learned that Mrs. Bullock, who had been nurse there for nine years, knew it, and knew of a number of cases. She had herself seen Johnson coming from the room of a matron at almost midnight, and had informed Dr. Philips' own private secretary of it. She, as well as Dr. Philips' private secretary, had seen a girl, a former student at the School, whose name had been connected with that of Johnson, spend the whole of the Christmas vacation of 1912 in the School, and brazenly sit at the table with Dr. Philips' private secretary.

Dr. Philips could have learned, as he did learn, also, from Mrs. Holmman, the matron, or Mrs. Emerson, her successor; or from Dr. Starkey, his own Vice-Principal.

Indeed Dr. Starkey, in March, 1912, told Dr. Philips, not, as he says, of immoralities, but of stories concerning Johnson's behavior towards women; which, Dr. Philips, knowing the world as he must know it, and would have known meant, in connection with what Johnson did to the German girl, immorality sooner or later.

Dr. Philips not only suppressed this information which he got from his Vice-Principal, in March, 1912, but went so far to shield Johnson as to tell Dr. Starkey practically to keep quiet about it; that the Board would rather lose five or six teachers than lose Johnson. That, Dr. Philips knew, was a willful and malicious falsehood; that not a member of the Board would have shielded Johnson for an instant; that two years back they had ordered him to go to the expense of a Detective Agency to investigate Johnson.

It will occur to you as it has occurred to every one familiar with the facts in this case, that there must be some reasons why Dr. Philips would suppress this information concerning Johnson, and why he would manifestly shield Johnson.

Dr. Philips, it is generally known, is a most strict disciplinarian generally. He is noted as ruling his subordinates, generally, with a heavy hand, and, as the testimony in several places shows, with not allowing any of them to question his authority.

Why should he have shielded Johnson?

IV.

Dr. Philips, throughout the investigation, has been guilty of willful and deliberate falsehood; has tried to shift the responsibility for Johnson upon the Board of Trustees, or some of them, falsely and untruthfully, and has otherwise proved himself unworthy to head an institution where it is most important that truthfulness be taught the students attending the same.

We presume it will not be denied that truthfulness is a qualification absolutely demanded in any principal at this School.

Surely nothing is more important to the thousands of students that attend and will attend this School, than that they be taught to be truthful, both by precept and example.

If this be true, Dr. Philips, it is respectfully submitted, is wholly unfit for appointment at this School.

Dr. Philips not only willfully and deliberately spoke untruths to the Committee, and in his reply to their report, but in connection with that report, and in his effort to gain public sympathy and support.

His resignation was asked by a majority of his Trustees on the 8th of September. Immediately before the following Sunday, together with his son, he, in some manner, got a representative of the Philadelphia North American at his residence, and gave him the statements that appeared therein under date of September 13th, a copy of which will be found in the notes of testimony.

The statements in that article were practically untruthful from beginning to end, and Dr. Philips knew they were untruthful. He tried, when appearing before the Board, to deny that he knew anything about the source of the statements in that article; but he was compelled to admit that a reporter of that paper had visited his house just before the report was published. Not only this, but he sat down and wrote a personal letter to Ernest L. Tustin, of Philadelphia, in which he repeated, in brief, the same falsehoods that appeared in that article, and, at the same time, vouched for the truthfulness of the article.

Robert S. Gawthrop, Esq., the Chairman of the Committee of Investigation, and Mr. Eyre, both testified before that Committee that the statements in the letter to Tustin and the statements in the North American were practically all absolutely false. Mr. Matlack, the remaining member of the committee, testified to the same thing.

Dr. Philips heard this testimony and did not dare contradict it. He knew that counsel for the School Board, who were counsel in the litigation to which he referred, and were otherwise familiar with the facts, would prove from his own mouth that his statements were false, were known to him to be false, and could have been made only to prejudice the public against his employers in the School Board.

It is respectfully submitted as applicable to this case, that a man who would falsify in one matter, could not be safely trusted in any other.

Dr. Philips can never be trusted by his employers, because the evidence adduced in this case indicates plainly that he cannot be trusted to speak the truth.

Dr. Philips, immediately upon the request for his resignation, together with one E. L. McKinstry, who appeared before your Committee giving testimony that was almost pitiful, at once established a publicity bureau; telegraphing and telephoning throughout the county and adjoining counties for Alumni of the School, and from the beginning to the end of this controversy, has absolutely denied any responsibility for any wrongdoing whatever, or any shortcomings in the performance of his duty in relation to Johnson, and has charged his Trustees with motives that he and every other man connected with the case must admit do not exist and never did exist.

In conclusion, we would say, that the Trustees of this School, and they alone, together with the stockholders whom they represent, made it even possible for the Commonwealth to own this property. By their generosity and public interest they conferred upon the Commonwealth this valuable property, and your Honorable Committee, representing the Commonwealth, in the custody, care and maintenance of the property, owes it to the Trustees to sustain their action. In finding that Dr. Philips is unworthy longer to occupy the post of Principal, or Executive Head of the Institution.

REPORT OF INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE OF THE WEST CHESTER STATE NORMAL SCHOOL AND REPLY OF G. M. PHILIPS, THERETO.

REPORT OF INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE ON WHICH REQUEST FOR RESIGNATION OF G. M. PHILIPS, AS PRINCIPAL, WAS BASED.

To the President and Board of Trustees of the West Chester State Normal School:—

We, the undersigned Committee appointed to investigate the rumors reflecting upon the former Steward, Harry S. Johnson, in connection with any inmates of the institution, herewith submit the following report:—

Pursuant to the resolution appointing the Committee we called before us a number of witnesses, employes of the institution, and all others who we had reason to believe had any knowledge relative to the matters to be investigated.

The Committee was hampered from the beginning by the reluctance of the employes of the Normal School to testify. For the most part all of these persons were not frank with the Committee and only furnished their testimony after careful and close questioning.

The first witness was Dr. Ellwood Patrick, the physician who was called to the school to attend Ruth Wolfe.

Dr. Patrick was entirely frank and open with the Committee, and his testimony was briefly as follows:

Dr. Patrick's Story.

He was called to the Normal School on the Friday prior to Sunday, October 6th, but made no examination of the case at that time, the girl stating to him that this was a condition that was usual with her during her menstrual period. He was called to the school again by the nurse, Mrs. Bullock, on Sunday morning, and upon visiting the patient recommended that she be removed immediately to the Chester County Hospital for an operation called "Curetment." The girl was at this time bleeding profusely and immediate measures were necessary to stop this condition. The nurse, Mrs. Bullock, went to Miss Cochran in the absence of Dr. Philips, and obtained permission for the girl's removal to the hospital.

Upon her arrival at the hospital and after the operation was begun the doctor discovered that her condition was the result of a criminal operation having been performed on her some time before. This was evidenced by the after-birth which was removed in the operation. Mrs. Bullock and Miss Worrest, the Superintendent of the hospital, and the attending nurse were present during the operation, and their attention was called to the cause of the same. Dr. Patrick afterwards accused the girl of having been pregnant and having a criminal operation performed upon her. At first she denied the charge, but afterwards said that she had had relations with a young man at her home in Luzerne county during the Summer, but refused to disclose his identity. Miss Wolfe plead with Dr. Patrick to shield her and not disclose the cause of her condition to any of the authorities of the Normal School. She further requested Mrs. Bullock to make no disclosure. Dr. Patrick and Mrs. Bullock afterward discussed the matter and agreed that they would not disclose the condition unless it became necessary. A proper record of the case was made at the hospital by the attending physician.

Ruth Wolfe remained at the hospital for ten days. She requested Dr. Patrick's bill the day she left the hospital in order that she could send it to her parents, and paid the hospital bill when she left the institution. She sent the money to Dr. Patrick the following day by Mrs. Bullock. This aroused his suspicions because she could not have received the money from home by that time.

Dr. Patrick further stated that while in rare instances an operation of curetment was performed in the case of a weak person to prevent further flooding at the menstrual period, it was only in rare instances that the operation was performed, except for the correction of conditions after childbirth.

Dr. Patrick Exonerated.

We feel that it is only fair to Dr. Patrick in this connection to exonerate him from any blame in connection with the case, as he performed the only operation that could have been performed to save the life of Miss Wolfe, and as Dr. Patrick is not an employee of the school, we feel that he owed allegiance of a confidential character to his patient rather than to the institution; and we are further convinced that no operation of a criminal character was performed by Dr. Patrick.

The Wolfe Family's Story.

On Monday following the appointment of this Committee arrangements were made with Mrs. Garner, a sister of Ruth Wolfe, and her husband, who resided with Ruth's family at Beaver Brook, to come to West Chester to meet the Committee. Pursuant to this arrangement Mr. and Mrs. Garner came to West Chester and met the Committee. They stated that Ruth came home at the Thanksgiving vacation in 1912 with a gold watch which she said had been given to her by a young man friend who was the son of a contractor living in West Chester. At the Christmas vacation following she came home with one or two diamond rings which she said came from the same source. In June after graduation she had another ring, said to come from the same source. During this entire period Ruth constantly referred to the young man as "Cousin Jack." During the vacation she received letters from this man and carried on a correspondence with him, these letters bearing the stamp of the West Chester State Normal School. She had a photograph which proved to be that of Harry S. Johnson.

Mrs. Garner stated that for more than a year during vacation periods Ruth upon her return home would bring several large boxes of candy, flowers and other presents which she could not afford to have purchased herself by reason of the financial condition of the family; who were denying themselves practically the necessities of life in order to give Ruth the opportunities of securing an education at the West Chester State Normal School.

At the commencement season in June last, Mrs. Garner and her sister came to the Normal School to attend the exercises; they met Mr. Johnson in Ruth's company on several occasions and Mrs. Garner said that she at this time became suspicious that the "Cousin Jack" referred to was no other than Mr. Johnson. Mrs. Garner and her sister asked Ruth in Mr. Johnson's presence where "Cousin Jack" was, stating that they thought it strange that the man who had lavished gifts upon her should not be present at the commencement. Mr. Johnson answered for Ruth, stating that "Cousin Jack" was a highly respectable young man, and had been called to Pittsburgh to attend to some business for his father and that it was on this account that he was obliged to be absent from the commencement. But at the commencement exercises several expensive bouquets appeared, which were subsequently found to have been sent from Kift's greenhouses by Harry S. Johnson.

After Ruth returned home from the commencement she prepared to pay a visit to a girl friend in Centre County. A day or two before the time for her departure she received a letter from "Cousin Jack." This letter was followed the next day by another. These letters seemed to change her plans because she packed up all the clothing which she had in her room, with the exception of a few working clothes, and started on her trip the Sunday evening prior to the Monday early in July, when Mr. Johnson left Asbury Park, going to Hazleton in the evening and taking an early morning train. At the time she left, Ruth did not have more than thirteen dollars in her possession. She mailed a postal card from Sunbury and from that time she was unheard from until August 13th, when a letter was received from her from Victoria, British Columbia. This letter stated that she was in good hands and well; that it would be useless for them to try to communicate with her because they were going to other points; that she had not eloped, and would explain everything when she came back; that they should tell Dr. Philips, if he inquired whether she had a school for the coming year, that she had one.

Mrs. Bullock's Statement.

The next witness interviewed was Mrs. Bullock, the nurse at the Normal School. Mrs. Bullock stated substantially as follows:

Ruth Wolfe roomed upon the second hall, which was in charge of Miss Groome. She spent a great portion of her time on the lower hall in the room of Helen Livingstone and Mary Barges. During the week preceding the day she was taken to the hospital she had been complaining and her condition became such, on account of flooding, that Mrs. Bullock sent for Dr. Patrick on the Friday in question. Dr. Patrick prescribed for her, but did not make any examination. The girl's condition rapidly became worse, and she was bleeding to such an extent that Mrs. Bullock 'phoned for Dr. Patrick early Sunday morning, requesting him to call to see Miss Wolfe again at once. When Dr. Patrick arrived he made a hasty examination of the girl and found that it was necessary that she be taken to the hospital at once. He told Mrs. Bullock to arrange at the office for the girl's removal to the hospital, and stated that he would attend to it at the hospital end. Miss Wolfe was taken to the hospital and the operation of curetment was begun. It was immediately disclosed that her condition was caused by a criminal operation that had been performed some time before. This was evidenced by an after-birth which was removed by the physician in the presence of Mrs. Bullock, the Superintendent of the hospital, and the nurse. Mrs. Bullock returned to the Normal School and reported to Miss Cochran what had been done. She returned to the hospital a day or two later and talked with Miss Wolfe. At this time the girl told her the same story that had been told to Dr. Patrick relative to her having had intercourse with a man in Luzerne County during the Summer, but did not disclose his identity. The girl pleaded with Mrs. Bullock to save her from disgrace; stated that her parents were poor, that they needed her help, and that she would graduate in June and be able to help the family, but if her condition were made known to the authorities of the school that she knew she would be sent home immediately. She further promised that she would never again commit such improprieties. Mrs. Bullock agreed not to disclose the cause of the operation to anybody unless it became absolutely necessary. Mrs. Bullock stated that she saw Dr. Philips at the Normal School the next day after the operation and told him that the girl had been cured. Mrs. Bullock further stated that in consequence of the apparent amount of money that the girl had in her possession, and in connection with the statement made by the girl of the poverty of her parents, that her suspicions were aroused soon thereafter, in consequence of the various rumors abroad of the familiarity of Mr. Johnson, the Steward, and this particular girl, in addition to this Mrs. Bullock stated that Mr. Johnson's name had been coupled with that of several of the female inmates of the institution. She stated that on one occasion she discovered Mr. Johnson coming from the room of a matron of the institution at 11.30 at night under circumstances so suspicious that she was convinced that criminal relations must have existed between Mr. Johnson and the said matron. She reported this episode the following morning to Miss Cochran in full detail with the expectation that Miss Cochran would report the same to the Principal of the institution. She further stated that during the Christmas vacation period of the year 1912 she discovered a former graduate of the school living at the institution during the entire vacation period. This impressed her as being an unusual occurrence and no satisfactory explanation could be made for the presence of the student at the institution. The student's name had been coupled with that of Mr. Johnson during the term at the State Normal School. Mrs. Bullock further stated that she had frequently talked with the wife of the Vice-Principal of the institution relative to the rumors that were prevalent respecting the conduct of the Steward with the girls of the institution, as well as some of the female employees of the same. She further stated that she had talked with Miss Hardee in relation to these rumors, and upon an occasion just prior to the close of the Spring term of 1913 the wife of the Vice-Principal had remarked to her that these rumors that were afloat relative to the Steward were terrible, and it was too bad that all the young girls of the institution should be subjected to such a man as the one holding the position of Steward. She further stated that upon various occasions she had discussed with Miss Cochran the rumors reflecting upon the character of Mr. Johnson, and had knowledge that the wife of the Vice-Principal had given expression of her feelings in the same manner to Miss Cochran.

The Preceptress' Story.

The next witness interviewed was Miss Elvira T. Speakman, the Preceptress, whose testimony was briefly as follows:

Miss Speakman had charge of the hall on which Helen Livingstone, an intimate friend of Ruth Wolfe, roomed. This was the same hall on which the office of the Steward is located. Miss Speakman knew that Ruth Wolfe spent a great part of her time in the room of the Livingstone girl. She frequently saw Ruth Wolfe in Mr. Johnson's office, but never saw any improprieties between them. She admitted that on at least two occasions, one of which was in January, 1913, and the other at the Senior vacation before commencement, Mrs. Harry Johnson had complained to her of the intimacy between Mr. Johnson and Ruth Wolfe. Miss Speakman said that Mrs. Johnson may have spoken to her on other occasions, but that her recollection on this point was indefinite. On the latter occasion Miss Speakman said that Mrs. Johnson insisted that Ruth Wolfe was a very bad girl, and that Dr. Philips should be informed, and that this girl should not be permitted to be graduated from the institution. Miss Speakman told the Committee that she refrained from telling Dr. Philips because she did not like to hurt Mr. Johnson's feelings. Miss Speakman was a particularly reluctant witness, and the information secured from her was obtained only by close questioning by the members of the Committee.

Miss Cochran's Statement.

The next witness examined was Miss Cochran, stenographer and secretary to Dr. Philips. At the first interview with Miss Cochran she told the Committee that she had noticed that Ruth Wolfe spent a great deal of time in Mr. Johnson's office; that on one or two occasions she was on the point of suggesting to the girl that she should not spend so much time in the office and annoy Mr. Johnson, but that she did not tell her because she felt that this was a matter for Mr. Johnson. Miss Cochran stated that she never told Dr. Philips of this matter and that she did not know that there was anything improper between them; that she had never seen any improprieties of any kind on the part of Mr. Johnson toward any of the students or women employees of the institution, that she had never heard any rumors of any kind reflecting upon Mr. Johnson's actions or his moral character.

At a later interview Miss Cochran admitted, when her attention was directly called to the matters, that Mrs. Bullock came to her room one day and told her that she had seen Mr. Johnson coming from a matron's room at 11.30 the night before and that she was satisfied that Mr. Johnson had been guilty of gross impropriety at that time. Miss Cochran said that she could not credit the story, and never spoke to Dr. Philips or any one about the matter.

Her attention was then directed to a former student who spent the entire Christmas vacation at the institution and took her meals in the dining room at the same table with Miss Cochran and other employees in the Principal's office. This girl was a former student at the school. Neither Miss Cochran nor any one in the office knew why the girl was there. Miss Cochran supposed that she had made her arrangements with Mr. Johnson. She never told Dr. Philips of the girl's presence and did not know that Dr. Philips knew of it, although Dr. Philips was in and out of the institution every day during the vacation period.

Her attention was then directed to any other rumors that she had heard about Mr. Johnson, when she said that the wife of Prof. Starkey had said to her late in the Spring of 1913 and shortly before commencement, that the stories afloat about the institution reflecting upon Mr. Johnson and his conduct with the women and girl students were simply frightful. Miss Cochran said that she made no reply to Mrs. Starkey, and that she did not communicate the matter to anyone. When asked why she had told the Committee at the first interview that she had never heard any rumors derogatory to Mr. Johnson she said that her attention was not directly called to an yparticular matters and that she was not pressed upon that point. This is not the fact, however, as she was pressed to tell the Committee of any rumors she had heard, and only acknowledged these facts after the Committee had obtained the facts elsewhere.

In Miss Cochran's first examination she stated that she had given permission to Mrs. Bullock, the nurse, to take Ruth Wolfe to the Chester County Hospital on Sunday, October 6th, in the absence of Dr. Philips. In her last examination she contradicted this statement and said that she had not given permission to Mrs. Bullock to take Ruth Wolfe to the hospital on October 6th, as she had no authority to do so. When interrogated relative to who had given such permission she replied that she supposed Ruth Wolfe was taken on authority of the nurse and the doctor. Miss Cochran further stated that on the morning of October 6th she had endeavored to get into 'phone communication with the family of Ruth Wolfe at Beaver Brook through the family physician, but she was unable to do so in consequence of the absence of the physician from his home. She, therefore, waited until after the operation, and she believed it was on the evening of that day that she wrote the following letter:

"October 6th, 1912.

"Mr. William Wolfe, Beaver Brook, Pa.—Dear Sir:—Ruth has not been very well this Fall, but has not said anything about it until a couple of days ago. She has been quite sick yesterday and to-day and this morning we called in Dr. Ellwood Patrick, an experienced and excellent physician. He said there was nothing to be done but take her to the hospital and perform a slight operation. We tried to call up Dr. Farrar at Ruth's suggestion, but he was not in, so I am writing to you to say that this has been done, is now all over and Ruth is getting along nicely. She will be able to write you all about it in a few days, or Dr. Ellwood Patrick can give you full information. Everything is all right now, and I hope she will have no further trouble. Yours very truly,

"P. S. The operation is called curetment, I believe."

This letter was taken from her stenographic note book. She alleged that she had written the letter and kept a copy of the same for the purpose of showing to Dr. Philips. When interrogated as why she had taken the letter down stenographically after she had written the same, she said it was for the purpose of keeping a record. When asked to show a letter of a similar character in the note book in which this letter appeared, she was unable to do so. She stated that usually these were important letters, but could not explain why she was unable to produce another letter written stenographically in the same way. The letter quoted did not bear date in the note book of Miss Cochran. The letters preceding it bore date of October 5th and were letters which Miss Cochran said were unquestionably dictated by Dr. Philips. The letters following it were dated October 7th and contained subject matter which Miss Cochran said was unquestionably dictated by Dr. Philips.

What Mrs. Harry Johnson Said.

The Committee next visited the home of the Steward, Harry S. Johnson, and had an interview with his wife, Mrs. Johnson stated in substance as follows:

Mrs. Johnson stated that she had been suspicious of Mr. Johnson for several years past, having accidentally found in his pocket some years ago a letter of a very compromising character from one of the graduates of the institution. Upon confronting Mr. Johnson with the fact Mr. Johnson acknowledged his guilt, asked forgiveness, and promised if such was granted him that at no time in the future should Mrs. Johnson have further cause for complaint. For a short time after this Mr. Johnson apparently kept his pledge, but soon her suspicions were again aroused and she was compelled to believe that her husband was not keeping the promise that he had made to her. She first noticed his attentions to Ruth Wolfe during the Spring term of 1912, kept her suspicions, however, to herself, hoping that the vacation period might break up Mr. Johnson's fondness for the girl, or that the girl might not return during the following year. In the Autumn of 1912, however, her suspicions were aroused very soon after the opening of the school. Upon frequent occasions when she and her daughter would visit the office of Mr. Johnson in the school they would find Ruth Wolfe hanging over him at his desk. Mrs. Johnson plead with him to desist, and upon one occasion Mr. Johnson's daughter round Ruth Wolfe in the office of her father and told Ruth Wolfe that she should be ashamed of herself for the frequency in visiting the said office. This appeared to anger Mr. Johnson, and his treatment of the family changed to such an extent that for days at a time he would not address either Mrs. Johnson or their daughter. Mrs. Johnson further stated that the evidences of Mr. Johnson's guilt were of such a character that there could be no mistake in the relations that existed between Mr. Johnson and Ruth Wolfe. Mrs. Johnson, in order to break up the relations that she was satisfied did exist between her husband and Ruth Wolfe, went to Miss Speakman in October, 1912, and told the story to Miss Speakman, who, as Preceptress of the school, she considered the proper person to confide in with relation to matters of this character, requesting Miss Speakman to speak to the Principal and endeavor to have Ruth Wolfe sent from the institution. She had been apprised of the operation at the hospital and was thoroughly convinced that the occasion therefor was through the intimacy above referred to. Miss Speakman answered her that she would not want to hurt Mr. Johnson's feelings. Again, in January, 1913, firmly satisfied and convinced in her own mind of the criminal intimacy continuing to exist, she went to Miss Speakman, as the Preceptress, the second time, to secure her assistance in ridding the school of a character such as she believed Miss Wolfe to be. Miss Speakman replied upon this occasion that she sympathized deeply with herself and Elvira. She knew that conditions existed that should not exist, but that she hesitated to hurt Mr. Johnson's feelings. No relief having been afforded Mrs. Johnson she paid a third visit to Miss Speakman, as Preceptress of the institution, at the Senior vacation, and plead with Miss Speakman to prevent Ruth Wolfe from securing a diploma, as she had the positive knowledge of her being a very bad girl, and felt that it was only fair to herself as well as the institution that a diploma should not be granted to Ruth Wolfe, and Ruth Wolfe should be kept away from the school in order that the relations existing between her husband and Ruth Wolfe might be broken off. She stated that during vacation periods in the absence of Ruth Wolfe, Mr. Johnson appeared like a different man. During Ruth Wolfe's presence at the institution he was at all times haggard and worn, and complained of being tired and exhausted, and that during these times he was irritable and unnatural with his family. She was familiar with the fact that Mr. Johnson was expending money for presents for Ruth Wolfe, and contrary to his former practices, became penurious, and expended money for family expenses grudgingly. Mrs. Johnson was somewhat surprised that when Mr. Johnson determined to take a Summer vacation of six weeks' duration that he did not invite a member of the family to accompany him, as in former years he had taken some member of the family with him. She had hoped that a complete change and rest might restore him to his former condition, and that the absence from the company of Ruth Wolfe might be helpful in bringing back the happy relations that had formerly existed in the family household. When he left home he contemplated a trip on the lakes. She received two letters from him, one written from Asbury Park, New Jersey, which appeared to be a perfectly natural letter, which gladdened the hearts of the household, feeling that he had probably forgotten his former infatuation. The second letter was somewhat of a surprise. It was written from New York city, and indicated that he had made a complete change of plans and was going to sail that day on a North German Lloyd steamship for Bremen, Germany. After a lapse of some weeks or more, hearing nothing from Mr. Johnson, Mrs. Johnson went to the school to make inquiry as to whether or not any word had reached the school of his whereabouts. Her suspicions and fears had been aroused, but she was told at the school that they were without foundation, and that her nervous condition perhaps excited the same. A letter was written, however, to the North German Lloyd Steamship Company, at their New York office, and a reply indicated that no ship had sailed on the day that Mr. Johnson indicated that he would leave. She still felt, however, that some mistake might have been made by Mr. Johnson in the name of the boat or port, but after the lapse of ten days or two weeks more she felt confirmed in her suspicion that there was something wrong, and that Mr. Johnson had probably left in the company of Ruth Wolfe and was endeavoring to secrete his whereabouts, and up to this time she has received no word from him to indicate where he could be located.

A Former Matron's Story.

The Committee then visited Mrs. Sara Holman, who was formerly employed as a matron at the Normal School and left about 1910. Mrs. Holman stated that inasmuch as she was no longer connected with the institution she did not feel like stating the facts within her knowledge. She did state, however, that she was familiar with the conduct of Mr. Johnson during the years she was at the school; that he was familiar with many of the female employes in the household department, and that in that department it was a matter of common knowledge during her term at the school, and that a condition approaching "White Slavery" existed. Mrs. Holman was asked for specific information, but she declined to give it. She was asked whether she reported the condition to the Principal of the school and declined to answer the question. When it was suggested to her that she should have no hesitation in answering "no" if she did not make this complaint she again declined to reply.

The Vice-Principal's Story.

The next witness was Professor Starkey, who manifested the greatest nervousness, and at first was exceedingly reluctant to give the Committee any information. After a considerable time Professor Starkey gave the following information, and apparently was entirely frank. He said that most of the rumors reflecting upon Mr. Johnson came to him through Mrs. Starkey; that he had heard from her the story of Mr. Johnson coming from the matron's room at 11.30 one night under very suspicious circumstances; that he had heard stories of Mr. Johnson's indiscretions with some of the women employes in the household department, and that Mrs. Starkey had said to him on different occasions that it was most unfortunate that the girls in the school should be subjected to the baneful influence of a man like Harry Johnson; that the efforts of herself and others to uplift and help the girls were destroyed by this man. Professor Starkey said that in March, of 1912, his desire to give up the Vice-Principalship and move out of the institution became so strong that he went to Dr. Philips about the matter, and in that connection stated to Dr. Philips that there were many unsavory rumors in the institution about Mr. Johnson and that Mr. Johnson's relations with him and the school were such that on this account he was desirous of moving out of the school and being paid the same salary as other Professors doing the same work. Dr. Philips replied that he would speak to the Household Committee about making some other arrangements, or better accommodations for Professor Starkey, but that the Board of Trustees would rather lose several teachers, either four or five or six than lose the services of Mr. Johnson. He said further that it was made plain to him by Dr. Philips, as well as Mr. Johnson, that the teachers should not consider going to the Trustees about any matters but that complaints should come to the principal or Steward and be taken up by them with the Board of Trustees. Professor Starkey said that after telling Dr. Philips about Mr. Johnson and after receiving the reply relative to the attitude of the Board of Trustees toward Mr. Johnson, that he did not feel like making any further complaint to Dr. Philips or calling the Trustees' attention to the Johnson rumors. This witness admitted that he received a letter from Dr. Philips under date of August 19th, 1913, urging him not to return to the school until the time for its opening, and that it was important that he should not discuss the Johnson matter at all unless with the proper persons.

Professor Starkey was interrogated relative to his duties as Vice-Principal. He stated that he was expected to spend office hours at the office of the institution in the absence of the Principal, and that his understanding of the position was that all matters upon which the Principal had to pass should be referred to him in the absence of the Principal, but that certainly many matters were never directed to his attention. When interrogated relative to permission having been given by him for the removal of Ruth Wolfe from the institution to the Chester County Hospital for an operation, he replied that such permission had never been sought of him, and that he had never known until the newspaper publications appeared that Ruth Wolfe had been to the Chester County Hospital. When further interrogated relative to a former student having remained at the school during the Christmas vacation period of 1912, he replied that during that time he was living in the infirmary in consequence of his child having been afflicted with the measles; that the presence of the person referred to had never been reported to him.

What Professor Anderson Said

The next witness was Professor Anderson, who stated that he had not heard any rumors reflecting upon Mr. Johnson's moral character, but that he had felt for two or three years that the Board of Trustees would eventually find out that Mr. Johnson's services should be dispensed with; that several of the teachers and employes had complained about Mr. Johnson's conduct towards them, and that he had not made any demands upon Mr. Johnson in any way for a year or two, feeling that he was not the kind of a man with whom to make any arrangements relative to his accommodations or business relations with the school.

What Other Instructors Say.

Professor Green was called and denied that he had ever heard anything in any way reflecting upon Mr. Johnson. The next witness was Miss Hardee, who was, perhaps, the most reluctant witness called during the entire investigation.

This witness was absolutely lacking in frankness. After considerable time and insistent questioning she told the Committee that she had heard through some persons about the institution whose names she could not remember, that Mr. Johnson had been seen coming out of a matron's room at 11.30 at night; that Mrs. Starkey had talked with her about Mr. Johnson's demoralizing influence upon the girls of the institution, but she had never spoken to any one about it.

The next witness was Miss Groome, the teacher who had charge of the hall on which Miss Wolfe lived. She testified that it was her practice never to permit a student to spend a Saturday night in the room of another student unless the permission of the teacher on that hall had been first obtained; that Ruth Wolfe got permission to spend part of her time on Miss Speakman's hall in the room of the Livingstone girl; that she recalled that Miss Wolfe was not in her class after the first week in October during the whole of the Fall term, but that she did not know that the girl had been to the hospital. She had never heard of the operation.

The next witness was Dr. Schmucker, who does not live in the institution. Dr. Schmucker knew nothing about Mr. Johnson's improper conduct with any one and was greatly surprised to hear of this affair. He said that upon reflection in the light of present events he could not recall ever having heard anything reflecting upon Mr. Johnson in his conduct toward the girls or the women employes in the school.

Dr. Philips Next Heard.

The Committee then had a final lengthy interview with Dr. Philips. They had discussed the matter with Dr. Philips on former occasions. At the first interview Dr. Philips told the Committee that he was out of town on the Sunday Ruth Wolfe was taken to the hospital, and learned of the matter when he returned to the school on Monday morning; that Mrs. Bullock told him that Ruth Wolfe had been taken to the hospital for a slight operation which was called curetment; that the operation had been performed and that the girl was doing well. He said that he inquired of Mrs. Bullock a day or two later as to the girl's condition, and whether he could write to her parents that she was about ready to return to school, and that Mrs. Bullock said that he might so inform the parents. Dr. Philips said at this interview that he did not know what "curetment" meant and never made any inquiry as to what it did mean, and never consulted Dr. Patrick or any one at the hospital about it. He had no suspicion of Mr. Johnson in connection with the case nor any suspicion that the girl's condition had been caused by a criminal operation. He said that he had never noticed the Wolfe girl frequenting Mr. Johnson's office, and had never known of any improprieties on the part of Mr. Johnson toward any of the girls or women in the school, and had heard no rumors of any kind reflecting upon him, and that if he had heard anything tending to cause suspicion in his mind that he would have investigated the matter and called it to the attention of the Board of Trustees, that he had the utmost confidence in Mr. Johnson and was utterly astounded to hear the unsavory stories connecting him with Ruth Wolfe. He stated further that he could not yet believe that Mr. Johnson had gone off with Ruth Wolfe notwithstanding the strong circumstantial evidence that he had gone off with her and that he had been lavishing presents upon her.

At the last interview Dr. Philips stated that he could not remember who told him that Ruth Wolfe had been taken to the hospital; that he did not remember that Miss Cochran ever read the letter to him; that he had no independent recollection at this time that he knew that Ruth Wolfe was cured at the hospital; that he had an indistinct recollection that some girl was at the hospital for such an operation, but that his recollection of the entire matter was quite indistinct. He said at this time, however, that he had known what "curement" was, having heard it discussed in connection with such an operation at one time at the Chester County Hospital, of which he is a Director. He denied having knowledge of the presence of a former student in the school during the Christmas vacation of last year. He denied that any of the employees at the school had told him of the rumors reflecting upon Harry Johnson, with the exception of the following facts which occurred in the year 1910: He said at the last interview that shortly after school began in the year 1910 a person connected with a lying-in hospital in Philadelphia had interviewed him and stated that there was a German girl, who formerly was a servant in the Normal School, at the lying-in hospital who charged Harry S. Johnson, the steward, with being responsible for her condition. Dr. Philips said he consulted Mr. Eyre, as Chairman of the Household Committee, and asked him what he had better do about it. He suggested to Mr. Eyre that it was important that the matter should not be made public; that Mr. Eyre said that this matter seriously affected the institution; that the best detective agency should be employed to investigate the matter, and that at the direction of Mr. Eyre he employed a detective agency and placed an operative in the school to watch Mr. Johnson; that he had the reports of the operative sent to Mr. Eyre, who in turn turned all of the said reports over to him. When requested to produce them Dr. Philips replied that he had perhaps destroyed them; that he had no knowledge of their whereabouts at this time. The detective discovered nothing during a period of some six weeks, and that nothing came of the matter. He admitted that Mr. Eyre had with great frequency asked him since that time whether he ever heard anything reflecting upon Mr. Johnson, or observed any improprieties in his conduct, and that he told Mr. Eyre on each occasion that he had not heard or seen anything suspicious.

Dr. Philips then said that Mrs. Holman, a former matron, who left the institution about 1910, had told him that Mr. Johnson was unduly familiar with certain girls of the household department, particularly the laundry girls. He further said that Mrs. Emerson, who succeeded Mrs. Holman, made similar complaints, but had never reported these facts to any member of the Board of Trustees, as he thought perhaps Mr. Johnson had only been a little foolish and perhaps might have thrown his arms around one of the girls and kissed her. He denied that any one of the teachers or any one other than the persons mentioned had ever told him of any rumors reflecting upon Mr. Johnson. Whereupon he was interrogated closely as to the reason for his not having stated these facts when asked for his knowledge of any rumors affecting the character of Mr. Johnson. He replied that he did not feel privileged to do so without the consent of Mr. Eyre. When further interrogated whether Mr. Eyre had enjoined secretly upon him, he replied, "No." His attention was directed particularly to March, 1912, and he was asked to make a particular effort to recall whether any one spoke to him at that time about the rumors relating to Mr. Johnson. He said that he could remember no such report having been made to him.

He was further interrogated as to whether or not the facts brought to his notice in 1910 requiring the employment of a detective should not have made him unusually vigilant in observation and inquiry relative to the behavior of Mr. Johnson. He replied that he thought it should. Dr. Philips was further interrogated relative to the letter alleged to have been written to the Wolfe family by Miss Cochran on October 6th. He replied that Miss Cochran might have shown him a copy of the letter, or read the same to him, but he had no recollection of her doing so. Dr. Philips was further interrogated relative to the duties of the Vice-Principal, and replied that the duties of the Vice-Principal were to act on matters of discipline and such other matters as might properly come before him during the absence of the Principal. When interrogated relative to permission being given for the taking from the institution of a student to an outside hospital he replied that when he was present such matters were always referred to him, but that he did not know that there was any rule regarding it during his absence. When interrogated relative to whether or not Prof. Starkey had been notified relative to taking Miss Wolfe from the institution, he replied that from subsequent information he supposed not. When interrogated as to why Professor Starkey should not have been notified in the instance of Miss Wolfe, but was notified in the instance of a birth given to a child in the institution during the term of 1913 in the absence of the Principal, he could not make a satisfactory reply. Dr. Philips was interrogated relative to his knowledge of the treatment of members of the faculty by Mr. Johnson. He said he had heard frequent complaints of Mr. Johnson not showing proper consideration to members of the faculty, but had never reported the same to any member of the Board of Trustees.

Dr. Philips made a statement in the course of his examination that a highly reputable lady and her daughter of this community were familiar with all the facts concerning the conduct of Mr. Johnson and Ruth Wolfe, further asserting that said information had been given to him by Mrs. Johnson. The Committee requested Dr. Philips to go with them to the home of Mrs. Johnson to ascertain the facts in relation thereto. Mrs. Johnson said emphatically in the presence of the Committee that she had positively never told him of any such story, and further said to him, "Dr. Philips, on Saturday evening last when I was passing your home with my daughter, Elvira, you, in the presence of Mrs. Philips, endeavored to put the words in my mouth to make me say I had told you such a story. I told you at that time it was absolutely without foundation, and I repeat now, the lady in question could not possibly have known the facts, because I have never told them to her, and it would have been impossible on my part to have ever made such a statement to you."

In an examination of the records of the school it was discovered that the number of the room occupied by Ruth Wolfe had been erased from the book kept for that purpose. When the attention of Dr. Philips was directed to this fact he stated that these records had been erased during his absence on a lecture tour in Ohio by Miss Cochran and those in charge of the office, for the purpose of preventing reporters from ascertaining who those were with whom Miss Wolfe roomed. We cannot understand the purpose of this because there was no necessity for the showing of these records to any one because no one but the school authorities could have knowledge of the same. The proper record was re-inserted in the blank space when attention was directed thereto. It was also discovered that the printed blank containing the name of Miss Wolfe with her room-mate had been abstracted from the file where such blank is usually kept.

LETTER REPLY OF G. M. PHILIPS.

To the Members of the Board of Trustees of the West Chester State Normal School.

Gentlemen:—I have received the following letter:

"West Chester, Pa., Sept. 9, 1913.

"Dr. G. M. Philips, West Chester, Pa.

"Dear Sir:—Acting as secretary pro tem. of the Board of Trustees of the West Chester State Normal School, at a meeting held September 8, 1913, I was, on motion, directed to notify you that a motion was passed at said meeting, requesting your resignation as Principal of the School. Very truly yours,

(Signed)

"R. W. HAINES,
"Secretary Pro Tem."

No reasons are given by you for requesting my resignation, nor have any formal charges been preferred against me. I must, therefore, infer that this request for my resignation is based solely upon the report of the special committee appointed by your Board on August 16th, which report was presented and read at your special meeting, held on September 8, 1913. At that meeting I was present, as I have been for the past thirty-two years, under authority of your Board, and when the Chairman of your Committee suggested that I withdraw from the meeting, I protested that I had the right to hear anything in his report which concerned me. Thereupon, with your approval I stayed and heard the report read, that being my first acquaintance with its contents, and, thereafter, I briefly made such oral reply to its twenty-five typewritten pages as I could, and then withdrew from the meeting. I have not been furnished by you with a copy of this report, and I have only the newspaper copies of this report which I assume to be correct.

Lax Methods.

I am reliably informed that at none of its hearings did your Committee have a stenographer to take down the testimony, nor did the chairman or any member of the committee make any notes of the testimony while it was being given. As some of the meetings of the committee lasted two or three hours, and several witnesses were heard one after another, this may be taken to account for the mistakes in and omissions of important parts of the testimony as reported.

There are other parts of this unfortunate and unnecessarily detailed and nauseous report that need attention, but in this statement I need only to take up such parts of it as refer to me, for, to my great gratification, no teacher of the school is now directly affected by it:

I. The report quotes Prof. F. H. Starkey, the Vice-Principal of the School, as saying that "in March, 1912, his desire to give up the Vice-Principalship and move out of the institution became so strong that he went to Dr. Philips about the matter, and in that connection stated to Dr. Philips that there were many unsavory rumors in the institution about Johnson and that Johnson's relations with him and with the school were such that on this account he was desirous of moving out of the school, &c."

A Case in Point.

This excerpt from the report will serve as an illustration of the manner in which the investigation was conducted. After examining Prof. Starkey, the committee examined me as to a statement made by "Prof. Starkey in March, 1912." The committee refused to tell me what Prof. Starkey had said, or to give me any information from which I might be able to recall it. As a matter of fact, Prof. Starkey has, since the publication of the report made the following statement about this incident:

"When I was called before the committee at 8 p. m. on September 1st, I was exhausted from working all day since 7 o'clock in the morning, in the school office, receiving payments of school bills, as I always do on the opening day of school, so that I may not have remembered or spoken clearly, but what follows here is my recollection of what I told the investigating committee, and certainly what I intended to tell them. I never told Dr. Phillips that the rumors which I had heard concerning Johnson's conduct made me desire to live outside of the school. The only reasons I gave Dr. Phillips for wishing to do this were my desire to have more room for my family, to get my family out of the institution life, and because I felt that Johnson did not want me in the school building. I several times told Dr. Phillips of differences between Johnson and myself, but never gave him any intimation that those differences arose from any rumors I had heard as to his conduct."

In the following June, Prof. Starkey met the Instruction Committee of the Board of Trustees, as all the teachers have the opportunity of doing each year before the appointments of teachers are made. Mr. Matlack is Chairman of this Committee; Mr. Eyre a member; both were present. Prof. Starkey asked to be allowed to live out of the school building, giving as his only reasons the need of more room and better accommodations for his family, and his desire to get his family away from institution life, especially the former. He made no reference to Johnson. The committee satisfied him by giving him more room and fitting up a private bathroom for him, so he stayed in the school. Prof. Starkey further says in his statement:

"While I told Dr. Phillips that I had heard rumors that Johnson was too free or too familiar with the girls, I never told him that I had heard rumors of immorality on Johnson's part, and had no reason to believe that Dr. Phillips understood me to mean that in using the word 'freedom' or 'familiarity' I meant to convey the idea of immorality. I did not use the phrase 'unsavory rumors' in speaking to Dr. Phillips. What I had heard about Johnson's misconduct was mere rumor, which caused me to watch vigilantly for any suspicious circumstances or evidence concerning the matter, but I could never find any, and I did not think I was justified in reporting such rumors."

As to Secrecy.

Your committee's report states that Prof. Starkey "admitted that he received a letter from Dr. Phillips under date of August 19, 1913, urging him not to return to the school until the time for its opening, and that it was important that he should not discuss the Johnson matter at all unless with the proper persons." I told the committee (the chairman and Mrs. Matlack being present) promptly (on August 20th) that I had written this letter, and that I had done so because I was anxious to prevent further talk and especially newspaper gossip about this affair, which I thought had already hurt the school. But I said: "If your committee wishes to see him, I will write to him to come at once." My letter said: "Don't write and don't talk except to proper authorities," not "persons," as the report has it. By "proper authorities" I especially meant, as Prof. Starkey understood, this investigating committee. I am informed that many, if not all, of the witnesses examined were asked whether or not they had been told by anybody (referring to me) to withhold information from the committee. No mention of this is made in the report except in the case of Prof. Starkey. I have never made any attempt to prevent the investigating committee or any other proper authority from obtaining any information concerning this Johnson matter. I did, as has been my policy all my life, do what I could to lessen the publicity of the matter and to prevent various persons from talking for publication or with others than the proper authorities. That the matter has become notorious, to the great injury of the school, I attribute partly to my absence in Ohio when it arose, but mainly to the conduct of the investigating committee in connection with their investigation and report.

With reference to Prof. Starkey's statement that it was made plain to him by me and by Johnson that complaints should come to the trustees through one of us, I will say that I never knew of any attempt being made to prevent any teacher from going directly to the Board or to any member of it, and, as already said, at least once a year, every teacher was given the opportunity of meeting the Committee on Instruction.

Steward Johnson's Value.

As to Prof. Starkey's statement that I told him "that the Trustees would rather lose several teachers than lose the services of Mr. Johnson," it may well be true, for I knew as did the teachers generally what a favorite he was of the influential Trustees, and how important to the school they considered him to be.

2. Your committee's report shows me as contradicting myself before the committee as to my knowledge of the nature of the operation performed upon Ruth Wolfe at the hospital. I did not so contradict myself. I always told the committee, as I had told this Board in a previous meeting, that, while I knew in a general way something of the nature of this operation, I had never known or suspected that it was ever performed for the correction of conditions after childbirth, and much less that it was rarely performed for any other purpose. At the meeting of the committee, Mr. Eyre, and I believe Mr. Matlack, as well, said that he had never heard of it. To intimate that because I am a member of the Board of Managers of a hospital, where there are on the average two operations every day in the year, I ought to have known the exact nature of a particular operation there upon a student, upon which I had already received the report of the physician and the nurse, seems to me extraordinary.

Yielded to Ruth.

The report itself states that the doctor and the nurse, yielding to the pleadings of Ruth Wolfe, agreed with each other not to tell me of her trouble, and of the cause of her operation, in order that she might be able to go on and graduate, and then help to support her family by teaching. She and they evidently believed that if the facts were given to me she would be dismissed from school, as she certainly would. Mrs. Johnson told me that she stated to the committee that I knew nothing of the relation between Ruth Wolfe and her husband, but I fail to find any mention of this testimony in their report. As a matter of fact, I never knew or heard, until after Johnson's disappearance, of anything derogatory to the character of Ruth Wolfe, and never had any reason to suspect it, and I fail to find in the report the slightest evidence that I had. Until after Johnson disappeared, I never saw any evidence or heard of any intimacy, proper or improper, between Johnson and Ruth Wolfe, and I fail to find in the committee's report the slightest evidence that I did. As I told the committee, I went to Johnson's office very often. It was in a very public place in the main hall, on the first floor of the main school building. I always opened the door quickly after knocking, and I never knew it to be locked unless he was out. I do not remember ever seeing his window blinds (first floor ones) closed. I frequently found one or two girls in his office, but never saw the least evidence of any impropriety or familiarity on Johnson's part with any of them. Two of the members of the Investigating Committee are members of the Household Committee of this Board. They have told you in open meetings of the Board that they frequently found girls in his office. The President of this Board told you at a recent meeting that he had at various times seen a hundred girls in Johnson's office. The students have always been accustomed to go to the Steward's office to report needed repairs to their electric lights, their heating apparatus, their furniture, etc. This was well known to many of you, perhaps to you all. None of you ever suggested to me that this was unwise until this Summer, when one member of the Household Committee did, but only on the ground that the girls overloaded him with personal services, such as mending their trunks, and the like. I never saw, or previous to Johnson's disappearance, heard of any improper conduct between Johnson and any present or former student of the school, and I fail to find in the report the slightest evidence that I had, unless it be in the reputed statements of Prof. Starkey, which I have already disposed of.

Rumors of Misdoings.

3. I now come to the only reports which ever came to me concerning Mr. Johnson's moral character. As I told the committee, about three years ago. One matron just before she resigned her position here spoke of improprieties of Johnson with some of the women servants. Although I had every confidence in her, I could not bring myself to believe that Johnson could really have been guilty of immorality. I had known him intimately as my student and fellow worker here for nearly thirty years, had never before heard a word against his moral character, and felt that there must be some misunderstanding about it. Her successor soon after told me of similar but vague rumors which she had heard, which seemed to be echoes of the former reports, but they were quickly followed by information from an official of a Philadelphia institution that a woman, who was then a patient there and had formerly been a servant at this school, had made positive charges of immorality against Johnson. I then went promptly to Mr. Eyre, who was then and has ever since been Chairman of the Household Committee, which, as you know, has entire charge of the Steward and his department. I told him all that I had heard, and did not withhold the information received from the two matrons, as the committee's report asserts. Of course, the Chairman's memory failed him here, as it did in other parts of his report, and necessarily so in trying to remember so much testimony. But I am surprised that Mr. Eyre did not correct this when he heard it read, for he knew that this part of the report was incorrect. Mr. Eyre suggested the employment of a detective to investigate conditions at the school and directed me where to secure one. His reports were sent in the first instance directly to Mr. Eyre, and by him sent to me. I never saw the detective when he came to the school, but his efforts were fruitless. I kept his reports for some time, and then doubtless destroyed them as containing no information. Ob-vously, Mr. Eyre was the person to decide whether or not his colleagues on the Household Committee and the other Trustees should know what I had told him about. I wish that some one had been able to keep the knowledge of this unfortunate affair to you and the few others necessary, instead of being sent out broadcast again and again so sensationally.

Reminded of Duty.

Although I never heard report of any further act of immorality on Johnson's part, nor saw anything to excite suspicion of it, I several times carefully reminded him of the great importance here of scrupulous propriety, and conduct towards the girls and women of the school, as I told the Investigating Committee, but of which they made no mention in this report. Whether any member of the Household Committee ever spoke to him about such matters I do not know. They constantly came in contact with him. Nor did I admit that Mr. Eyre had afterwards "with great frequency" asked me about Johnson's conduct, but said that he had done so several times. My recollection is that it was not more than two or three times in these three years, and as I had heard or seen nothing against Johnson, I told Mr. Eyre so.

Much seems to be attempted to be made of my inability to be more definite and certain in my recollections of the circumstances of Ruth Wolfe's illness early in October, 1912. The hundreds of cases of illness, trifling or serious, occurring among our students every year are but a small part of the many thousands of school matters, large and small, which I look after each year, and to which last year and for many years past I have given an average of probably twelve hours of continuous work for six days in the week during the school year, and almost as many during all the school vacations. As I had no knowledge or suspicion that there was anything improper connected with this particular illness, I certainly could not be expected to remember much about it after nearly a year had gone by.

4. The other items of the report which refer to me scarcely seem worthy of attention except for the prominence given to some of them in the report, and the manner in which they are presented.

The report of the Committee is incorrect when it quotes me, at an early interview with the committee as saying that I "had never known of any improprieties on the part of Mr. Johnson towards any of the girls or women in the school, etc." In response to a definite question, I told the Chairman of the Committee that I had never known or heard of any improper relations between Johnson and Ruth Wolfe until after Johnson's disappearance. Messrs. Eyre and Matlack, who were present, know what I had told Mr. Eyre about the affairs which had happened three years before, but they had not yet told Mr. Gawthrop, the Chairman, of it.

Two Worthy Women.

I hesitate to refer to the two estimable ladies who have so unfortunately been dragged into this report. But for their sake, as well as my own, I must refer to this. I did not say to the committee that these two ladies "were familiar with all the facts concerning the conduct of Mr. Johnson and Ruth Wolfe." I did say that a chief witness before the committee, to whose testimony they gave great credence, had told me that these ladies knew about it, for one of them had told her so very soon after Johnson went away. I did not speak of it until I found that this witness had told the same story to at least one other person, namely, Miss Cochran. I did not reflect on those two ladies in any way, but spoke of them in terms of high regard, in which I have always held them. As we all know that the husband and father of these ladies had known nothing of the Johnson-Wolfe affair. I told the committee that this statement of their witness must have been a mistake, for this gentleman would certainly have known it had they known it. I went on to suggest that this witness might also have unintentionally made other mistakes in her important testimony, which could naturally be ascribed to excitement and anxiety. This witness did not make the denial reported by the committee "in passing my home with her daughter," but met me in my office at her request to have me help her in a matter of getting the remainder of her husband's salary, and then, in response to my questioning, denied having told me that the older lady had known anything about the Johnson-Wolfe affair. She simply had forgotten just what she said; it naturally made a strong and distinct impression on me, and, as I said before, she had said just the same thing to Miss Cochran. Moreover, this witness repeated in detail in the presence of the whole investigating committee her story that the younger lady, the daughter of the gentleman referred to, did know all about and told her of it. This was, of course, the only important part of this incident. I fail to find any mention of this in the report.

Reported Cases.

It is stated in the committee's report that I never reported to the Trustees differences between Johnson and members of the Faculty. Such differences usually should have been, and were, let go unnoticed or reconciled quietly, but all the members of the committee will remember that at my last interview with them, I told them of an occasion about a year ago, when this feeling cropped out very decidedly in a meeting between a leading teacher of the school and Johnson, in the presence of Mr. Matlack, Chairman of the Committee on Teachers, and a member of the investigating committee and myself. Mr. Matlack remembered this and so told the committee. I explained the cause of the clash to Mr. Matlack when it occurred.

But why go on? Except for three years, when I was professor of mathematics at Bucknell University, I have been teacher or Principal of the West Chester State Normal School ever since I was twenty-one years old, more than thirty-seven years of constant service. I have been its principal for more than thirty-two years, a longer principalship of a Normal School than any living man has ever held in the United States. The growth and success of the school are universally conceded to be, in some respects at least, unparalleled in the history of Normal Schools in the United States. The Chairman of the Investigating Committee is recently quoted in the Philadelphia North American as saying:

"We have no recommendations to make in regard to improving the discipline of the school, because we don't know how it could be made better. No rules of any kind, however, could prevent a man who held his (Johnson's) position from associating with the girl students living in his building, if he were so inclined. If he and the Wolfe girl wished to meet each other, nothing could have prevented it."

Credit to Assistants.

I have always ascribed much the greatest share of the success and wise management that this school may have had to others than myself, to many efficient and helpful Trustees, to a corps of teachers as capable, efficient and devoted to the best interests of the school, as to be absolutely unequaled among the Normal Schools of the United States, a body of nearly four thousand graduates and of many other former and present students who, in every part of the country have been, are, or will be reflecting honor upon their alma mater, and are intensely loyal and devoted to it, and a community of town and county certainly unsurpassed for intelligence and character in or out of Pennsylvania, which has most loyally supported the school and its interests. No one knows better than I of the mistakes and shortcomings of these years, but they have at least been years of hard and faithful service.

On June 30th last, I was unanimously elected by this Board as Principal of the West Chester State Normal School for the year ending with August 1, 1914, this being my thirty-second unanimous election to this position.

In view of the fact that no charges have been at any time preferred against me by your Board; having in mind that your investigation has been wholly ex parte; and being entirely unconscious of any valid cause for censure; and in view of the further fact that I am advised by counsel for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that the Commonwealth is the present owner of the Normal School and all its assets, including my contract for the ensuing year, I must respectfully decline to tender my resignation as Principal of the School.

(Signed)
September 11, 1913.

G. M. PHILIPS.

SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT OF INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE.

To the President and Board of Directors of the West Chester State Normal School.

Gentlemen: Your Special Committee desire to submit the following additions to the original report of September 8, 1913.

Before going into the additional information received we feel called upon to answer a communication received by The Board of Trustees of the West Chester State Normal School made by Dr. G. M. Philips under date of September 11, 1913. In this report Dr. Philips endeavors by innuendo to stigmatize your Committee and have it appear that they have rendered to your honorable body a report untruthful in many particulars. This imputation, we feel, is unjust and uncalled for, and we desire to give to you the facts in order that you may be the judges as to who is telling the truth and giving the facts in reference to this case.

Dr. Philips alleges that no reasons were given him for the request of his resignation and avers that no copy of the report was furnished to him. This is so absurd that it is scarcely worthy of notice. Dr. Philips not only heard the report read by resolution of the Board of Trustees, but could have had access to the same at any time he desired it from the minutes of the meeting. He saw the published account of the same in the public print, which he knew was a correct account. He further states that he had reliable information that at none of these hearings with your Committee did they have a stenographer or take any notes of testimony. In this he absolutely misstates the fact. While it is true there was no stenographer present, had there been we doubt very much if it would have been possible for your Committee to have obtained as many facts as were obtained. Notes of every important statement were taken immediately upon retirement of witnesses interrogated, and said notes were used in making up the final report.

Dr. Philips' endeavors to confuse and misstate facts in his quotation from the testimony given by Prof. F. H. Starkey. The facts as set forth in the original report of your Committee are the exact facts given to the Committee by Prof. Starkey, and you will observe in comparing the report with the statement of Dr. Philips, that the two do not materially differ. Dr. Philips endeavors to show that Prof. Starkey made a subsequent statement conflicting with the statement made by him to your Committee, and gives as a reason therefore the physical exhaustion of Prof. Starkey when he appeared before your Committee. It is true as stated in our former report that Prof. Starkey was a reluctant witness, but after going over the situation thoroughly with him we are satisfied that he stated the facts as he believed them to be. Dr. Phillips' reply indicates that Prof. Starkey in his subsequent statement did not give as a reason for his desire to leave the institution in March, 1912, the reputation of the steward, Mr. Johnson. We are constrained to believe that if there is any doubt in the minds of the Board of Trustees said matter can be cleared up by calling Prof. Starkey before the Board of Trustees and interrogating him as to what he did say before your Committee on the night of September 1st, 1913. After giving to the Committee the facts as stated by the Committee, Prof. Starkey was very ill at ease, and said he feared this would mean to him the loss of his position in consequence of the antagonism that it would arouse in the breast of Dr. Phillips against him. Your Committee assured him that as he had been truthful and candid that he need not give this matter any concern, and that the Board of Trustees as long as it was constituted as at present would defend him against any assaults committed against him by Dr. Phillips, as he had told the truth and the whole truth about this unfortunate transaction. Dr. Phillips lays further stress upon his letter of 8-19, 1913, to Prof. Starkey of his having told to Mr. Gawthrop and Mr. Matlack on August 20th the fact that he had written such letter. In this letter he says that he had enjoined Prof. Starkey the necessity of talking to none other than the proper authorities, and, of course, Prof. Starkey would understand by "the proper authorities" this Investigating Committee. The facts are, Prof. Starkey, according to his statement to your Committee, did not so understand the application of "proper authorities." On the contrary, he recited to your Committee the fact that some two or three years ago, when he had been asking Dr. Phillips for an increase in his salary for some years prior, and not having secured the same he called upon Mr. Thomas W. Baldwin, a member of the Educational Committee, who was the only member of the Educational Committee with whom he was acquainted at the time. This visit was on the day of the meeting of the Educational Committee to make their recommendations for the following year. He stated his desire to Mr. Baldwin for an increase of $100 per annum in his salary, and was told by Mr. Baldwin that he, Mr. Baldwin, would do what he could to assist him in securing said increase in salary. He left Mr. Baldwin's office, going from there directly to the West Chester State Normal School, and at the entrance was met by Dr. G. M. Phillips, who said, "Prof. Starkey, I am going to recommend an increase of $100 in your salary for the ensuing year," and Prof. Starkey thanked Dr. Phillips and replied that he had just come from the office of Mr. Thomas W. Baldwin, who agreed to endeavor to assist in the securing of the increase for him; whereupon Dr. Phillips said in substance, "You should not have done this, you should have made your application direct to me for an increase in your salary; it is much better that I take up all such matters with the Board of Trustees, and all recommendations of this character should come from me, and not go from the teachers to any of the Trustees direct." Of course Prof. Starkey could place no other conclusion upon this than that Dr. Phillips considered himself the proper authority in all instances to receive any communications from a member of the faculty.

Dr. Phillips further lays great stress upon the value in which Mr. Johnson was held by the Board of Trustees. It is true that Mr. Johnson was regarded as a valuable man, but it is equally true, in our judgment, that any information reflecting upon Mr. Johnson's moral character would have been ordered to be thoroughly investigated by any member of the Board of Trustees to whom the same had been reported. This is best evidenced by Mr. Eyre's prompt direction to Dr. Phillips to investigate the report alleged to have come to Dr. Phillips from the Lying-In Hospital at Philadelphia in October, 1910, which will be more fully explained later on, and it would therefore seem that the undue solicitude of Dr. Phillips for the welfare of Mr. Johnson must have had some underlying cause.

Dr. Phillips next refers to the report showing his contradictory statements relative to his knowledge of the operation performed upon Ruth Wolfe at the Chester County Hospital, and endeavors to excuse or show the absurdity of said statement in consequence of Mr. Matlack and Mr. Eyre stating that they did not know until after the exposure of this case the meaning of the word "cautement." We think that every member of the Board of Trustees who was present at the meeting of said Board when action was taken relative to the dismissal of Mr. Johnson from the office of steward will recall the statement of Dr. Phillips at that time when he emphatically declared that he did not know what cautement meant when the same was reported to him in the Ruth Wolfe case. We do not think Dr. Phillips will undertake to deny that he told your Committee at a subsequent hearing that he did know what cautement meant, and was entirely familiar with the term in consequence of a discussion which arose at the Chester County Hospital some years ago when a patient in that institution had died after such an operation had been performed. We therefore leave it to your intelligent judgment as to who is telling the truth in this matter.

Dr. Phillips dwells at length upon the fact that Mrs. Johnson told him that she has stated to the Committee that he, Dr. Phillips, knew nothing of the relations existing between Ruth Wolfe and Mr. Johnson. In no part of our former report have we alleged that Mrs. Johnson had told Dr. Phillips her knowledge of the intimacy existing between

Mr. Johnson and Ruth Wolfe, but we were constrained to believe, in consequence of the knowledge possessed by members of the faculty and others connected with the institution, that it would have been an impossibility for Dr. Phillips not to have been informed on this subject if he had been doing his full duty as Principal of the West Chester State Normal School.

Dr. Phillips next takes up the subject of his reporting to the Chairman of the Household Committee the only information he had ever received relative to Mr. Johnson's misdoings and his knowledge of Mr. Johnson's moral character. In this he clearly and unmistakably convicts himself of a lack of candor and a lack of truth. In this statement he recites that a retiring matron directed his attention to some of Mr. Johnson's misdoings, and that another matron, about the same time, told him of these facts. That simultaneously with this information came a report from an official of a Lying-In Hospital in Philadelphia of a charge against Mr. Johnson of the paternity of an illegitimate child. The exact facts are that Dr. Phillips never reported anything to Mr. Eyre relative to information given to him by matrons of the institution, and as further evidence of the truthfulness of this statement, he could not have done so at the time he reported to Mr. Eyre the facts alleged to have come to him from an official of the Lying-In Hospital in Philadelphia, because the first matron referred to, Mrs. Holman, left the institution in June of 1910, and the second matron to whom he refers, Mrs. Emerson, was not appointed until a short time prior to the day in October, 1910, when Dr. Phillips brought this information to Mr. Eyre, and as a matter of exact fact, Mrs. Emerson stated to your Committee that she had knowledge of conditions that were not to her liking, but had never reported the same at any time to Dr. Phillips. You can, therefore, see that Dr. Phillips has made a false statement relative to the knowledge obtained from Mrs. Emerson, and Mr. Eyre emphatically stated to your Committee that Dr. Phillips did not mention any statement made by Mrs. Holman, for if he had done so Mr. Eyre would have taken the precaution to have secured said information from Mrs. Holman as well as to have insisted upon the placing of a detective on Mr. Johnson's relative to the charge alleged to have been brought to Dr. Phillips by an official of the Lying-In Hospital, Philadelphia. Under the circumstances you must realize how flimsy is the studied effort of Dr. Phillips in this report to save himself by stating facts that are so susceptible to refutation.

Dr. Phillips further endeavors to throw odium upon Mr. Eyre relative to its being clearly Mr. Eyre's duty to decide whether the matter should be directed to his co-members of the Household Committee. In this connection we desire to state, and do not think that Dr. Phillips will attempt to contradict it, that he enjoined upon Mr. Eyre, when he first came to him relative to the alleged information from the Lying-In Hospital, the necessity for secrecy in this matter as it would be very harmful to the school for such a report to gain circulation.

Mr. Eyre, as we now view it, unwisely acceded to this demand of Dr. Phillips, and made a mistake in leaving the investigation of the alleged rumor to the discretion of Dr. Phillips instead of having it thoroughly sifted by the Committee itself, or the entire Board of Trustees of the West Chester State Normal School.

Dr. Phillips states the fact that Mr. Eyre suggested the employment of a detective to investigate conditions at the school and directed him where to secure one. On this subject we will treat more fully in the latter part of our report.

Dr. Phillips further states that he did not admit that Mr. Eyre had with great frequency asked him concerning Johnson's conduct after the securing of the services of a detective. This is clearly a matter of veracity between Dr. Phillips and your Committee. Your Committee repeat, and state with all of the emphasis at their command, that when interrogated upon this point by Mr. Eyre and other members of the Committee, Dr. Phillips did state that Mr. Eyre had with great frequency up to a very recent date inquired of him concerning the moral conduct of Mr. Johnson, and we must leave it with your honorable body to decide as to who is truthful in this statement.

Dr. Phillips further endeavors to hide behind his faulty recollection relative to the circumstances of Ruth Wolfe's illness in the early part of October, 1912, and yet in those matters which are vital he seems to recollect distinctly those things of importance advantageous to him to recall, but appears to have a very convenient memory for forgetting those matters that might seriously reflect upon his conduct of the West Chester State Normal School.

Dr. Phillips again charges the Committee with reporting him incorrectly when it quotes him as having said at an early interview with the Committee that he never knew of any improprieties of Mr. Johnson towards any women and girls in the institution, etc. Your Committee repeat and aver that the statement attributed to Dr. Phillips is exactly as he made it to the Chairman of your Committee, and so again your honorable body must judge between the truthfulness of your Committee and the statement of a man who has convicted himself with inaccurate statements as above shown in many instances.

Dr. Phillips further endeavors to have the public believe that the two estimable ladies who have been referred to in our former report were familiar with the condition existing between Mr. Johnson and Ruth Wolfe. We have stated the exact facts again in this connection, and further aver that when brought face to face with Mrs. Johnson, before your Committee, Mrs. Johnson contradicted Dr. Phillips, and while Dr. Phillips endeavored to prove to your Committee that Mrs. Johnson was a nervous, excitable woman and had forgotten that she had made this statement, Mrs. Johnson, with all the evidence of candor and truth, looking Dr. Philips squarely in the eye, said in substance, "Dr. Philips, you in the presence of your wife attempted to make me state that I had told this story to you, but I never did tell you any such thing, and I could not have told you so as it was not true, and I would not have told you an untruth."

Dr. Philips further states that the Committee reported that he had never related to the Trustees differences between Johnson and members of the faculty. That such differences were usually quietly adjusted by himself. We submit to the judgment of your honorable body as to whether or not this has not been the course pursued by Dr. Philips in the entire management of this institution. We aver that matters of grave importance to the successful conduct of the institution have been studiously kept from this Board of Trustees by Dr. G. M. Philips, Principal, when they should have been candidly and openly reported to the Board of Trustees, who are responsible for its management. Had candor been practiced by Dr. G. M. Philips in this respect just such occurrence as that at hand could have been obviated or methods could have been adopted that would have prevented happenings of this nature in the institution.

In conclusion Dr. Philips lays great stress upon his thirty-two years connection with the West Chester State Normal School, and in a bid of sympathy, as your Committee view it, attempts to cover up the real issue in this case and have it go out to the public that the unparalleled success of the West Chester State Normal School has been due solely to his management in the Principalship of the institution. In this view of the case we must take issue with Dr. Philips. Exempting ourselves entirely from any credit due the institution, we cannot fail to review the class of men who have been members of the Board of Trustees of this institution during the entire period that Dr. Philips has been connected therewith, and aver that the success of the institution has been due largely to the business management applied by the said Board of Trustees, and we cannot fail to believe that even greater success would have been brought to the institution if the Principal had been more candid with his Board of Trustees, and had reported to the Board the doings of the institution instead of making what appears to us a studied endeavor to conceal matters that were very important for the Board to pass upon.

Your Committee desire to direct your attention to the fact that on the day following the request for the resignation of Dr. G. M. Philips as Principal of the West Chester State Normal School, he addressed the student body of the institution in what appears to your Committee to have been a bid for sympathy. It appears to us that the action taken should have been confined to the business office of the West Chester State Normal School, and should not have been carried to the student body of the institution by the Principal or other members of the faculty.

We further desire to call your attention to the fact that Dr. Philips either gave permission to the Alumni Association of the school on the night of September 10th, 1913, to hold a meeting in the chapel of the school, or at least acquiesced in the use of the said chapel of the school for that purpose, when it has been a rule of Trustees that the use of the chapel for any purpose other than school purposes should be referred to the Board of Trustees for their action.

It would appear to us, therefore, that Dr. Philips has not only usurped in the past, but at the present time is usurping the power of the Board of Trustees of this institution, and is using the institution as his own property without consultation with the members of the Board of Trustees in matters that properly belong to them for their consideration and action.

Since the filing of our last report certain information has been volunteered to your Committee which we have followed up, and desire to report that your Committee succeeded in locating the German girl who holds Harry S. Johnson responsible for her condition. The said German girl came to the institution soon after landing in this country; she came to the West Chester State Normal School as a servant in November, 1906, and remained at said institution until June, 1907. Soon after her arrival at the institution Mr. Johnson showed her marked attention, was able to converse slightly with her in German, and commenced to bestow upon her small presents in the way of candies and personal adornments. During the spring of 1907 he commenced to make advances and take liberties with her, and soon thereafter accomplished his purpose. In June, 1907, she discovered her condition and was persuaded by Mr. Johnson to secure employment elsewhere. She succeeded in securing employment as a domestic in a private family at Overbrook. During the vacation period of 1907 she visited the school and again sought protection from Mr. Johnson as her condition became more apparent to her. Mr. Johnson told her that he had studied some medicine and could relieve her condition. He took her first to one of the student's rooms of the institution, but fearing detection in that room subsequently took her to a room in the basement that was used for the storing of mattresses, and there injected with a syringe a dark fluid, the substance of which she did not know, but assured her that this would remove the cause of her trouble. She suffered excruciating pains for a week thereafter and no relief was afforded. She went with the family by whom she was employed to Ocean City for the summer and had frequent correspondence with Mr. Johnson during the period. He sent her medicines which she was afraid to take as she did not know their nature, and in the autumn of 1907, after her return to Overbrook, she made her condition known to the lady by whom she was employed. The lady had her family physician make an examination and her worst fears were realized. The lady thereupon, through her family physician, made arrangements for the admission of the German girl to the Midnight Mission, of Philadelphia, where she remained for four months, until close to the approach of the confinement period. She was then removed to the maternity ward of the Jefferson Hospital, where she gave birth to a child on February 1st, 1908. The child lived for two weeks after its birth. The death of the child was ascribed to the effort that was made at the school in the summer of 1907 by the attempted performance of an abortion. Soon after the death of the child the girl was removed again to the Midnight Mission, where she remained a short time until she regained sufficient strength to return to her former place of employment at Overbrook. The charges of the physician were paid by Mr. Johnson. The charges at the maternity ward of Jefferson Hospital, as well as the charges at the Midnight Mission were paid to the aforementioned physician by Mr. Johnson, and the physician in turn handed it over to the above institutions.

Your Committee have visited the Midnight Mission, conferred with the matron attached thereto, who, at the solicitation of the German girl in question, gave to the Committee all the information at her command. Your Committee have further interviewed the physician in charge of the mission work, and have interviewed the lady by whom the German girl was employed, as well as the physician who succeeded in having the German girl admitted to the Midnight Mission; have had access to all of the records of the institutions referred to, and have satisfied themselves that this is the German girl referred to by Dr. Philips in his statement to Mr. Eyre, as there was no admission to any of these institutions of any other German girl, or any other person attached at any time to the West Chester State Normal School.

You will observe carefully the dates. The German girl gave birth to a child on February 1st, 1908, and the detective was employed on October 10th, 1910, immediately after Dr. Philips claims to have received the information from an official of the Lying-In Hospital. You will see, therefore, how impossible it would have been for Dr. Philips to have gotten this information in October, 1910, when the birth of the child occurred in February, 1908, nearly three years before the time Dr. Philips reported it to Mr. Eyre. It is the distinct recollection of the matron at the Midnight Mission that an official of the Mission gave this information by letter to the Principal of the West Chester State Normal School at the time of the birth of the child in February, 1908, although there are no records at the institution showing a copy of this letter. It is not possible, therefore, that the information could have been conveyed to Dr. Philips by an officer of the institution as late as October, 1910, for the reason that your Committee was informed by the officers of the Midnight Mission that these investigations are always made at the time the patient is an inmate of the institution, and the girl in question was discharged the latter part of February, 1908, and had never since visited the Mission until she went there with your Committee a few weeks ago. The records of the institution show the parentage of the child as belonging to Harry S. Johnson, and further show that the charges connected with the case were paid for by the physician already referred to at the direct instance of Harry S. Johnson. In this connection we desire to direct your attention to the fact that Dr. Philips in his reply to the first report of your Investigating Committee says that he was directed by Mr. Eyre to employ a detective agency, and was directed what agency to employ, to investigate the charges of immorality against Mr. Johnson relative to the case at the Lying-In Hospital in Philadelphia. To show you again more conclusively the untruthfulness, deception and lack of candor of Dr. Philips we herewith insert a copy of the official letter from the Superintendent of Pinkerton's National Detective Agency, showing that Dr. G. M. Philips called at the Detective Agency on October 10th, 1910, representing himself to be Mr. T. L. Eyre, and asking for an investigation as to the immorality among the colored help of the school, and utterly failing to ask for any investigation of the episode in relation to the German girl in the Lying-In Hospital. Dr. Philips stated in an interview with the Committee, as set forth in our former report, that a detective had been employed covering a period of six weeks, and led your Committee to believe that the detective was in the school during that period of time. We herewith attach the only two reports made by the detective agency, and it will be observed therefrom that the detective never secured access to the institution.

"112-116 North Broad Street,

Philadelphia, November 17, 1913.

Mr. Robert Smith Gawthrop,
Chairman, Special Investigating Committee,
State Normal School,
West Chester, Pa.

Dear Sir:—

Our record shows that on October 10th, 1910, Mr. T. L. Eyre called at the office and saw our Superintendent, who at that time was Mr. Goodwin but who is now dead, and stated that he was one of the Trustees of the State Normal School, at West Chester; that the kitchen and dining room help at the school were colored, but were supervised by a white steward; that there were between 20 and 25 persons employed in this capacity and all lived on the premises; that there was some rumor that there was considerable immorality among this colored help, and that there was considerable food and other supplies carried away by the help. It was requested that we detail a colored operative to make application to the steward for a position as waiter or in some other capacity in the kitchen, and upon securing employment to get among the help and report what he could learn about the matters above mentioned. The statement was further made by the gentleman who represented himself as Mr. Eyre that the information desired was for the use of the trustees and simply to remove those who were not considered proper persons to be at the school.

Under these circumstances we detailed a colored operative who was known under No. 162, and we attach herewith copies of the two reports that he made, one under date of October 11th, and one under date of October 19th. This was the only work that we did on the matter. The reports speak for themselves.

Yours truly,

Pinkerton's National Detective Agency.

By,

M. Asher Rossetter, Gen'l Supt."

No. 162 reports:

Philadelphia, Tuesday, October 11, 1910.

I left Philadelphia on the 10.45 A. M. train and went to West Chester, Pa., for the purpose of endeavoring to secure employment in the kitchen or dining room at the State Normal School. I went to the institution grounds at 2 P. M., and at 2.15 P. M. met and applied to the steward for employment. He informed me that he did not have any vacancy and could not use me at the present time. At my request, he took my name and address and stated that he would be glad to let me know whenever a vacancy occurs.

I left West Chester on the 3.04 P. M. train and arriving at Philadelphia at 4.35 P. M. reported at the office.

No 162 reports:

Philadelphia, Wednesday, October 19, 1910.

I left Philadelphia and on arrival at West Chester, I went to the State Normal School to see the steward and again endeavor to secure employment. Shortly after arriving at the institution I met several of the colored employes, and while in conversation with them was told that Mr. Harry Johnson was somewhere about on the premises and that I might see him within a few minutes and that I might not see him for an hour or so. While waiting in the driveway under the mess room and engaged in a conversation with the colored elevator boy, and several others, I learned from them that there were eleven waiters employed at the institution and that all with the exception of two sleep in the waiters' quarters on the grounds.

At 4.15 P. M. the chief cook came out where I was waiting and I learned from him that Mr. Johnson left at about 10 A. M. for Philadelphia and would probably not return until to-night. I remained on the grounds with several of the colored employes until 4.45 P. M., but learned nothing of importance.

I left on the 6.06 P. M. train and on arriving at Philadelphia at 7.10 P. M. discontinued.

Reported:

Philadelphia, 10-21-1910.

The records of the detective agency show that Mr. T. L. Eyre paid the bill at the agency on or about November 20, 1910, and disputed one day of time on the said bill, which day's time was deducted therefrom. As a matter of exact fact Mr. Eyre was never in The Pinkerton Detective Agency in his life until he went there as a member of this Committee, and it must therefore be apparent to every unbiased mind that Dr. G. M. Philips represented himself at the detective agency as T. L. Eyre. The reason for his so doing, as well as his reason for failure to have the investigation of the charge made as directed against Mr. Johnson can only be conjectured, and it can only be conjectured as to whether or not he had given advance information to the steward of the school relative to the employment of any strange colored man at that particular time.

Dr. Philips has endeavored to shift responsibility from himself to the Chairman of the Household Committee in this whole transaction with the detective agency, but we submit to you as members of the Board of Trustees as to what you would have done under similar circumstances had you occupied the position of Chairman of the Household Committee. We believe at the time specified every member of the Board of Trustees had confidence in Dr. Philips, and as Dr. Philips was a paid employe of the institution to look after the executive matters pertaining thereto, we submit to you whether the Chairman of the Household Committee did not do his full duty in handling this matter over to Dr. Philips for investigation with a right to believe that Dr. Philips would have it investigated in the manner in which he was directed. How faithfully he performed his duties you must be the judge.

A communication was brought to the attention of your Committee relative to a specific appropriation of $35,000, which was obtained for the West Chester State Normal School in the year 1893, in which it was alleged that money was paid by G. M. Philips, Principal of this institution, for the passage of said appropriation. Your Committee went through the expenditures of the institution for the years 1892, 1893 and 1894, and found from said records that the institution had expended for postage in 1892, $322, in the year 1893, $1,390.10; and for the year 1894, $240. For the year 1892, the amount charged to the institution for the personal expenses of G. M. Philips, Principal, was $338.44; for 1893, $825, and for the year 1894, $375. You will observe, therefore, that the amount charged to postage in 1893 exceeded by more than $1,000 the postage paid in the preceding year of 1892, and by a like amount the postage paid in the succeeding year of 1894. You will further observe that the Principal's personal expense account for 1893 exceeded that of 1892 by about $500, and by about the same amount that of the year 1894. This would seem to lend color at least to the report above referred to. We have been unable to secure any statement from the Principal in relation to these amounts, as you will fully understand from that which will be made plain to you later on in this report.

In an inspection of the Petty Cash Book kept by Harry S. Johnson from March 8, 1911, to July 3, 1913, your Committee finds that supplies furnished from the school to the residence of Dr. G. M. Philips were paid for to the amount of $172.27, or an average of about $6.00 per month. While we make no charge in connection therewith at this time, we direct your attention to the significance of an account of this character for supplies furnished to the Principal of the institution without an itemized statement thereof. To say the least, we think you will agree with us that it is against public policy for an employe of a public institution to be furnished supplies from the store-room, unless such arrangements are specified in the terms of employment of any such employe. The terms of contract between Dr. G. M. Philips and the West Chester State Normal School have always been for a stipulated salary, with house, heat and light furnished. In addition to this, we are informed that the laundry of the Principal's household has been done at the laundry of the West Chester State Normal School at the expense of the institution in direct violation of orders given by the Household Committee to the steward of the institution some four years ago.

We inquire of you by what right Dr. Philips should be shown favoritism over the other members of the faculty living outside of the institution and why he should be allowed to put his household laundry into the laundry of the West Chester State Normal School any more than any other member of the faculty living outside of the institution should be allowed the same privilege, and we submit to you if this was a desirable custom, why, with equal propriety the members of the Board of Trustees all of whom give their time and service to the school without compensation, should not be allowed to send their household laundry to the school?

There is an act of assembly making it a criminal offense for any employe or Trustees connected with an institution securing State aid, from furnishing supplies of any character to said institution. Is it not infinitely more against public policy that any employe or Trustees of an institution securing State aid should secure supplies or accept benefits from said institution?

Your Committee further desire to direct your attention to the fact that at the meeting of the Board of Trustees on the last Monday of October, 1913, Dr. Philips failed to report a gross infraction of the rules in the finding of one of the male students alone with a girl student in a room on the night of a Literary Entertainment in the institution, and when interrogated by one of the members of the Board of Trustees in relation to the same stated that he considered the matter trivial, that it was scarcely worthy of notice, although he considered the matter of sufficient importance to suspend the boy. We submit to you as to whether matters of this nature, in the light of the immorality that has existed in the institution, are of a trivial character. As we view it, all these matters are of great concern to the future welfare of the West Chester State Normal School, and should be investigated and proper and decisive methods should be taken to break up any semblance of impropriety along this line.

We further desire to direct your attention to the fact of the birth of a child in the institution in February, 1913, and the necessity for the withdrawal of a student from the institution during the present month in consequence of her pregnancy. We submit to you that institution is paying at the present time more than $3,000 annually for physical instructors who are supposed to make careful examinations of all of the students admitted to said institution, and we submit further to you for your consideration how impossible it would be to admit girls to this institution in a state of pregnancy if the proper physical examination were made. We must, therefore, conclude that there is a great laxity in the examinations that are given to the students, and that the institution is certainly not getting full value for the money it is expending in the service of physical instructors. The Educational Committee had a meeting for the appointment of instructors in May, 1912, and had this matter of a change under discussion; and at that time believed that it would be for the best interest of the institution to make a change in said physical instructors, but at the earnest solicitation of Dr. G. M. Philips, yielded to his importunities for the retention of the present force, and we direct this to the attention of your honorable body in order that you may have the knowledge and may govern yourselves accordingly for what you deem best for the future welfare of the school.

In order to further show to your honorable body the lack of what we deem proper courtesy and consideration to the Board we herewith insert a letter inclosed in a letter from an official of the University of Pennsylvania, addressed to the President of the Board of Trustees of the West Chester State Normal School, complaining of the conduct of the Principal toward certain Chinese applicants for membership in the student body of the institution. The Principal apparently considered this of such trivial importance that the Board of Trustees had no right to a knowledge of the circumstances attending the same.

"October 10, 1913.

Principal G. M. Philips,
State Normal School,
West Chester, Pa.

My Dear Mr. Philips:

I have your letter to hand in regard to my former communication. The discourtesy, I referred to, was in connection with the fact that after I had secured a Catalog of the West Chester Normal School from the "North American" Office and had gone over it with our Chinese friends they had decided to go out to see the school. There was no indication in the Catalog that Foreigners were not desired, in fact when they arrived there at the office the first intimation given was that the young man could probably enter. That there might be room in dormitories, or if not then outside in one of the homes and that he could then go as a day scholar.

They were asked to come back in about one hour, they did so and were then informed that as there were so many young ladies in the school it would not be desirable to have Chinese students.

That was a direct insult to these Chinese gentlemen. Our experience in the University is that our Chinese Students are full equal to our American students, as students and gentlemen; and are the most exemplary, and most polite and courteous of the students that come here from many lands. If they had simply been informed that the classes were full that might have been sufficient; but they were given to understand that because they were Chinese they were not wanted.

Very sincerely yours,

A. Waldo Stevenson,
Foreign Secretary."

Your Committee further aver that Dr. G. M. Philips in several instances that have been brought to the attention of the Committee, has admitted students to the West Chester State Normal School on a basis of free scholarship, and in some instances, has allowed said free students to board at the institution without reporting the same to the Board of Trustees, or without collecting any board or tuition therefor. We believe this to be indirect violation of the confidence imposed in Dr. Philips as Principal of the West Chester State Normal School, as it has been an inviolable rule of the Board of Trustees, that under no circumstances should free scholarship or free board be given to any student attending the school.

It must be very apparent to the Board of Trustees that Dr. Philips has exercised rights and privileges that have never been accorded to him nor has it ever been intended that such rights or privileges should be accorded to anyone by your Board of Trustees.

Your committee desire to further report that Dr. Philips went to the counsel of the West Chester State Normal School in the latter part of August, 1913, and proposed to said counsel that when the money came for the payment of board and tuition of students when school opened in September, that he place to the credit of the State Normal School such small amount as would take care of current bills and that he place the balance of the funds, which would be the major portion thereof, to the personal account of G. M. Philips. The counsel of the school informed him that this would be absolutely irregular, and as he viewed it, unexplainable, and therefore, he, as counsel of the institution, could not for one moment consider seriously that Dr. Philips meant to make a proposition that was so manifestly irregular.

Upon further investigation, your Committee desire to report that they find that in July Dr. Philips did place to the credit of G. M. Philips, Principal, contrary to all precedent, collections made on account of the board and tuition of the students in the sum of $3,400.69, and did not transfer it to the credit of the West Chester State Normal School until July 26, 1913. The object of the juggling of the account of the school in this fashion can only be conjectured, as the same was clearly without authorization of the Board of Trustees.

It must, therefore, be further apparent to your honorable body that this institution has been managed by Dr. Philips as a property belonging to himself without regard to the rights, prerogatives and duties belonging to the Board of Trustees of said institution.

After new matters had been brought to the attention of your Committee, the Committee visited Dr. G. M. Philips at the West Chester State Normal School, and asked him to reply to further interrogatories propounded by the Committee, saying to him that if he desired they would give him an opportunity to have counsel present and have his replies taken down stenographically. He replied that he would have to consult counsel, and would advise the Chairman later. We herewith attach his reply to the Chairman of the Committee.

Robert S. Gawthrop, Esq.,
West Chester, Pa.

"October 6, 1913.

Dear Sir: In response to your inquiry as to whether I would be willing to allow myself to be again interrogated by the investigating committee of the Board of Trustees, of the West Chester State Normal School, I would say, that by advice of counsel, I must respectfully decline to do so, and to further suggest, also by advice of counsel, that the questions which the Committee may desire to put should be reduced to writing.

Yours very truly,

G. M. Philips."

Subsequently at the meeting of the Board of Trustees on the last Monday of October, 1913, the chairman of your Committee asked him in the presence of the full Board of Trustees whether he would reply to interrogatories before the full Board. You are all conversant with his answer to this question when he said he would have to further consult his attorney, and would advise later. Your Chairman has had no reply, and you can therefore understand that Dr. Philips would have been given every opportunity to have answered any of the matters referred to in this report had he so desired.

We respectfully call your attention to the fact that Dr. Philips as an employe of this institution has not only defied your regularly appointed and constituted Committee, but that he has defied the Board itself, and has refused to answer proper questions relative to the conduct of this institution to the Board of Trustees which appointed and created him. Is there a single member of this Board of Trustees who would approve or condone such action on the part of a personal employe in refusing to answer entirely proper questions connected with the business for which he was employed, or is there a single member of this Board of Trustees that can condone and approved of the actions of Dr. G. M. Philips in this respect?

We ask you to consider the preposterous position of an employe of this institution requesting a regularly constituted Committee of the Board of Trustees, and subsequently by inference, the Board of Trustees itself, to submit to him in writing such interrogatories as they may care to make relative to the conduct of their own property. Can you reach any other conclusion than that Dr. Philips has so frequently contradicted himself and make misstatements of facts, that he is afraid to face this Board of Trustees and answer proper interrogatories in relation to his connection with the conduct of the affairs of the West Chester State Normal School?

All of which is respectfully submitted.

ROBERT S. GAWTHROP, Chairman.
T. L. EYRE,
MARSHALL H. MATLACK.

The PRESIDENT. This being the day and hour fixed by concurrent resolution for the final adjournment, and the hour of 12 o'clock noon having arrived, I hereby declare the Senate adjourned sine die.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THURSDAY, June 28, 1917.

The House met at 12.05 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (Richard J. Baldwin) in the chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. S. G. Zerfass, offered the following prayer:

Gracious God, creator and preserver of the universe, bless us all this morning and give us the Father's most holy benediction as we are about to end our labors here and return to our respective homes. May the most delightful associations formed here serve only to make us sweeter, nobler and better, and by simple kindness, by continued gentleness, by grace of manner and words of encouragement and comfort be a blessing to all; yea, may only helpful and pleasant memories inspire all of us in our lives, and cause our faces to be radiant with brightness of divine love. Cause us ever to bury the imperfections that we seemed to see in each other, and may we at all times extol each others' virtues. Bless the Speaker and each Representative in this Assembly with many more years of life and usefulness. Bless the President of the United States and the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and their respective cabinets; also the President of the State Senate and all the Senators, as well as all the departments of the government of our great State, with wisdom and righteous ability; yea, be with them all in life's conflict. Bless all whom we met here, and especially those who endeared themselves to Thy humble servant. Imbue all whom we pray for with the spirit of meekness, tolerance and forbearance.

"Love is Eternal!
God is still God and
His faith shall not fail us,
Christ is Eternal."

As our Heavenly Father and our Shepherd, be with us all as we are absent one from another. God bless us all.

"Why should we sigh? Unfading bliss
Survives the narrow grasp of time,
And those that asked our tears in this Shall render smiles in yonder heavenly clime."

The Lord bless us and keep us; the Lord lift up his fatherly countenance upon us; and give us peace, now, henceforth and forevermore. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings, when, on motion of Mr. Flynn, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

The SPEAKER. If there are no objections, the House will proceed to the consideration of Senate Bill No. 315, entitled

An Act amending sections one two three four five six seven eight ten eleven twelve and fifteen of an act repealing section fourteen of said act and supplementing said act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws six hundred and fifty-eight) entitled "An Act establishing the office of State Fire Marshal defining his powers and duties providing for his compensation and the maintenance of his office giving courts the power to punish witnesses for contempt of his authority and to review his orders and making it the duty of officers of public instruction and persons in charge of public or private schools to instruct children as to the dangers of fire and the prevention of fire waste" changing the office of State Fire Marshal to the Department of Fire Prevention providing for the appointment of a State Fire Commissioner and other officers and employees under the Department of Fire Prevention and fixing their salaries fees powers and duties authorizing the adoption and enforcement of rules and regulations concerning explosives inflammable and combustible products and substances authorizing the investigation of fires and the making of certain reports in connection therewith and conferring on the State Fire Commissioner and officers under him the power of police officers and constables with the power to make arrests with or without warrants and to issue subpoenas requiring attendance at hearings for the investigation of fires providing a procedure for the inspection of buildings and the destruction removal and repair of dangerous buildings premises and property and the collection of the cost thereof in certain cases from the owner by liens and giving such liens priority requiring constables and police officers to serve certain warrants and subpoenas and providing penalties for the violation of the several provisions of this act.

which was before the House at the time of adjournment. Are there any objections? The Chair hears none. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Dithrich.

Mr. DITHRICH. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I am afraid that some of the members of the House might be led to believe from the remarks of my colleague that I have violated some agreement in regard to this bill, but I say to you and to the gentleman from Allegheny that I never entered into any agreement. I did not know until to-night that an effort was going to be made to amend this bill. As soon as I found out that such amendment would be offered I canvassed the Allegheny county delegation, as I stated before, and I found the majority of the members opposed to the amendment. That is the reason I took the floor against it, as I had a perfect right to do. I shall not enter into a discussion of the merits of the bill, because I think it is perfectly clear to all the members of the House.

RECESS.

The Chair would like to state to the House that there are refreshments waiting. The Chair will declare a recess until 1 o'clock, at which time the House will resume the consideration of this bill.

AFTER RECESS.

The House reconvened at 1:00 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (Richard J. Baldwin) in the Chair.

SENATE MESSAGE.

SENATE ADOPTS CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON HOUSE BILL NO. 874.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has adopted the report of the Committee of Conference on the subject of the differences existing between the two Houses on Bill numbered and entitled as follows, viz:

House Bill No. 874

An Act making an appropriation for the Associated Charities and Humane Society of Lackawanna County.

SENATE MESSAGE.

AMENDED SENATE BILL CONCURRED IN.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the amendments made by the House of Representatives to Senate Bill numbered and entitled as follows, viz:

Senate Bill No. 53

An Act authorizing trustees guardians and other fiduciaries to sell assign alter modify or supplement coal mining leases with the approval of the Court having jurisdiction of their accounts.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 854.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 17, 1917.
To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 854, entitled "An Act providing for the appointment of probation officers in certain counties fixing their powers duties and salaries."

This bill provides for the appointment by the Judges of the Court of Quarter Session of Allegheny County of certain probation officers. This is a companion bill to House Bill No. 855, which latter bill was designed to transfer the jurisdiction in juvenile cases from the County Court to the Court of Quarter Sessions. Inasmuch as the latter bill was not approved, this bill is unnecessary. The probation officers necessarily belong with the court having jurisdiction. The Court of Quarter Sessions not having jurisdiction it has no need for such officers.

For these reasons this Bill is not approved.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. CONNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill, together with the veto, be laid upon the table.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Private Secretary of the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 855.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 10, 1917.
To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval House Bill No. 855, entitled "An Act to repeal an act approved the nineteenth day of March one thousand nine hundred fifteen entitled 'A further supplement to an act entitled 'An Act to establish a county court for the county of Allegheny and prescribing its powers and duties regulating the procedure therein and providing for the expenses thereof' approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven constituting the said court the juvenile court of said county and prescribing its organization jurisdiction and powers therein and otherwise' and transferring certain cases undisposed of in the county court or Allegheny county to the court of quarter sessions of said county for the purpose of hearing and disposition."

This bill repeals the act of March 19, 1915 (P. L. 5), which act constituted the County Court of Allegheny County the juvenile court for that county. This bill revests such jurisdiction in the Court of Quarter Sessions. This bill has attracted wide comment. Petitions from many—substantially all—bodies corporate having to do with the welfare of children are before me in opposition to the bill. Public hearings and interviews with reputable and high-minded citizens have been held. I am convinced that the bill was framed to correct alleged administrative weakness and not for any partisan purpose. The question however is not one of administrative situation but of fundamentally wise legislative care of children. It is the trend of modern sociological thought, confirmed by almost universal practice, to place juvenile delinquents under the care of one judge—whose broad sympathies, wise counsel, and prolonged experience fits him best to deal in a corrective way with these cases. The judges of quarter sessions frankly admit this and declare that they are unable to assign any one judge to those cases. They amidst their inability wisely to do this service and agree that it belongs to the County Court. The act of 1915 needs time to work itself into the procedure of the courts and will I hope be so organized as to give the children the best service.

For these reasons this bill is not approved.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. WOOD. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill, together with the veto, be laid upon the table.

Mr. EDGAR R. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Private Secretary of the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1072.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, June 7, 1917.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1072, entitled "An Act to authorize the construction of branches by railroad companies."

This bill extends power to railroads to construct branches to branches of their lines. The Act of April 4, 1868 (P. L. 64 Sec. 9) gives power to these corporations to construct branch lines but not branches to branches. Moreover, the bill gives to railroad corporations acting under the laws of other states the same power conferred upon railroads chartered in Pennsylvania. This allows foreign corporations without conforming to enactments relating to such now in force to take advantage of this enactment. There is also a doubt whether or not this Bill would not nullify the power of the Public Service Commission with reference to granting a certificate of public convenience.

Present laws relating to railroads are considered fair and generous in this Commonwealth and the vague and uncertain implications of this bill lead me to question its wisdom, and the present laws lead me to doubt its necessity. For these reasons this bill is not approved.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill, together with the veto, be laid upon the table.

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Private Secretary of the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 751.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, June 7, 1917.
To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval House Bill No. 751, entitled "An Act to fix the compensation for members of the General Assembly."

This bill increases the salaries of the members of the House and Senate of Pennsylvania from $1,500 to $2,500 per session, and increases mileage from 20 to 30 cents per mile circular.

Like bills have been disapproved by my predecessors for good reasons. The quality of service in the Legislature would scarcely be improved by the additional cost—about $270,000 per session. Members seek these places not for the salary and they should not. There is no lack of willing citizens for place in the General Assembly and the common people have expressed decided protest against this increased cost of legislative service.

Members of the law making body of any state ought to accept this service as a solemn service to the Commonwealth. They should, if necessary, be willing to do this at a sacrifice to themselves. The proper way to determine this compensation of members would be to submit the question in the candidacy of those willing to serve. The people would then in choosing one favoring an increased salary give guidance of moment. Should they choose one not favoring such increase the guidance would be equally conclusive.

We are in a great war. Many sacrifices will be made. Many men will willingly give up time and money for the national good and it is an inopportune time to approve increased compensation to those representatives.

For these reasons this bill is not approved.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. HARRY L. RHOADS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill, together with the veto, be laid upon the table.

Mr. GOODWIN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Private Secretary of the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 135.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, June 7, 1917.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval House Bill No. 135, entitled "An Act to fix the salaries of the clerks of the State Department in the office of the county treasurer of any county of this Commonwealth having a population of one million or over."

The purpose of this bill is to increase the compensation and the number of clerks of the "State Department in the office of the County Treasurer" in Philadelphia and Allegheny Counties. There are no officers of record here that are "clerks of the State Department in the office of the County Treasurer." The bill may have in mind clerks assigned to the duty of collecting mercantile and other license taxes in these counties. There are now nine (9) in Philadelphia and five (5) in Allegheny. This bill increases to eleven (11) the number in each county. There can be no good reason for the great increase in the number of such clerks in Allegheny County and the cost would be for both counties $48,000. All personal property taxes now go to the several counties, none to the State. The work should be less not greater.

The officers given power by existing law to appoint these clerks can without an act of Assembly determine the number and compensation of these clerks. There is, therefore, no reason for this enactment.

For these reasons this bill is not approved.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill, together with the veto, be laid upon the table.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Private Secretary of the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1417.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, June 7, 1917.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval House Bill No. 1417, entitled "An Act to provide for an additional law judge of the several courts of the thirty-first judicial district."

This bill provides for an additional law judge in the thirty-first judicial district. The population of this district would warrant an additional judge. But the present judge advises that the business of the Court does not warrant approval of this bill. But the reason that is impelling concerning this case is the decision of the Supreme Court (251 Pa. 39). Only a few days ago a bill was passed to overcome the Court's objection and was approved. This case was then pending in the Assembly and should have been embodied in the general act redistricting the State and defining the number of judges in each district.

Failure to do this and the presentation of this bill now leads me in deference to the Court's decree, to take the only action consistent with the case.

For these reasons this bill is not approved.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. HIBSHMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill, together with the veto, be laid upon the table.

Mr. PICKERING. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion. The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

The SPEAKER. The House will now proceed to the consideration of Senate Bill No. 315, which bill was under consideration by the House at the time of the taking of the recess. The question is, Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House as explained before, this is Senate Bill No. 315, the Fire Marshal Bill. The amendments, or rather the changes that this bill makes are about as follows: From this time forward a department is being formed which will be called the Department of Fire Prevention, and the Commissioner in charge of that department will no longer be called the Fire Marshal, but will be called the Fire Commissioner. It provides, gentlemen, in addition to the Fire Commissioner, one special Deputy Fire Commissioner, who shall be a competent chemist. We can all readily see how essential it is in a department whose purpose it is to prevent fires within the Commonwealth, that it should have access to expert chemical knowledge, not only for the purpose of applying the most potent chemical combinations to extinguish fires, but to investigate such chemical combinations as result in spontaneous combustion. I feel entirely sure that it is not necessary to argue to this House the value of this department, yet I will ask your indulgence for a minute to cite to you an experience we had down in Lancaster county less than a year ago. At intervals, every two or three weeks, some of the largest barns in the county were being destroyed by fire. The local authorities did their utmost to ferret out the incendiary, but did not succeed. But on March 23d of this year an investigator from the department, the Fire Marshal's Department, arrested, and we have since convicted, a party by the name of Hurst. He was sentenced to seventeen and a half years in the penitentiary, and since he has been apprehended we have not had a fire in a barn in Lancaster except two, and they were caused by lightning. I regret that our friends from Allegheny cannot agree as to what they prefer with reference to this bill, but it does seem to me, gentlemen, to be entirely fair to pass this bill in its present shape. If this bill should apply to sixty-six counties of the Commonwealth, gentlemen, ought it not to apply to sixty-seven? I trust, gentlemen, that you will support this bill, as it is a very worthy measure.

MR. WHITAKER IN THE CHAIR.

Mr. DELL. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, for the sake of efficiency in the Chief Fire Marshal's Department, we feel that this bill is a necessity. It is but a short time ago since up in the northeastern section of our State there was one incendiary fire after another. The people in that section of the State were in deadly fear every night for fear their properties would be burned down before the dawning of the next day. They appealed to the Chief Fire Marshal, and he sent a force in there. They discovered a gang of fellows, hired assassins, who have since confessed that they were under a league agreeing to burn and murder, if it need be, being paid for the same. Because of a lack of a sufficient number of men, it took a long time before these men were run down. Some of them were finally apprehended in Florida, and some of them in the western section of the United States, if I mistake not. At that time, talking with the Fire Marshal, he made the statement to me that if he had had a sufficient number of men, he could have apprehended these fellows at a very, very decided less expense to the State. They are doing good work, but the lack of a sufficient number of men and the lack of sufficient power hurts them in their work. This bill is only intended to create a greater efficiency in the department. And then, gentlemen,—and especially to the rural members—I am sorry to have to say what I am going to say. I heard one of the gentlemen who has spoken against this bill make the statement this afternoon, with an adjective that I will not repeat, that he is against everything that the rural members and the farmers want. Now he comes and asks you to assist him in defeating this meritorious bill.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz: .

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2017 (Senate Bill No. 1539), entitled

An Act to authorize the courts of common pleas to decree the sale of real estate held for poor purposes in the several county poor districts in this Commonwealth having a population of less than one hundred fifty thousand inhabitants whether the title to such property is held by the poor district or was reserved by the Commonwealth for the use of a poor district and providing for the reinvestment of the proceeds thereof.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL STRICKEN FROM THE CALENDAR.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be stricken from the calendar.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2027 (Senate Bill No. 1104), entitled

An Act fixing the fees of the constables of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for certain services and providing for the payment of the same.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL STRICKEN FROM THE CALENDAR.

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, there are two constables' fees bills on your calendar. There is the Crow bill on page 26, and this bill. The Crow bill is much the better bill, and therefore I move that this bill be stricken from the calendar.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I want to say with reference to this bill that this bill was made up and framed by the constables of the State of Pennsylvania in their own organization.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2031 (Senate Bill No. 1543), entitled

An Act enlarging the powers of the orphans' court so as to discharge liens on real estate and providing for the distribution of the amount of such liens.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL STRICKEN FROM THE CALENDAR.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be stricken from the calendar.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2050 (Senate Bill No. 1626), entitled

A Joint Resolution authorizing the authorities having control and supervision of county jails and prisons to permit the employment of inmates thereof on county or almshouse farms excepting wardens and keepers from liability in certain cases for escapes.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be stricken from the calendar.

Mr. SHOWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I am going to ask the gentlemen of the House at this time not to agree to drop this bill from the calendar. It has the approval of the Board of Charities of this State, and it is merely to help bring the prisoners out so they may work.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2081 (Senate Bill No. 45), entitled

An Act to establish as a State Highway a certain section of public road in the counties of York Adams and Bradford.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be stricken from the calendar.

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. LANIUS. Mr. Speaker, before this motion is put, I desire to say that I cannot conceive of any reason why this bill should be stricken from the calendar. The fact that various members of the House have not been able to successfully put through certain pieces of legislation, is no reason why I should be penalized. This bill applies directly to my home district. It came through the Senate unanimously and is now before you in the House, and I ask a square deal. If you are going to strike it off, or beat it, let them do it by a straight roll call.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

BILL STRICKEN FROM THE CALENDAR.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be stricken from the calendar.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2100 (Senate Bill No. 311), entitled

An Act to prevent the publication and distribution of discriminating matter against any religious sect creed class denomination or nationality and to punish the same.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I wish to offer a little explanation on this bill. This bill prohibits that which is, in my opinion, a disgrace; namely, the damage which has been done by certain hotels and places open to the public advertising that "no Jews or dogs are allowed here," and other nationalities and religious creeds are likewise inhibited from going into certain places. This Act prohibits any publication of that kind and gives them all the fair square rights that we are entitled to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2096 (Senate Bill No. 1729), entitled

An Act to amend section twenty-five of the act approved the sixteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six entitled "An Act relating to the jurisdiction and powers of courts" by providing for arrests for contempts of court in other counties.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be stricken from the calendar.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, it so happens that this bill, which was presented in the Senate by Senator Jenkins, was handed to him by me because the bill came to me too late to be presented here. A man may have an order made against him by the court of common pleas ordering the payment of alimony and then jump into another county and under the present law there is nothing to bring him back and enforce payment and this bill provides that this order for alimony can be made effective. All I have to say is that the bill fills a great need in the State law to-day.

Mr. BEYER. Mr. Speaker, I move that we adopt the gentleman's first reason when he pleads guilty to its being his bill.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my motion to drop this bill from the calendar.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my second to Mr. Hess' motion.

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I understand this is a very important bill and I should like to have someone explain it.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—1.

Palmer,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendments.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE IN SENATE BILL NO. 518.

Mr. GRAHAM. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which Senate Bill No. 518, File Folio 4819, entitled was defeated on final passage on Tuesday, June 19, be reconsidered.

An Act providing for the establishment of a Pennsylvania State Building in the city of Philadelphia authorizing the purchase or lease of a site providing for plans and specifications and for test borings and surveys for such building and making an appropriation.

Mr. VICKERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen, when this bill was first called for your consideration there were but one hundred and nine men in the House to vote. There is an idea in the minds of some men that this is an endeavor to establish in the city of Philadelphia a branch Capitol. The State of Pennsylvania to-day is paying for office rental in Philadelphia twenty-five thousand dollars a year. The purpose of this bill is to establish a State building in order that various offices representing the various departments of State may be housed under one roof, and the purpose of the bill is to save the State money and I ask you gentlemen to vote "aye" on this motion.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2098 (Senate No. 1731), entitled

An Act to amend section two clause (a) of "The Intestate Act of one thousand nine hundred and seventeen" approved June seventh one thousand nine hundred and seventeen by inserting in the proviso to said clause the words "as to said five thousand dollars in value."

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2097 (Senate Bill No. 1730), entitled

An Act providing for the distribution of the proceeds of sheriffs sales of estates in entirities.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question?

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL STRICKEN FROM THE CALENDAR.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill be stricken from the calendar.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. The ayes appear to have it,

Whereupon, a division was called for, 63 gentlemen having voted in the affirmative and 44 in the negative.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2093 (Senate Bill No. 1682), entitled

An Act to amend section two of an act approved the sixth day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three entitled "An Act to provide for the appointment of one or more deputy coroners and defining their power and duties in the several counties of this Commonwealth."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. GOLDER. Mr. Speaker, before the motion is made to drop this bill from the calendar, Mr. Mehring desires to explain the bill. I ask the House to grant to him this favor.

Mr. MEHRING. Mr. Speaker, this is a very meritorious bill; it is a revenue raiser, and I ask you to vote for it.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be stricken from the calendar.

Mr. EDGAR R. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. Siggins. Mr. Speaker, the only purpose of this bill is to correct the law, regulating deputy coroners, in order to authorize them to view dead bodies. It is not enforced by the law at the present time.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with the information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2107 (Senate Bill No. 1686), entitled

An Act providing a system of employment and compensation for the inmates of the Eastern Penitentiary Western Penitentiary and the Pennsylvania Industrial Reformatory at Huntingdon and for such other correctional institutions as shall be hereafter established by the Commonwealth.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. COOK. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be stricken from the calendar.

Mr. GEORGE J. A. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, this is the only bill that has come before us so far that promises legislation by the House in this line and I think it should pass.

Mr. STITES. Mr. Speaker, I trust that in finishing up our work this morning that we will not overlook passing important legislation that is really needed. This bill should receive the favorable consideration of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2109 (Senate Bill No. 1628), entitled

An Act to amend an act known as the Public Service Company Law approved the twenty-sixth day of July Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws thirteen hundred and seventy-four) as amended by an act entitled "An Act to amend section four of article four and sections seventeen, twenty-nine, thirty, thirty-two, thirty-three, thirty-five, thirty-six and thirty-nine of article six of an act known as the Public Service Company Law, approved the twenty-sixth day of July, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws thirteen hundred and seventy-four) so as to authorize The Public Service Commission of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to appoint examiners to take testimony and evidence in any locality in the Commonwealth designated by the Commission and to provide for the taking of appeals from the findings, determinations or orders of the Commission to the Superior Court instead of to the court of common pleas of Dauphin County, vesting in the Superior Court the jurisdiction to hear and determine said appeals which is now vested in said court of common pleas of Dauphin County, the same to be subject to an appeal to the Supreme Court and so as to make the other necessary changes due to the said substitution of the Superior Court of Pennsylvania for the court of common pleas of Dauphin County as the court by which appeals from the findings determinations and orders of the Commission shall be determined" approved the third day of June, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred and seventy-nine) so as to vest in the Superior Court the jurisdiction to hear and determine all appeals from the findings, determinations and orders of the Public Service Commission which were taken prior to the third day of June, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and fifteen to the court of common pleas of Dauphin County and which are undisposed of by that court and so as to limit the time for taking appeals to the Supreme Court and to define the conditions under which appeals may hereafter be taken from the judgment order or decree of the Superior Court to the Supreme Court in all cases in which appeals have been or may be taken from the findings, determinations or orders of The Public Service Commission.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question,

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE.

Mr. RININGER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which the motion of Mr. Swartz to take from the table, the motion of Mr. Lewis to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 786, File Folio 5245 was defeated, be reconsidered.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question.

Will the House agree to the motion.

The SPEAKER. The nays appear to have.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. Speaker, I asked for recognition before you rendered a decision.

The SPEAKER. The Chair has not made its decision yet, and will recognize the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McNichol.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. Speaker, while of course I cannot expect anything else from such a quarter than this, but I want to state that the men of this House can take advantage of the confusion now to permanently put an end to the most important measure so far as Philadelphia is concerned that ever came before this House, and I do not think it is becoming to the men who are opposed to this bill.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would like to say that the motion is entirely in order and entirely proper at this time.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. Speaker, I am calling the attention of the men of this House to the fact that the eyes of the citizens of the State of Pennsylvania are on them, and if they want to employ sharp practices of this kind let the responsibility rest with them. There are over one million and a half people in Philadelphia that ask for this legislation and if you want to yield to force and persuasion and trickery to continue them to deny them any rights rights they may have before this legislature, then let them go ahead in this fashion.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to state that if there is any member in the House desires roll call he can ask for it. There will be nothing savoring of trickery perpetrated while the Speaker is in the Chair.

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a roll call.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I move the motion of Mr. Rininger be postponed until 10 o'clock this morning.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will have to rule that to make a motion a special order is out of order. The gentleman can make a motion to postpone for the present.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I move that consideration of the motion of Mr. Rininger be postponed for the present.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question.

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Sterling and Mr. Bennett and were as follows:

PRESENT

West,

So the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The question recurs on the motion made by Mr. Rininger, seconded by Mr. Heyburn, that the vote by which the motion of Mr. Swartz to take from the table the motion of Mr. Lewis to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 786, File Folio 5245 was defeated, be reconsidered.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to know whether the gentlemen having voted against the bill are in position to call this bill up at this time for reconsideration.

The SPEAKER. This is a question on the motion, not on the bill.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, it is on the question of taking the motion up at this time. I want to know how the gentleman voted.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn, vote on the motion to take the bill from the table on the motion of Mr. Swartz?

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. Speaker, I voted "No".

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Rininger, vote on that motion?

Mr. RININGER. Mr. Speaker, I voted "No".

The SPEAKER. The motion is then in order, and the question is, Will the House agree to the motion?

The motion was not agreed to.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, I ask this information. Mr. Speaker, and ask for a decision from the Chair. If a motion to take a motion from the table is defeated, can another motion be made the same day to take that motion from the table?

The SPEAKER. A motion to take from the table twice defeated cannot be again renewed, is the decision of the Chair. When a motion is twice made to take a motion from the table the motion cannot be made the third time. Does that answer the inquiry? I might add further that it is immaterial whether or not the motion is made on the same day or within five days.

Mr. MILLIRON. Then I ask further information, Mr. Speaker. Have we considered this motion twice?

The SPEAKER. There have been two efforts made. I would like to inquire as to what motion the gentleman refers.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that it is not competent for the Chair to instruct the gentleman from Armstrong in the elements of Parliamentary Law, at this time on the question.

The SPEAKER. The Chair may not be competent but at the same time it is his privilege to answer the question.

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, I want to correct the statement. I say it is not competent under the Rules; that is what I meant.

The SPEAKER. The Chair has answered.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION.

Mr. GOLDER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. GOLDER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know the status of Senate Bill No. 786 and the various motions made. What is the status of the bill and the motion at this time? I frankly confess I don't know. I want to say, Mr. Speaker, that this Transit Bill has kept me awake for so many nights that when I go to sleep to-night I want to know just what the status of this bill is and the various motions made.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thought he was making it perfectly plain. When a motion is made twice and lost it cannot be renewed the third time. The motion has been made twice to-night to take the motion of Mr. Lewis and the bill from the table. It has been twice defeated and the bill is dead.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON HOUSE BILL NO. 682.

Mr. SIGGINS. Mr. Speaker, I call up at this time report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 682.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the report.

The report was read as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 682.

CHAPTER II

Classification of Townships

ARTICLE I

Section 15 The townships now in existence and those to be hereafter created are divided into two classes Those townships having a population of at least three hundred inhabitants to the square mile shall be townships of the first class All other townships shall be townships of the second class

Section 16 Townships of the first class shall include all townships heretofore designated as townships of the first class by the county commissioners of the several counties under the provisions of an act entitled "An act to provide for the classification of the townships of the Commonwealth with respect to their population into two classes and to prescribe the form of government for townships of each class" approved the twenty-eighth day of April one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine and the several amendments thereto and which are now governed by such and also all townships having the requisite population as provided by section fifteen of this act which shall hereafter be designated as townships of the first class under the provisions of this act All other townships now in existence or hereafter erected or created under the provisions of this act shall be townships of the second class

CHAPTER III

Creation of Townships

ARTICLE 1

Erection of Townships of the Second Class

Section 20 The courts of quarter sessions may upon the presentation of a petition erect new townships of the second class out of parts of two or more townships so as to suit the convenience of the inhabitants thereof

Section 21 Upon application by petition to the court for the purpose of erecting a new township of the second class the court shall appoint three impartial men to inquire into the propriety of granting the prayer of the petition The commissioners so appointed or any two of them shall make a plot or draft of the township proposed to be erected if the same cannot be fully designated by natural lines or boundaries all which they or any two of them shall report to the next court of quarter sessions together with their opinion of the same At the term following the one at which the report was made the court shall make such order thereupon as shall be just and reasonable

Section 22 Whenever commissioners appointed under the twenty-first section of this act shall report unfavorably to the erection of a new township the court shall direct a second commission or review for the same purposes on the petition of a majority of the voters of the townships affected by said proceedings Such petition shall be presented to the court at or before the second term thereof after the final confirmation of the report of the first commission

Section 23 When a return has been made by commissioners appointed under the twenty-first section of this act favorable to the erection of a new township the court shall order a vote of the qualified electors of the township from which the largest number of taxables to be embraced in the proposed new township is to be taken and also of the qualified electors outside of such township residing within the bounds of the proposed new township to be taken on the question of the erection of a new township.

Section 24 The court shall fix a day upon which the election officers of the township from which the largest number of taxables to be embraced in the proposed new township is to be taken shall hold an election at the place fixed by law for holding township elections in said township which election shall be governed by the laws of this Commonwealth relating to township elections. The ballots for said election shall be in the form prescribed by the general election laws. At such election all qualified electors residing within the districts mentioned in section twenty-three of this act may vote.

Section 25 The constable of the township in which the election is to be held or if there be no constable then one of the supervisors or commissioners designated by the court shall give at least fifteen days' notice of the time and place of holding said election by posting not less than six written or printed handbills in public places in each of the townships which are to be divided by the formation of the new township.

Section 26 The election officers after the polls have been closed shall count the ballots and certify before noon of the second day following such election the number of votes for and against a new township to the clerk of the court of quarter sessions of the county. The clerk shall after filing the said returns in his office lay the same before the court at the next session. If it shall appear that a majority of the votes so taken are for a new township the court shall thereupon order and decree a new township agreeably to the lines marked out and returned by the commissioners. If a majority of the votes have been given against a new township no further action shall be had upon said proceedings.

Section 27 When any township of the second class is erected under the provision of this article the court of quarter sessions may authorize the citizens of the new township to hold an election for all township officers upon such notice and for such terms not inconsistent with this act as the court may direct.

Section 28 Whenever a new township is erected by uniting parts of two or more adjoining townships the court of common pleas of the county sitting in equity may upon the application of the proper authorities of such township or townships by a suit or suits in equity adjust all matters of indebtedness between the said old townships and the said new township. In the execution of any decree in any such suit or suits the proper officers of the township liable to pay may levy separate rates of taxation if necessary on the said parts of townships so erected into one.

CHAPTER III

Creation of Townships

ARTICLE II

Designation of Townships of the First Class

Section 30 At any time not less than one year before the time fixed for taking a decennial census of the United States whenever the owners of twenty-five per centum of the assessed valuation of the real estate of any township of the second class shall present their petition to the court of quarter sessions averring that the population of the township is at least three hundred to the square mile and shall give such security as the court may prescribe for the payment of all costs and expenses which may be incurred in any procedure had upon said petition the court shall appoint a commissioner to make an enrollment of the inhabitants of the township. The said commissioner shall make an enrollment of the inhabitants of such township and make report thereof to the court at the next ensuing term. Upon the filing of the report the same shall be confirmed nisi which confirmation shall become absolute unless excepted to within twenty days thereafter during which time notice of the said filing and confirmation shall be advertised in a newspaper published in the county once a week for three weeks. If exceptions are filed to the report within the said twenty days the court upon consideration thereof shall confirm the report or modify the said finding. After final confirmation the clerk of the court shall certify to the county commissioners the population of the township as shown by the said proceedings. The cost and expenses of the proceedings including a reasonable fee for the commissioner shall be paid by the petitioners or by the township or partly by each as the court shall direct.

Section 31 In addition to the procedure provided by section thirty of this act the county commissioners of each county shall following each decennial census of the United States ascertain from such census whether any township in the county has a population of three hundred inhabitants to the square mile. Before the first day of January following the ascertainment of the population by the decennial census of the United States the county commissioners shall by proclamation designate the townships of the first class if any have the required population. By proclamation to be issued prior to the first day of January of each of the intervening years the county commissioners of each county shall designate the townships if any which have been ascertained to come within the said conditions under the procedure provided in section thirty of this act and to be townships of the first class. All proclamations by the county commissioners shall be advertised in two newspapers published in the county. The cost of the advertisement of any such proclamation shall be paid by the township.

Section 32 In all townships designated as townships of the first class the officers provided for by this act for townships of the first class shall be chosen at the municipal election then next ensuing as provided in chapter five Article one of this act in such cases and the township government constituted by this act for townships of the first class shall go into force on the first Monday of January next ensuing said election. At such time all officers provided for townships of the second class shall cease to exist in such township and the terms of the officers then in office shall expire.

CHAPTER III

Creation of Townships

ARTICLE III

Re-establishment of Townships of the Second Class

Section 35 At any time not less than two years before the time fixed for taking a decennial census of the United States whenever twenty or more freeholders residing in any township of the first class shall present their petition to the court of quarter sessions averring that the township no longer has a population of three hundred to the square mile and shall give such security as the court may prescribe for the payment of all costs and expenses which may be incurred in any proceedings had upon said petition the court shall appoint a commissioner to make an enrollment of the inhabitants of the township. The commissioner shall make an enrollment of the inhabitants of such township and make report thereof to the court at the next ensuing term. Upon the filing of the report the same shall be confirmed nisi. The confirmation shall become absolute unless excepted to within twenty days thereafter during which time notice of the said filing and confirmation shall be advertised once a week for three weeks in a newspaper published within the county in general circulation in the district to be affected. If exceptions are filed to the report within said twenty days the court upon consideration thereof shall confirm the report or modify the finding. After final confirmation the clerk of the court shall certify to the county commissioners and to the township commissioners the finding as shown by the proceedings. The costs and expenses of the proceedings including a reasonable fee for the commissioner shall be paid by the petitioners or by the township or partly by each as the court shall direct.

Section 36 The county commissioners in every county of the Commonwealth shall by proclamation issued prior to the first day of January of each year designate the townships if any which since the last preceding proclamation have been ascertained to have less than three hundred inhabitants to the square mile and to be townships of the second class. In all townships so designated the officers provided by this act for townships of the second class shall be chosen at the municipal election then next ensuing and the township government constituted by the act for townships of the second class shall go into force on the first Monday of December next ensuing such election.

CHAPTER III

Creation of Townships

ARTICLE IV

Division of Townships

(a) By Petition Appointment of Commissioners and Election

Section 40 The courts of quarter sessions may upon the presentation of a petition and the bond required by section fifty-five of this act divide any township of the first or second class so as to suit the convenience of the inhabitants thereof.

Section 41 Upon application by petition to the court for the purpose of dividing any township of the first or second class the said court shall appoint three impartial men to inquire into the propriety of granting the prayer of the petition. The commissioners so appointed or any two of them shall make a plot or draft of the township proposed to be divided and the division line proposed to be made therein if the same cannot be fully designated by natural lines or boundaries all which they or any two of them shall report to the next court of quarter sessions together with their opinion of the same. At the term following the one at which the report was made the court shall make such order thereupon as shall be just and reasonable.

Section 42 Whenever commissioners appointed under the forty-first section of this act shall report unfavorably to the division of any township the court shall direct a second commission or review for the same purposes on the petition of a majority of the voters of the township affected by said proceedings. Such petition shall be presented to the court at or before the second term thereof after the final confirmation of the report of the first commission.

Section 43 Whenever a return has been made by commissioners appointed under the provisions of section forty-one of this act favorable to a division the court shall order a vote of the qualified electors of said township to be taken on the question of a division thereof.

Section 44 The court shall fix a day upon which the election officers of the township proposed to be divided shall hold an election at the place fixed by law for holding township elections which election shall be governed by the laws of this Commonwealth relating to township elections. The ballots for said election shall be in the form prescribed by the general election laws.

Section 45 The constable of the townships or if there be no constable then one of the supervisors or commissioners designated by the court shall give at least fifteen days' notice of the time and place of holding said election by posting not less than six written or printed handbills in public places in said township.

Section 46 The election officers after the polls have been closed shall count the ballots and certify before noon of the second day following such election the number of votes for or against a division to the clerk of the court of quarter sessions of the county. The clerk shall after filing the said returns in his office lay the same before the court at the next sessions. If it shall appear that a majority of the votes so taken are for a division the court shall thereupon order and decree a division of the township agreeably to the lines marked out and returned by the commissioners. If a majority of votes have been against a division no further action shall be had upon such proceedings.

(b) By Petition of Property Owners and Election

Section 50 Whenever the owners of twenty-five per centum of the assessed valuation of the real estate of any township of the first or second class shall make application by petition to the court of quarter sessions setting forth that the convenience of the inhabitants of such township will be promoted by a division thereof and shall in said petition accurately describe the proposed division line by courses and distances or natural marks and accompany the same with a plot or draft showing the existing lines of the township proposed to be divided and the proposed division line the court shall order a vote of the qualified electors of the township to be taken on the question of such division. The court shall fix a day upon which the election officers of the township proposed to be divided shall hold an election at the place fixed by law for the holding of township elections which election shall be governed by the laws relating to township elections.

Section 51 The constable of the township or if there be no constable then of one of the supervisors or commissioners designated by the court shall give at least fifteen days' notice of the time and place of the holding of said election by posting not less than ten handbills written or printed in public places in said township.

Section 52 The ballots to be deposited by the electors shall be prepared in the form prescribed by the general election law. The officers after the polls have been closed shall count the ballots and certify within two days thereafter the number of votes for and against division to the clerk of the court of quarter sessions and shall file in the office of said clerk the ballots cast at said election. The clerk shall lay said returns and ballots before the court at the next session thereof. If it shall appear that the majority of the votes so taken are "for division" the court shall thereupon order and decree a division of the township agreeably to the lines set forth in the petition. If a majority of votes are "against division" no further action shall be had upon such proceedings. If there is any difficulty in locating the division line described in the petition upon the ground the court may appoint commissioners for that purpose.

(c) Pay of Commissioners Surveyors Artists and Chain-Carriers

Section 55 The pay of commissioners appointed to divide townships and to establish township division lines shall be three dollars ($3.00) the pay of surveyors or artists shall be five dollars ($5.00) and the pay of chain-carriers shall be one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) for each day necessarily employed and five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in the discharge of their duties. The same shall be paid by the county at the time of the session or term of court to which their report is rendered and filed. The petitioners asking for their appointment shall pay the same amount into the county treasury in all such cases as the court by order may direct. The court shall require the petitioners to file a bond with their petition in a sufficient sum to secure the payment of the same.

(d) Adjustment of Indebtedness

Section 60 Whenever a township of the first or second class has been divided the court of common pleas of the county sitting in equity may upon the application of the proper authorities of said townships or either of them by a suit or suits in equity adjust all matters of indebtedness between the said new townships. In the execution of any decree in any such suit or suits the proper officers of the township liable to pay may levy separate rates of taxation if necessary on the said parts of townships so divided.

(e) Organization of Townships Formed by the Division of a Township

Section 65 All townships formed under the provisions of this article by the division of any township of the first or second class shall be townships of the second class. The part of the township of the first class or of the township of the second class as the case may be remaining after such division shall remain a township of the first class or second class as the case may be until determined otherwise. In all townships so formed the officers provided by this act for townships of the second class shall be chosen at the next municipal election occurring at least three months after such formation and the government constituted by this act for townships of the second class shall go into force on the first Monday of December next following such election.

CHAPTER IV

Township Lines and Boundaries

ARTICLE I

(a) Altering and Ascertaining Township Lines and Boundaries

Section 70 The courts of quarter sessions may upon the presentation of a petition alter the lines of any two or more adjoining townships of the first or second class so as to suit the convenience of the inhabitants thereof and cause the lines or boundaries of townships to be ascertained and established.

Section 71 Upon application by petition to the court for the purpose of altering the lines of any township or of ascertaining and establishing the lines or boundaries of any township the court shall appoint three impartial men to inquire into the propriety of granting the prayer of the petition. The commissioners so appointed or any two of them shall make a plot or draft of the lines of such adjoining townships proposed to be altered or of the lines proposed to be ascertained and established if the same cannot be fully designated by natural lines or boundaries all which they or any two of them shall report to the next court of quarter sessions together with their opinion of the same. At the term following the one at which the report was made the court shall make such order thereupon as shall be just and reasonable.

Section 72 In all cases where commissioners are appointed under the seventy-first section of this act the court shall direct a second commission or review for the same purposes on the petition of a majority of the voters of the township or townships affected by said proceedings. Such petition shall be presented to the court at or before the second term thereof after the final confirmation of the report of the first commission.

Section 73 Whenever the boundaries of any township or townships have been altered the court of common pleas sitting in equity may upon application of the supervisors commissioners poor authorities or school directors of any such township poor district or school district by a suit or suits in equity adjust the taxes debts and expenses for road school and poor purposes between the several townships affected. In the execution of any decree the officers of the township poor district or school district liable to pay may levy separate rates of taxation if necessary on the said parts of such townships so affected.

(b) Ascertaining and Establishing Disputed Lines and Boundaries Between Townships and Townships and Municipalities

Section 80 The courts of quarter sessions may upon the presentation of a petition ascertain and establish disputed lines and boundaries between two or more townships between townships and cities or between townships and boroughs.

Section 81 Upon application by petition to the court for the purpose of ascertaining and establishing any such disputed lines or boundaries the court shall appoint three impartial men one of whom shall be a surveyor. After having given notice to parties interested as directed by the court the commissioners shall view the said lines or boundaries. The commissioners or any two of them shall make a plot or draft of the lines and boundaries proposed to be ascertained and established if the same cannot be fully designated by natural lines or boundaries all of which they or any two of them shall report to the next court of quarter sessions together with their opinion of the same. At the term following the one at which the report was made the court shall make such order thereupon as shall be just and reasonable.

Section 82 Any person interested may petition the court for a review or may except to the report of the commissioners. When matters of fact are in dispute the court may frame an issue and certify the same for trial to the court of common pleas.

Section 83 Whenever any such line or boundary is established the court shall cause the same to be marked with stone monuments placed at intervals not exceeding fifteen hundred feet and the expense of establishing said line or boundary and placing of said monuments when approved by the court shall be borne equally by the municipalities and townships interested.

(c) Pay of Commissioners Surveyors Artists and Chain-Carriers

Section 90 The pay of commissioners appointed to run township lines shall be three dollars ($3.00) the pay of surveyors or artists shall be five dollars ($5.00) and the pay of chain carriers shall be one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) for each day necessarily employed and five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in the discharge of their duties. The same shall be paid by the county at the time of the session or term of court to which their report is rendered and filed. The petitioners asking for their appointment shall pay the same amount into the county treasury in all such cases as the court by order may direct. The court shall require the petitioners to file a bond with their petition in a sufficient sum to secure the payment of the same.

(d) Center Line of Navigable Stream as Boundary

Section 95 Whenever any township of the first or second class is bounded by the nearest margin of any navigable stream and the opposite township borough or city as the case may be is also bounded by the nearest margin of the same stream the middle of such stream shall be the boundary between such townships township and borough or township and city.

CHAPTER V

Election of Officers Vacancies in Office

ARTICLE I

In Townships of the First Class

(a) General Provisions

Section 100 No person shall be eligible to any office in any township of the first class unless he is an elector of the township for which he is chosen

Section 101 Officers of townships of the first class shall hold their offices until their successors are elected and qualified

Section 102 The electors of each township of the first class shall elect (a) at least five township commissioners or where there are more than five election districts in any township then as many as there are election districts (b) one township treasurer (c) one township assessor and two assistant assessors and (d) three township auditors

(b) Commissioners

Section 110. At the municipal election in the year one thousand nine hundred and seventeen and every four years thereafter there shall be elected by the qualified voters of each even-numbered election district of townships of the first class one township commissioner who need not reside in the election district for which he is elected in townships of the first class having five or less election districts the number of commissioners of such township shall be five. The remaining number of commissioners to which the said township is entitled as aforesaid including the commissioners now holding office for the odd-numbered election districts of the said township shall hold over and continue in said office until the first Monday in January in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty. At the township election to be held on the first Tuesday following the first Monday in November in the year one thousand nine hundred and nineteen and every four years thereafter the qualified voters of each odd-numbered election district of every township of the first class shall elect one commissioner who need not reside in the election district for which he is elected and the remaining number of commissioners to which the said township is entitled as aforesaid shall at the same time be elected by the qualified voters of the whole township. All commissioners hereafter elected shall hold office for the term of four years

When any township of the first class is organized there shall be elected at the municipal election following one township commissioner from each election district who need not reside in the election district for which he is elected. In any such townships having less than five election districts the number of township commissioners shall be five and the number of commissioners equal to the difference between five and the number of election districts shall be elected at large. At such election the township commissioners elected in even-numbered districts shall be elected for a term of two years and the township commissioners elected at large and in odd-numbered districts shall be elected for a term of four years or vice versa as the case may be in order that the terms may harmonize with the elections in townships organized prior to the passage of this act.

After the passage of this act upon application the court of common pleas of the proper county shall number all election districts not numbered in townships of the first class and cause the same to be certified to the county commissioners

Section 111 The notice of any primary election or nominating caucus convention or meeting held for the purpose of nominating candidates for the office of township commissioner and the notice of any election of township commissioners shall designate for what election district of the township each commissioner is to be nominated or elected as the case may be. In case any one or more of the township commissioners is to be elected by vote of the qualified electors of the township at large the notice shall so state. The ballots to be cast at any election for township commissioners shall designate under an appropriate heading the candidate for the office of township commissioner for whom the qualified electors of the election district are entitled to cast their ballots and under an appropriate heading the candidate or candidates for the office of township commissioner which are to be elected by the electors of the township at large

(c) Treasurer

Section 115 At the municipal election in the year preceeding the expiration of the term of the treasurer now in office or at the municipal election following the designation of a township of the first class and at the municipal election every four years thereafter the qualified electors of each township of the first class shall elect a township treasurer. The township treasurer elected under this section shall hold office for a term of four years from the first Monday of January next following his election

The same person may hold the office of township treasurer and treasurer of the school board but no township treasurer shall hold the office of township auditor

(d) Assessor and Assistant Assessors

Section 120 At the municipal election in the year preceeding the expiration of the term of the assessor now in office or at the municipal election following the designation of a township of the first class and at the municipal election every four years thereafter the qualified electors of each township of the first class shall elect a township assessor. The township assessor elected under this section shall hold office for a term of four years from the first Monday of January next following his election

Section 121 In all townships of the first class now organized the qualified electors shall at the municipal election preceeding the expiration of the term of the assistant assessors now in office and at the municipal election every four years thereafter elect two citizens resident in said township to be assistant assessors to take the place of those whose terms expire on the first Monday of January next following such election

In all townships hereafter designated as townships of the first class the qualified electors of such township shall at the municipal election next following such designation elect two citizens resident in said township to be assistant assessors

All assessors elected under the provisions of this section shall hold their office for a term of four years from the first Monday of January next following their election

The election of assistant assessors provided for in this section shall extend only to the election of assistant assessors for the valuation of property for taxation and shall not repeal or affect the provisions of any statute providing for the election of assistant assessors for the performance of duties relating to elections. The assistant assessors elected under this section shall aid the township assessor only in making any triennial assessment of property made during their respective terms of office

(e) Auditors

Section 125 In every township of the first class there shall be three auditors who shall hold their office for a term of four years from the first Monday of January next following their election. These auditors shall be elected as follows

In townships now organized at the municipal election preceeding the expiration of the term of any of the auditors now in office and at the municipal election every two years thereafter the qualified electors of each township of the first classes shall elect one or two auditors as the case may be to take the place of those whose terms expire on the first Monday of January next following such election

In all townships hereafter designated as townships of the first class the qualified electors of such townships shall at the municipal election next following such designation elect three auditors. Two of the auditors so elected shall hold office for a term of four years and one for a term of two years. The ballots at any such election shall designate the term for which each auditor is elected. At each municipal election following the election of such township shall elect one or two auditors as the case may be to take the place of those whose terms expire on the first Monday of January next following such election

No auditor shall at the same time hold the office of constable

(f) Vacancies in Office

Section 130 When a vacancy occurs in the office of township commissioner in any township of the first class by reason of death resignation removal from the township or otherwise the court of quarter sessions upon the petition of ten qualified voters of the district in which the vacancy occurs may appoint a qualified voter of the township to fill such vacancy. If such petition is not presented to the court within thirty days after such vacancy occurs the board of township commissioners of the township may appoint a qualified voter of the township to fill the vacancy. In either event the person so appointed shall hold office for the unexpired term of the person whose place he is appointed to fill

Section 131 The board of township commissioners of townships of the first class may fill any vacancy occurring in the office of township treasurer by death resignation removal from the township or otherwise. The person so appointed shall hold office for the unexpired term of the person whose place he is appointed to fill

Section 132 When a vacancy occurs in the office of township auditor in any township of the first class by reason of the death resignation removal from the township or otherwise the court of quarter sessions shall appoint a suitable person to fill such vacancy for the unexpired term of the person whose place he is appointed to fill

Section 133 Vacancies in the office of assessor or assistant assessors in townships of the first class shall be filled in the manner now provided by law

CHAPTER V

In Townships of the Second Class

(a) General Provisions

Section 140 No person shall be eligible to any office in any township of the second class unless he is an elector of the township for which he is chosen

Section 141 The electors of each township of the second class shall elect (a) three township supervisors (b) one township assessor (c) three township auditors and (d) one tax collector

(b) Supervisors

Section 145 At the municipal election in the year one thousand nine hundred and seventeen and at the municipal election every two years thereafter the qualified electors of each township of the second class shall elect one township

At every biennial municipal election thereafter an auditor shall be elected in each of such townships for a term of six years from the first Monday of December next succeeding his election.

If at any time any of such townships shall be without the required number of auditors provided by this act for townships of the second class vacancies shall exist and the court of quarter sessions shall appoint an auditor or auditors to fill such vacancies the auditors so appointed shall hold office until their successors are elected and qualified under the provisions of this section.

Section 152 Whenever a township of the second class is created by the division of a township of the first or second class under the provisions of chapter three article four of this act or whenever a township of the second class is created by re-establishment from a township of the first class as provided in chapter three article three of this act or when a township of the second class is erected under the provisions of chapter three article one of this act and in the latter case the court so orders the qualified electors of such township shall at the next ensuing municipal election elect three township auditors one for a term of two years one for a term of four years and one for a term of six years. The ballot shall designate the term for which each township auditor is elected. The township auditors so elected shall hold office from the first Monday of December next following their election.

Biennially thereafter at each succeeding municipal election the electors of such township of the second class shall elect one township auditor for a term of six years to serve from the first Monday of December next following such election.

(d) Assessor

Section 160 At the municipal election in the year one thousand nine hundred and seventeen and at the municipal election every four years thereafter the qualified electors of each township of the second class shall elect one township assessor. The township assessor elected under this section shall hold his office for a term of four years from the first Monday of January next following his election.

Section 161 Whenever a township of the second class is created by the division of a township of the first or second class under the provisions of chapter three article four of this act or whenever a township of the second class is created by re-establishment from a township of the first class as provided by chapter three article three of this act or whenever a township of the second class is erected under the provisions of chapter three article one of this act and in the latter case the court so orders the qualified electors of any such township shall at the next municipal election elect one township assessor for either of the following terms to-wit: If such election occurs in the year in which an election for assessor is held under the provisions of section one hundred and seven of this act then such assessor shall be elected for a term of four years. If such election occurs in a year when no assessor is elected under the provisions of said section one hundred and sixty then such assessor shall be elected for a term of two years.

All assessors elected under this section shall hold their office for a term of two or four years as the case may be from the first Monday of January next following their election.

At the municipal election preceding the expiration of the term of any of the aforesaid assessors and at the municipal election every four years thereafter an assessor shall be elected for a term of four years to hold office from the first Monday of January next succeeding such election.

Section 162 The provisions of section one hundred and sixty and one hundred and sixty-one relating to the election of assessors in townships of the second class shall not repeal nor affect the provisions of any statute providing for the election of assistant assessors for the performance of duties relating to elections.

(e) Tax Collector

Section 170 At the municipal election in the year one thousand nine hundred and seventeen and at the municipal election every four years thereafter the qualified electors of each township of the second class shall elect one tax collector to serve for a term of four years from the first Monday of January next succeeding such election.

Section 171 Whenever a township of the second class is created by the division of a township of the first or second class under the provisions of chapter three article four of this act or whenever a township of the second class is created by re-establishment from a township of the first class as provided by chapter three article three of this act whenever a township of the second class is erected under the provisions of chapter three article one of this act and in the latter case the court so orders the qualified electors of such township shall at the next municipal election elect one tax collector for either of the following terms to-wit: If such election occurs in the year in which an election for tax collector is held under the provisions of section one hundred and seventy of this act then such tax collector shall be elected for a term of four years. If such election occurs in a year when no tax collector is elected under the provisions of said section one hundred and seventy then such tax collector shall be elected for a term of two years.

All tax collectors elected under this section shall hold their office for a term of two or four years as the case may be from the first Monday of January next following their election.

At the municipal election preceding the expiration of the term of any of the aforesaid tax collectors and at the municipal election every four years thereafter a tax collector shall be elected for a term of four years to hold office from the first Monday of January next succeeding such election.

(f) Vacancies in Office

Section 180 If the electors of any township of the second class shall fail to choose a township supervisor or if any person elected to such office shall neglect or refuse to serve therein or if a vacancy shall occur in the office by death, resignation or otherwise the court of quarter sessions shall upon the presentation of a petition signed by a supervisor and not less than ten voters who are owners of real estate in the township appoint a person to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term of the person whose place he is appointed to fill.

In all cases where a vacancy occurs in the board of township supervisors from any cause and within a reasonable time thereafter no petition for the appointment of a person to fill such vacancy has been presented to the court the two remaining supervisors may appoint a successor to fill the office for the unexpired term. When a vacancy is filled by the remaining supervisors they shall within fifteen days thereafter certify such appointment to the clerk of quarter sessions.

Section 181 When a vacancy occurs in the office of township auditor in any township of the second class by reason of death, resignation, removal from the township or otherwise the court of quarter sessions shall appoint a suitable person to fill such vacancy for the unexpired term of the person whose place he is appointed to fill.

Section 182 Vacancies in the office of assessor in townships of the second class shall be filled in the manner now provided by law.

Section 183 If the electors of any township of the second class shall fail to choose a tax collector or if any person elected to such office shall fail to qualify or if a vacancy shall occur in the office by death, resignation or otherwise the court of quarter sessions shall upon presentation of a petition of any citizen who is a resident of the township setting forth the facts appoint a person to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term of the person whose place he is appointed to fill.

In cases when the person elected to the office shall fail to qualify the court before making the appointment shall declare the office vacant.

Whenever a vacancy exists in the office of tax collector in any township of the second class and no person resident within the township is willing to accept the appointment to fill such vacancy the authorities authorized to levy and assess taxes in the township may petition the court of quarter sessions for the appointment of a tax collector whereupon the court may appoint any citizen of the county to collect such taxes.

CHAPTER VI Township Officers

ARTICLE I General Provisions

Section 190 Every person elected or appointed to any township office in any township of the first or second class shall before entering upon the duties of his office take and subscribe an oath or affirmation before some person having authority to administer oaths to support the

Taxation Finance Road Fund

In Townships of the First Class

Section 390 The board of township commissioners of townships of the first class shall each year within sixty days after the first Monday of January estimate the several amounts of money which will be required for the several specific purposes of township government and expenses during the current fiscal year and by ordinance appropriate out of the revenues available for the year the specific sums required. The tax levied by the township authorities shall be fixed at such figure within the limit fixed by law as with all other sources of revenue will meet and cover said appropriations. The total appropriation shall not exceed the revenues available for the fiscal year. The ordinance shall be open to the inspection of any taxpayer of said township or his her or its authorized representatives. If the funds available from taxation and other sources shall be estimated to be in excess of the requirements of the current fiscal year an appropriation may be made for the payment of township orders or indebtedness of the previous year.

Section 391 No work shall be hired to be done no materials purchased no contracts made and no orders issued for the payment of any moneys by the authorities of any township of the first class in any amount which will cause the sums appropriated to specific purposes to be exceeded. Nor shall any orders be issued against any appropriated fund at a time when there shall not be sufficient funds in the treasury credited to such fund to meet such orders. No change in the purpose of the appropriations shall be made unless by an ordinance which shall set out in detail the reasons for and character of such change. Such ordinance shall be open to the inspection of any taxpayer or his her or its authorized representative. Nothing in this section shall prevent any such township from borrowing money and thereby increasing its indebtedness to the extent and in the manner in which municipal districts are now authorized to incur or increase the same, for the purpose of permanent improvements in authorizing the issue of obligations or securities for such loans the township commissioners shall provide moneys subsequently derived from assessments upon parties benefited by such improvements shall be deposited in the sinking fund for the payment of the principal and interest of said obligations. If any work shall be done for or materials furnished to any township of the first class contrary to the provisions of this act the township commissioners are hereby prohibited from authorizing payment therefor as a moral obligation or otherwise.

Sections 392 No contracts hirings or purchases made or orders or warrants issued not provided for by an appropriation by the township commissioners as is required by law or which would cause any appropriation to be exceeded shall be valid.

Section 393 All contracts or purchases made by any township of the first class involving the expenditure of over five hundred dollars shall be in writing and shall be made with the lowest financially responsible bidder after notice by the secretary published once a week for three weeks in one or more newspapers of the county circulating in the township. This section shall not apply in the case of any township of the first class repairing its public highways except as to any purchases of materials or equipment for the purposes of such repairs.

In every instance in which any contract for any public work construction materials supplies or other matters or things for any township of the first class in this Commonwealth shall be awarded upon competitive bids it shall be the duty of the authorities authorizing the same to award said contract to the lowest financially responsible bidder and any published notice for bids shall contain full plans and specifications or refer to the places where copies thereof can be obtained and give the time and place of meeting of said authorities at which meeting bids shall be publicly opened and read if through lack of a quorum or other reason no meeting shall be held at such time and place notice of the same kind shall be repeated for the subsequent time and place fixed and the foregoing provisions as to bids shall apply the same course shall be pursued until a meeting shall actually be held for receiving and opening bids any contract made in violation of the provisions hereof shall be void.

Section 394 No orders or indebtedness of any previous years shall be paid out of the funds of any fiscal year except as provided in the first section of this article unless after the close of the fiscal year it shall be ascertained that the funds appropriated and available therefor are in excess of the amount required in which case such surplus may be applied to such former orders or indebtedness. Any township treasurer who shall pay the orders or indebtedness of any previous year except as herein provided shall be allowed no credit in the settlement of his accounts for any sum so paid out nor shall he have any claim or right of action against the township therefor.

Section 395 The board of township commissioners may borrow money and issue evidences of indebtedness therefor. The total amount of indebtedness so created shall not exceed two per centum of the county valuation of the property within the township without the assent of the electors of the township. The rate of interest on any such indebtedness shall not exceed five per centum. No indebtedness shall be incurred or expenditure authorized except by ordinance. To authorize the expenditure of more than one hundred dollars a special resolution of the board shall be necessary.

When any township of the first class shall borrow money and issue bonds or other securities therefor except in the case of the giving of notes for temporary loans as may be authorized by law the commissioners shall sell the same to the highest bidder after public notice by advertisement once a week for three weeks in at least one newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which such township shall be situated. No bid for such bonds or securities at less than their par value shall be accepted.

Section 396 All disbursements in discharge of township indebtedness duly incurred shall be made by the township treasurer by virtue of warrants or orders drawn on him by the order of the board of township commissioners attested by the president or vice president and secretary of the board. The board shall prescribe by ordinance the manner in which bills for township indebtedness shall be approved for payment.

Section 397 The board of township commissioners may levy taxes upon all property and upon all occupations within the township made taxable for township purposes as ascertained by the last adjusted valuation for county purposes for the purposes and at the rates hereinafter specified to-wit:

I An annual tax for township purposes not exceeding ten mills

II A tax for the purpose of building and maintaining a suitable place for the housing of fire apparatus

III An annual tax not exceeding one-tenth of one mill for the purpose of caring for trees planted under the supervision of the shade-tree commission and for the purpose of publishing notices of meetings to consider the planting removing changing of trees. In lieu of the tax provided for in this clause the township commissioners may by specific appropriation provide for the maintenance of such trees from the general funds of the township

IV An annual tax so long as necessary not exceeding fifty per centum of the rate of assessment for road purposes for the purpose of procuring a lot and erecting a building thereon for a town house and for the payment of indebtedness incurred in connection therewith.

This article does not include the levy of any taxes upon particular districts or parts of any township for particular purposes

Section 398 In addition to the levies provided for in the preceding section when it is shown to the court of quarter sessions that the debts due by any township exceed the amount which the township commissioners may collect in any year by taxation the court after ascertaining the amount of indebtedness of any such township may by a writ of mandamus direct the township commissioners by special taxation to collect an amount sufficient to pay the same. If the amount of such indebtedness is so large as to render it unadvisable to collect the same in any one year taking into consideration other necessary taxation the court may direct the same to be levied and collected by annual instalments and may order such special taxes to be levied and collected during such successive years as may be required for payment of the same.

Section 399 As soon as possible after the receipt of the duplicate from the county commissioners as provided in the act of May fifth one thousand nine hundred fifteen entitled "An Act requiring the county commissioners to furnish to townships of the first class duplicates of the adjusted valuation for taxation purposes within such townships" the Board of Township Commissioners shall deliver a duplicate of the assessment of township taxes to the township treasurer together with their warrant for the collection of the same.

Section 400 As soon as possible after the receipt of the duplicate the treasurer shall give public notice thereof by at least ten written or printed notices to be posted in public places in the township and by advertisement in a newspaper published in the township if any such there be that the duplicate has been issued and delivered to him. A discount of five per centum shall be allowed to any taxpayer who shall make payment in sixty days from the time of such notice.

Section 401 The township treasurer within thirty days after receiving the tax duplicate shall notify every taxable whose name appears on such duplicate. Such notice shall contain the rate of taxation the valuation of the property of such taxable the occupation of such taxable and the full amount of taxes for which said taxable is liable for the current year. Such notice shall further state that such taxes are payable designate a place and time when they shall be paid and also state the time within which an abatement will be allowed when the full amount of tax will be collected and when an additional percentage will be added as a penalty. Such notice shall be mailed to the last known post office address of each taxable.

Any township treasurer failing to comply with the provisions of this section shall forfeit all commissions on any taxes received and collected by him from any taxable not notified.

Before any allowance is made by the township auditors for commissions due to the township treasurer for taxes collected the treasurer shall make an affidavit setting forth that he has complied with the provisions of this section.

Section 402 All persons who fail to make payment of any tax charged against them in the duplicate within the period of six months from the date of publication of notice thereof by the township treasurer as provided in section four hundred and one shall be charged with a penalty of five per centum additional on the amount of tax which penalty shall be added to the tax by the treasurer and collected by him or his deputy.

Section 403 At the expiration of three months from the time of receiving the duplicate the treasurer shall proceed to collect all unpaid taxes from the taxpayers and to that end may appoint one or more deputy collectors. The treasurer and his deputies shall have and exercise all powers conferred by existing laws on collectors of county and township taxes.

Section 404 The township treasurer may retain out of the taxes collected such actual printing and postage expenses as shall be incurred in performing the duties prescribed in this article. Such amounts shall be adjusted by the township auditors at the time of auditing the treasurer's accounts.

Section 405 The township commissioners shall at all times make abatements or exonerations for mistakes indigent persons unseated lands et cetera as to them shall appear just and reasonable. The township secretary shall enter in a book or books to be kept for that purpose the names of all persons abated or exonerated together with the reason why the amount of the tax and date when made and give to the treasurer a certificate stating the nature of the tax and the amount exonerated.

Section 406 The accounts of collectors of taxes shall be settled by the township auditors. The treasurer shall state a separate account for each different tax collected by him.

IV An annual tax so long as necessary not exceeding fifty per centum of the rate of assessment for road purposes for the purpose of procuring a lot and erecting a building thereon for a town house and for the payment of indebtedness incurred in connection therewith.

The taxes authorized to be levied by this section shall be levied upon the last adjusted valuation for county purposes which valuation shall be furnished to the township supervisors by the county commissioners. If any further adjustment of valuation is made by the county commissioners after any tax is so levied and before said tax is payable such adjusted valuation shall be certified to the township supervisors and to the township collector of taxes by the commissioners and the tax shall be collected on the basis of such adjusted valuation.

This article does not include the levy of any taxes upon particular districts or parts of any township for particular purposes.

Section 422 In addition to the levies provided for in the preceding section when it is shown to the court of quarter sessions that the debts due by any township exceed the amount which the supervisors may collect in any year by taxation the court after ascertaining the amount of indebtedness of any such township may by a writ of mandamus direct the township supervisors by special taxation to collect an amount sufficient to pay the same. If the amount of such indebtedness is so large as to render it unadvisable to collect the same in any one year taking into consideration other necessary taxation the court may direct the same to be levied and collected by annual instalments.

any may order such special taxes to be levied and collected during such successive years as may be required for payment of the same.

Section 423 The township supervisors shall make or cause a duplicate to be made designating the amount of road tax levied against each taxpayer of the township and also duplicates for all other taxes levied and assessed under the provisions of this article and shall deliver the same to the township collector together with a warrant for the collection of the same which taxes shall be collected as follows namely To all taxpayers who pay their taxes to the collector before June first of each year an abatement of five per centum shall be made all road taxes paid to the collector between June first and October first of each year shall be paid in full and to all road taxes remaining unpaid on the first of October in each year the collector shall add five per centum as penalty for such delinquency and shall collect said penalty in addition to the tax levied said penalty to be his compensation for collecting said delinquent taxes.

Section 424 Where any duplicate of taxes assessed is issued and delivered to the collector of taxes he shall give public notice as soon thereafter as conveniently can be done by at least ten written or printed notices to be posted in as many public places in different parts of the township Such notice shall state that the duplicate has been issued and delivered to him.

Section 425 Each tax collector of the several townships of this Commonwealth within thirty days after receiving the tax duplicate shall notify every taxable whose name shall appear on such duplicate Such notice shall contain the rate of taxation the valuation of the property of such taxable the occupation of such taxable and the full amount of taxes for which said taxable shall be liable for the current year Such notice shall further state that such taxes are payable shall designate a place and time when they shall be paid and shall further state the time within which an abatement of tax will be allowed when full amount of tax will be collected and when an additional percentage will be added as a penalty Such notice shall be mailed to the last known post office address of each of said taxables.

Before any allowance is made by the boards of supervisors for commissions due the collector of taxes he shall make an affidavit setting forth that he has complied with the provisions of this section.

Section 426 The collector of taxes shall collect the taxes charged in said duplicates and pay over the same to the treasurer or authorities entitled thereto after deducting his commission for the collection thereof All taxes collected before the first day of June shall be paid over within fifteen days thereafter by the collector All taxes thereafter collected during his term of office shall be paid over at regular intervals of one month A complete settlement of all taxes collected shall be made by the collector of taxes with the treasurer not later than three months after the expiration of his term of office.

Section 427 The compensation of the tax collector shall be two per centum on all general road taxes collected prior to the first day of June of each year and five per centum on all such taxes collected between the first day of June and the first day of October For the collection of road taxes collected after the first day of October the collector shall receive the penalty added to such taxes as provided in section four hundred and twenty-three of this act For the collection of special road taxes and all township taxes other than general road taxes his compensation shall be five per centum of the amount collected.

Section 428 The tax collector shall keep correct accounts of all moneys collected marking "paid" on his duplicate each taxable with the amount of tax and the date on which paid The collector shall on the first day of each month make a true statement in writing to the secretary of the board of supervisors of all taxes collected during the previous month giving names of taxables and amount collected from each and the total amount received The collector shall pay over on the first day of each month to the treasurer all moneys collected during the previous month and take his receipt for same Any tax collector who neglects or refuses to comply with the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars or to be imprisoned for a term not exceeding one year or both.

Section 429 The tax collector may retain out of the taxes collected by them such actual printing and postage expenses as shall be incurred by him in performing his duties Such amount shall be adjusted by the boards of supervisors.

Section 430 The supervisors shall at all times make abatements or exonerations for mistakes indigent persons unseated lands et cetera as to them shall appear just and reasonable The township secretary shall enter in a book or books to be kept for that purpose the names of all persons abated or exonerated together with the reason why the amount of the tax and date when made and give to the collector a certificate directed to the treasurer stating the nature of the tax and the amount exonerated in order to make settlement accordingly.

Section 431 The accounts of the collector of taxes shall be settled by the township auditors The tax collector shall state a separate account for each different tax collected by him.

Section 432 Each township of the second class shall receive annually from the State fifty per centum of the total amount of road tax collected by such township as shown by the sworn statement of the board of township supervisors contained in the annual report furnished to the State Highway Commissioner on or before the first day of January in each year No township shall receive in any one year more than twenty dollars for each mile of township road in said township Such distribution shall be made on a basis of an average amount to each mile of township road.

Section 433 Upon receipt of the sworn statement from the board of township supervisors the State Highway Commissioner shall certify to the Auditor General the amount due the respective townships The Auditor General shall draw a warrant upon the State Treasurer for the payment of the amount due such township payable to the treasurer of the board of township supervisors which shall be paid out of the money appropriated for that purpose No such payment shall be made until the township treasurer has filed with the State Highway Commissioner a certified copy of his bond nor until the agreement for the expenditure of such State money together with the township's money has been made and approved as hereinafter provided for.

Section 434 Whenever the township highway funds together with funds appropriated by the General Assembly for State aid to township roads have been exhausted the board of supervisors may issue a certificate of indebtedness and borrow on the credit of the township money in anticipation of taxes to be collected to the end that work may be performed in proper season and in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed.

Section 435 Upon the neglect or refusal of the supervisors of any township to carry out the instructions rules and regulations of the State Highway Commissioner then the State Highway Commissioner may withhold from such township the amount to which it would otherwise be entitled for the year in which said neglect or refusal occurred.

Section 436 The State Highway Department shall furnish blanks to the supervisors in which said supervisors or a majority of them shall make a sworn statement that the money has been expended in building repairing maintaining dragging and improving the township roads according to the instructions standards and specifications or the rules and regulations prescribed by the State Highway Department so far as the available funds and local conditions make it possible.

Such petition shall be accompanied by a certificate of the board of health or health authorities of the township setting forth that they have declared such alley lane or passageway a public nuisance.

Section 776 The court shall thereupon appoint a jury of view of three men from the county board of viewers. The jury being sworn or affirmed to faithfully perform its duties shall give notice to all parties likely to be affected by the proceedings of the time and place of the first meeting in such manner as the court shall direct.

Section 777 After the first meeting the jury shall proceed to view the premises hear all parties interested and their witnesses and shall prepare a report of findings and recommendations as to whether or not such alley lane or passageway or part thereof should be vacated and in such report shall award damages and assess benefits to the property affected.

Section 778 The jury shall give notice in writing to all parties affected by their report at least ten days before the same is filed in court. The notice shall state the time and place where such report will be open to inspection.

Section 779 Any person aggrieved by such report may file exceptions thereto with the jury whereupon the jury shall reconsider their report with the exceptions and change the same as justice may require. The report as finally prepared shall be filed in court.

Section 780 Any person affected by the report shall have an appeal to the court of common pleas within thirty days after the report is filed and the procedure on such appeal shall be the same as in actions of trespass.

Section 781 At the end of the period allowed for an appeal the report shall be absolutely confirmed by the court as to such awards or assessments from which no appeals have been taken. The costs damages and expenses of such vacation over and above all benefits shall be paid by the township.

Section 782 No alley lane or passageway shall be vacated in any case where the vacating deprives any lot abutting thereon of the sole means of ingress or egress otherwise than to or from the front line thereof nor where it was created by grant or contract and not theretofore accepted by the public.

(1) Grades of Highways

Section 810 In the construction or repair of any highway in any township of the first or second class it shall be unlawful to raise such highway above the ordinary grade thereof when a drain or culvert shall be constructed under such highway or when such highway shall be constructed or repaired over such drain or culvert. That this section shall not be construed in any manner to interfere with the work of the State Highway Department in the reconstruction or improvement of any State highway or State-aid highway or when a township improves a township road under the direction plans and specifications of the State Highway Department.

(m) Assessment of Property Outside Limits of Township for Street Improvements

Section 820 Whenever any street or alley entirely within the limits of any township of the first or second class shall divide such township from any other municipality or township located in the same county the property on the side of the street or alley opposite the line of such township of the first or second class shall for a depth of one hundred and fifty feet be assessed for municipal improvements on such streets or alleys on which property shall abut. Such assessment shall be made in the same manner and in the same proceeding as is used for the assessment of property within such township of the first or second class for such improvement.

(n) Cutting Trees or Shrubbery Within Limits of Highway

Section 830 Where any highway in any township of the first or second class passes through or along forested lands wild lands or uncultivated lands no trees growing within the limits of such highway at a distance beyond fifteen feet on either side of the centerline thereof and which measure four inches or over in diameter at a point two feet from the surface of the ground shall be cut down or destroyed by the commissioners supervisors or road-masters employed by them or any other person without first obtaining the consent of the abutting owners.

Whenever any highway running through improved or cultivated lands has been opened and there are growing along the roadsides and within the road limits shrubs or trees not interfering with public travel no commissioners supervisors or road-masters or other persons in their employ shall remove cut injure or destroy or in any other manner interfere with such shrubs or trees. If such removal or cutting is absolutely necessary for the purpose of maintaining the highway at its highest efficiency the commissioners supervisors or road-masters or other persons in their employ may so cut or remove such shrubs or trees after notifying the abutting property owners and entering into an agreement with them relating to the removal cutting or interference with said shrubs or trees.

Section 831 In either of the cases set forth in the preceding section if the consent or agreement of the abutting property owners cannot be obtained the board of commissioners or supervisors may appeal to a judge of the court of common pleas. The judge shall inquire into the facts of the case and after hearing all parties in interest shall make such order as seems just having due regard for the demand for road improvement as well as for the preservation of the trees. From such order there shall be no appeal.

Section 832 All logs cordwood branch wood or other forms of wood which shall be derived from the destruction or removal of any trees growing along the highways shall be surrendered to and remain the property of the abutting owners.

Section 833 The commissioners or supervisors may clear out brush and other refuse from along the sides of the road to the legal width thereof. All such clearing and removal of brush and refuse shall be confined to growth that is within the limits hereinabove described and to the removal of branches that in any way interfere with public travel. No other injury by fire cutting abrasion or otherwise shall be done to the standing timber.

Section 834 If any commissioner supervisor road-master or person in their employ or any other person shall cut down kill or injure any living tree growing as aforesaid and of a size four inches in diameter or greater at a point two feet from the surface of the ground or shall violate any other provision of sections eight hundred and thirty to eight hundred and thirty-three of this act he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a penalty of not more than five dollars for every tree so cut injured or destroyed with costs of suit. Such penalty shall be recovered in an action brought before any justice of the peace of the county wherein the offence was committed. If any defendant upon conviction for any offence fails or refuses to pay the fine and costs imposed or does not give bond with approved surety to pay the same within ten days he shall be committed to the county jail for not more than thirty days or until he has paid the fine and costs in full.

Section 835 Nothing in sections eight hundred and thirty to eight hundred and thirty-four of this act shall be so construed as to prevent the commissioners supervisors or road-masters or other persons in their employ from removing such roadside trees which may be thrown down by the wind or lodged in such position as to be a menace to public travel or which by reason of any other cause become a source of danger to the public. Every such act of removal shall be made with due regard to the circumstances of the case so as to preserve the true intent and purpose of this act.

(o) Penal Provisions

Section 845 If any person working upon any road or highway in any township of the first or second class or if any one in company with such person shall ask money or reward or by any means whatever shall extort or endeavor to extort any money drink or other thing from any person traveling upon or near such road or highway the person so offending shall for every such offence forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding five dollars.

If any township commissioner or township supervisor shall connive at any person so asking demanding or contriving to extort money drink or any other thing from any person traveling as aforesaid such commissioner or supervisor shall for every such offence forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding ten dollars.

Section 846 If any person shall stop or obstruct any public road or highway in any township of the first or second class or shall commit any nuisance thereon by felling trees making fences turning the road or in any other way and shall not on notice given by the township commissioners or township supervisors forthwith remove the obstruction or nuisance and repair the damages done to such road such person shall for every such offence forfeit and pay a sum not less than ten dollars nor more than forty dollars. Nothing in this section shall debar an indictment for any such nuisance as in case of misdemeanor at common law.

The ordinance shall provide for written notice to be given to the property owners to construct such sidewalk in front of their respective properties.

Section 971 If such owners fail to so pave and curb such sidewalk within sixty days from notice of the ordinance the board of township commissioners may cause the same to be done and collect the cost thereof from the abutting property owners in proportion to their frontage. If such cost is not paid the commissioners may file municipal liens therefor against the abutting properties in the court of common pleas and include therein a penalty of twenty per centum on the amount of the cost of the work.

(d) Laying Out Grading Curbing and Paving Sidewalks Within Towns or Villages

Section 980 The boards of township commissioners may survey lay out and ordain foot-walks pavements boardwalks culverts and drains over and upon the land abutting on turnpike roads where the same pass through any town or village and to fix the size and width thereof. Damages for any taking or injury of any property and benefits to any property caused by any action under this section shall be assessed and paid for as provided in sections five hundred to five hundred and eight of this act relating to the widening of roads and streets by township commissioners.

The commissioners may require the grading paving and curbing of such foot-walks pavements boardwalks culverts and drains by the owners of the land fronting thereon in accordance with general regulations to be prescribed by ordinance.

Section 981 The board of township commissioners in townships of the first class may require and direct the grading curbing and paving of the sidewalks and footwalks along the highways within any town or village by the owners of the lots fronting thereon in accordance with general regulations prescribed by ordinance.

Section 982 On failure of any owner of land to do any work required under the two preceding sections of this act within the time prescribed by the township ordinance the township commissioners may cause the same to be done and collect from the owners the cost of the work and material together with a penalty of ten per centum thereon to cover the expense of collection by filing a municipal claim therefor against the abutting property.

(e) Sidewalks Along Turnpike Roads Within Towns or Villages

Section 990 Whenever a turnpike road managed and controlled by a private corporation runs through any town or village in any township of the first class the board of township commissioners having first obtained the written consent of the turnpike company or other corporation having control of such road may ordain and establish sidewalks along either one or both sides of the turnpike road within the lines of same. The township commissioners may charge the cost of construction of such sidewalk to the owner of the abutting properties according to frontage.

Section 991 The ordinances establishing any such sidewalk shall specify the width thereof and shall require such grading and filling as is necessary. It shall also specify the kind and character of the pavement or provide for the construction of a board walk in any case instead of a paved sidewalk. The manner of laying the pavement may be specified in the ordinance or provided for by general ordinance or by the regulation of a committee of the board.

Section 992 The ordinance shall provide for written notice to be given to the property owners to grade and construct such sidewalk in front of their respective properties within a certain period not less than thirty days from the date of service of such notice. Service of such notice shall be made by handing the same to the property owner or by leaving it at his place of residence if he has one in the county or if he does not reside in the county by mailing the notice to his address if his address can be obtained. In all cases a copy of such notice shall be served upon the occupant of the premises.

Section 993 Should any property owner fail to comply with the requirements of the ordinance within the time specified in the notice the board of township commissioners may cause the sidewalk in front of his property to be constructed in accordance with the requirement of the ordinance and collect the cost thereof including the costs of grading and any other incidental matters together with the penalty of ten per centum by action of assumpsit or by filing a municipal lien against said property.

Section 994 If at the time of the passage of the ordinance a sidewalk paved with brick stone or concrete has already been constructed by a property owner in front of his property the township commissioners may accept such walk as a compliance with the ordinance although not constructed according to the specifications thereof. If such sidewalk is not accepted the township shall bear the expense of reconstructing it.

(f) Establishing Grading and Curbing Sidewalks Along the Sides of any Principal Street or Highway Leading to or Connecting Cities Boroughs Villages or Places of Public Resort

Section 1005 The board of township commissioners of any township of the first class may ordain and establish sidewalks within the lines of any principal street or highway in the township along either one or both sides thereof of leading directly to or connecting cities boroughs villages or places of public resort for such distance as the board of township commissioners may deem proper and may provide for the grading and curbing of the same. In case the street or highway is a turnpike or other road managed and controlled by a corporation incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth by a corporation incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth the written consent of the corporation shall first be obtained.

Section 1006 Such sidewalk shall in no case be less than five feet in width nor leave a roadway of less than twenty feet in the clear.

Section 1007 The ordinance establishing any such sidewalk shall specify the width thereof and shall require such grading and filling as is necessary. It shall also specify the kind and character of the pavement or provide for the construction of a boardwalk instead of a paved sidewalk. The manner of laying the pavement may be specified in the ordinance or provided for by general ordinance or by the regulation of a committee of the board.

Section 1008 The ordinance shall provide for written notice to be given to the property owners to grade and construct such sidewalk in front of their respective properties within a certain period not less than three (3) months from date of the service of such notice. Service of such notice shall be made by handing the same to the property owner or by leaving it at his place of residence if he has one in the county or if he does not reside in the county by mailing the notice to his address. If his address can be obtained in all cases a copy of such notice shall be served upon the occupant of the premises.

Section 1009 When such notice is given on or after the first day of September in any year the property owners affected shall not be in default for failure to construct the sidewalk until the first day of June of the following year.

Section 1010 Should any property owner fail to comply with the requirements of the ordinance within the time specified the board of township commissioners may cause the sidewalk in front of his property to be constructed in accordance with the requirements of the ordinance and collect the proportion of the expense thereof which under the ordinance is chargeable upon the property owner including the costs of grading and any other incidental matters together with the penalty of ten per centum by action of assumpsit or by filing a municipal lien against said property.

Section 1011 The board of township commissioners may charge to the owners of the properties abutting on such sidewalk according to frontage such part of the expense of the construction thereof including grading and curbing as they deem reasonable. Such part of the expense shall in no case exceed fifty per centum of the total cost of the construction of the sidewalk. The remainder of the expense of the construction of the sidewalk shall be paid out of the township funds.

Section 1012 When any sidewalk has been constructed by an abutting property owner in front of his property as required by the ordinance the township commissioners upon the presentation to them of a receipted bill for the cost of constructing such sidewalk shall forthwith pay to the property owner the part of the expenses of the construction of the sidewalk which by the terms of the ordinance is to be defrayed from the township funds. If such part of the expense of the construction of the sidewalk which is to be defrayed from the township funds is not paid forthwith to the property owner by the board of township commissioners the property owner may collect the same in a suit or suits against the township as debts of like amount are now by law collected.

Section 1013 If at the time of the passage of the ordinance a sidewalk paved with brick stone or concrete has already been constructed by a property owner in front of his property the township commissioners may accept such walk as a compliance with the ordinance although not constructed according to the specifications thereof. If such sidewalk is not accepted the township shall bear the expense of reconstructing it.

(g) Repair of Sidewalks

Section 1025 In townships of the first class where sidewalks have been established by township ordinance the owner of the abutting property shall keep the sidewalk immediately in front of his property in good order and repair and at all times free and clear of all obstruction to safe and convenient passage.

Section 1026 If the owner of any property neglects to perform the duty required of him in the preceding section the township commissioners may serve written notice upon him requiring him to do what is necessary. If such property owner fails to comply with the requirements of such notice within thirty days from the date of its service the township commissioners may make the necessary repairs or remove any obstruction. The cost of the same together with a penalty of ten per centum shall be paid by the delinquent property owner and may be collected by action in the name of the township as debts of like amount are collected or the township commissioners may file a municipal lien against the property.

Section 1027 The notice provided for in the preceding section may be served on the property owner by leaving the same at his place of residence or if he has no residence in the township then by leaving the same with the tenant or occupant of the premises and mailing a copy thereof to the owner at his last known address.

CHAPTER XIII

Sidewalks

In Townships of the Second Class

Section 1040 The supervisors of any township of the second class upon the request of any land owner whose land front upon a public highway within such township may establish the width and location for a sidewalk along each side of said highway along the lands of such owner. The width of the walk on each side of said highway shall not be less than six feet for roads fifty feet in width or less and for roads over fifty feet in width shall be ten feet in width. When said sidewalks are so established such land owner shall pay for and keep the same in repair.

Section 1041 The township supervisors of townships of the second class may construct sidewalks of board plank or cement or other suitable material along the highways through towns and villages in such townships upon the petition of abutting property owners. The expense of the construction of such sidewalk shall be paid by the township and the abutting property owners in proportion agreed upon between the supervisors and the property owner before the construction of such sidewalk. Not more than ten per centum of the road taxes raised in the township for the current year shall be used for such purposes.

Section 1042 Supervisors of townships of the second class may regulate by ordinance the grade and width of sidewalks constructed along the highways in such townships and shall have general supervision over the same.

CHAPTER XIV

Sewers and Drains

ARTICLE I

In Townships of the First Class

(a) Establishing and Constructing Sewer and Drainage Systems Sewer Connections and Rates Disposal of Sewage Assessment of Cost of Construction

Section 1070 Townships of the first class may establish and construct a system of sewers and drainage locating the same as far as practicable along and within the lines of the public roads of the township as seem advisable to the commissioners. The township commissioners may permit and where necessary for the public health require adjoining and adjacent property owners to connect with and use the same. All persons so connecting shall pay in addition to the cost of making such connection a monthly or annual rate prescribed by ordinance. Such monthly or annual rate shall constitute a lien until paid against the property so connecting with such system and the amount thereof may be recovered by due process of law.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to repeal or modify any of the provisions of the Public Service Company law.

Section 1071 Where it is reasonably impracticable in the judgement of the commissioners in any part of such system to carry such sewers or drains along the lines of public roads the commissioners may locate and construct so much of the same as is necessary through private lands.

Section 1072 The commissioners shall make the necessary provision for the disposition of the sewage and drainage within or for carrying the same beyond the limits of the township and to this end they are hereby authorized to enter into contracts with other municipalities and other corporations or persons and to purchase acquire enter upon take appropriate occupy and use such lands rights and interests therein within the corporate limits of other townships or boroughs as shall be necessary for the proper location construction maintenance use and operation of sewer main drains or disposal plants including such lands rights and interests therein as shall be necessary for future additions to and enlargements of such sewage facilities and as may be necessary to carry out the plans and specifications upon which a permit has been issued by the Commissioner of Health in accordance with the provisions of the act of April twenty-second one thousand nine hundred and five entitled "An Act to preserve the purity of the waters of the State for the protection of the public health."

Section 1073 In the event of inability to agree with the owners either for the land necessary for so much of the line of sewers and drains as are not located upon public roads or for so much land as is required for the disposition of the sewage the commissioners may enter upon said land and mark thereon the route and width necessary for the construction of the line of sewers or drains or the boundaries of so much land as is necessary for disposition of such sewage and occupy the said land for such purposes. For all damage done or suffered or which accrues to the owner or owners of such land by reason of the taking of the same the funds of the township raised by taxation shall be pledged and deemed as security.

Section 1074 The court of common pleas on application thereto by petition either by the township commissioners or by the owner of the land may appoint a jury of view-ers from the county board of viewers who shall not be the owners of property or residents in the township and appoint a time not less than twenty nor more than thirty days thereafter when the viewers shall meet upon the land. Ten days' notice of such time and place shall be given to the petitioners and to the other party by the viewers.

Section 1075 The viewers having been sworn or affirmed faithfully justly and impartially to decide and a true report to make concerning all matters and things to be submitted to them and in relation to which they are authorized to inquire and having viewed the premises shall estimate and determine what amount of damages if any has been or may be sustained by reason of such occupation taking and use and to whom the same is payable and shall make report thereof to court.

Section 1076 When the report is filed in court the same shall be confirmed nisi. Thirty days after the filing of the report if no exceptions thereto have been filed nor an appeal to the court for a jury trial is taken the report shall be confirmed absolutely.

Within thirty days after the filing of the report either party may file exceptions thereto or appeal to the court and demand a trial by jury.

From such final confirmation of the report or from any judgment on a verdict of a jury either party may within six months appeal to the Superior or Supreme Court.

Section 1077 The damages as awarded when the report is finally confirmed shall be entered as a judgment and if the same is not paid within thirty days after the entry thereof execution to enforce the collection thereof may be issued as in other cases of judgment against townships.

Section 1078 The board of township commissioners of townships of the first class shall charge the cost of construction of any system of sewers or drains constructed by the authority of section ten hundred and seventy of this act upon the properties accommodated or benefited thereby. The ordinance providing for such charge shall be adopted by the board within six months from the date of the final completion of such system of sewers and drains.

Section 1079 Whenever a sewer system is constructed by a township of the first class for the accommodation of a certain portion only of the township the commissioners of such township may constitute the territory accommodated into a sewer district or divide it into several sewer districts. In every such case the commissioners shall make an estimate of the proportion of the cost of the sewer system which should equitably be charged on each of said districts and declare and establish such apportionment by ordinance. No district shall be charged with more than its due proportion of the cost of the main sewers pumping-stations et cetera used jointly by more than one district. The aggregate amount charged on property in any such district shall not exceed the amount of such estimate.

Section 1080 Any amount not properly chargeable upon properties benefited shall be chargeable either upon all property within the sewer district on a pro rata of the assessed valuation thereof or else shall be paid out of the general township funds raised by taxation as the commissioners may decide.

Section 1081 The charge for any such sewer construction in any township of the first class may be assessed upon the properties accommodated or benefited in either of the following methods as the board of township commissioners may determine.

(a) By an assessment of each lot or piece of land in proportion to its frontage abutting on the sewer allowing such reduction in the case of properties abutting on more than one sewer as the ordinance may specify. No assessment by frontage shall be made on property of such a character as not to be lawfully subject to such manner of assessment. The ordinance providing for assessment by this method shall specify the manner in which the charge on each lot shall be calculated and ascertained.

(b) By an assessment in proportion to benefits whether the property charged abuts on the sewer or not. The amount of the charge on each property to be ascertained as provided in sections ten hundred and eighty-two and ten hundred and eighty-three of this act.

(c) By an assessment of a special sewer tax on all properties located within the sewer district which shall be levied on the assessed valuations thereof as established for general taxation. Such tax may be levied for a single year or for a term of years as the commissioners may determine and shall be collected as other taxes.

When a township is divided into sewer districts the assessment in each district may be by different methods.

Section 1082 In all cases where an assessment according to benefits is adopted the court of common pleas of the proper county shall appoint three disinterested from the board of county viewers as viewers neither of whom shall be a resident of that portion of the township which is accommodated by the sewers in question. The viewers or a majority of them having been sworn or affirmed to perform their duties with fidelity and impartiality shall assess upon each piece of land located within the sewer district which in their opinion is benefited by the construction of the sewer system whether abutting on a sewer or not such amount as in their judgment represents the benefit accruing to such lot. The aggregate of the assessments in any sewer district shall not exceed the amount charged to such district for its share of the cost of the sewer construction.

Section 1083 The viewers or a majority of them shall make report in writing specifying the amount assessed by them on each lot or parcel of land and shall file the same with the township secretary within the time directed by the ordinance appointing them. After the report is filed the viewers shall cause public notice thereof to be given by publication for two weeks in two newspapers published in the township or if there are not two newspapers so published then in such other manner as they deem proper. Such advertisement shall state a time not less than fifteen days after the filing of the report and a place where the viewers will meet and exhibit their report and hear all exceptions and objections thereto on behalf of any property owners or by representatives of the township. After the hearing of such objections the viewers shall make whatever changes they deem proper in their report.

When such revision is made and the report is made complete and absolute it shall be presented to a stated meeting of the board of commissioners who shall by ordinance confirm the same or may in their discretion refer the same back to the viewers for further correction or may set the same entirely aside and appoint new viewers.

Section 1084 As soon as the amounts of the assessments charged upon the several properties are finally established either by ordinance making assessments according to frontage or by a report of viewers making assessments according to benefits the commissioners shall deliver a schedule of such assessments specifying in each instance the name of the owner the size and location of the property and the amount of the assessment to the township treasurer. Such charges shall be payable to the treasurer for the use of the township. The commissioners shall also make out bills for the amounts charged against each property which shall be payable to the township treasurer. The bills shall be forthwith sent to all property owners residing in the township and mailed to those residing elsewhere whose address is known. Notice shall also be given by publication in such manner as the commissioners may direct.

Section 1085 At the expiration of thirty days from the date of delivery of such schedule to the township treasurer he shall certify to the township commissioners all amounts then remaining unpaid. The commissioners may file in the court of common pleas a municipal lien against each property for the amount with which it stands charged. Notice to this effect shall be printed on all bills sent out to the property owners.

(b) Contracts With Individuals or Corporations for Construction and Maintenance of Sewer and Drainage System

Section 1095 In any case where under the authority of section ten hundred and seventy of this act a system of sewage and drainage covering any township of the first class in whole or in part shall have been approved and authorized by ordinance the commissioners may enter into a contract with any responsible individual or individuals or corporation for the construction of such system of sewage or drainage at the expense of such individual or individuals or corporation. He they or it shall be entitled under such contract to exercise all the powers of the township in the construction maintenance and operation of such system of sewage or drainage with the right to collect such charges in connection therewith as the commissioners prescribe in as full manner as the same might have been collected by the township or the commissioners. In such contract the commissioners shall reserve to the township the right at any time or after a prescribed time to itself take possession of such system of sewage and drainage and its appurtenances at a price and upon terms to be fixed in the contract.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to repeal or modify any of the provisions of the Public Service Company Law.

(c) Sewers and Drains in Streets or Alleys or Over Private Property Assessment of Cost of Construction According to Benefits

Section 1105 Townships of the first class may construct sewers and drains in any street or alley or through or on or over private property. The costs damages and expenses of the construction of any such sewer or drain shall be assessed and collected in the manner provided in sections five hundred and fifty-three to five hundred and sixty-four both inclusive of this act.

(d) Sewers Under State and County Highways

Section 1115 Townships of the first class may construct sewers and drains in and under any county or State highway within the township boundaries. In case of the construction of sewers upon county highways the consent of the county commissioners of the county shall first be obtained and in case of the construction of sewers upon any State highway the consent of the State Highway Commissioner shall first be obtained.

Section 1116 Whenever sewers have been or shall be laid or constructed by any first class township in and under such highways such township may ascertain levy and collect the costs and expenses of the construction thereof from the abutting property holders in the manner provided in sections five hundred and fifty-three to five hundred and sixty-four of this act.

(e) Connecting With Sewer or Adjoining Municipality

Section 1125 Any township of the first class may connect with an existing sewer owned by any adjacent municipality for sewage purposes in the manner prescribed in the following sections of this article.

Section 1126 Whenever any township of the first class shall desire to connect with the existing sewer of any adjacent municipality an application shall be made by the board of commissioners to the court of quarter sessions setting forth that fact.

Section 1127 If the court shall be of the opinion that such connection can be made without impairing the usefulness of the existing sewer it shall appoint three viewers who shall view the premises and investigate the facts of the case and shall assess the proportionate part of the expense of building the original sewer upon such township of the first class and shall fix the proportion of the expense for repairs which the municipality and the township of the first class shall thereafter bear and determine all other questions liable to arise in connection therewith.

Section 1128 The viewers shall report to the court the result of their investigation which report shall be confirmed within thirty days unless exceptions thereto are filed. After confirmation of such report or the disposal of any exceptions any party interested may appeal from the decision of the court of quarter session to the Superior Court.

CHAPTER XIV

Sewers and Drains

Joint Sewers

Section 1140 Townships of the first or second class may enter into agreements with municipalities or other townships for the purpose of building sewers including trunk-line sewers or drains and sewage-disposal plants. Such agreement shall provide for the joint maintenance of the same.

Section 1141 No such sewer or plant shall be constructed until plans and specifications have been submitted to the State Department of Health and approved in accordance with provisions of the act of April twenty-second one thousand nine hundred and five page two hundred and sixty entitled "An Act to preserve the purity of the waters of the State for the protection of the public health."

CHAPTER XV

Contracts with Railroads and Railways

ARTICLE I

Section 1160 The commissioners or supervisors of any township of the first or second class may enter into contracts with any railroad company whose road enters the township authorizing such railroad company to re-locate change or elevate its road within the limits of the township as in the judgment of the commissioners or supervisors is best adapted to secure the safety of lives and property and promote the interest of the township.

Section 1162 To secure the removal of any street railway tracks or to prevent the laying of any tracks authorized to be laid or to change the route of any street railway on any street a township of the first or second class may enter into a contract with a street railway or motor power company owning leasing or operating such tracks for a period not exceeding fifty years for such considerations and upon such conditions as may be agreed upon.

Section 1163 Such contract may include a covenant providing that during the continuance thereof the consent of the township shall not be granted to any other company to use for street railway or passenger transportation purposes any streets covered by such contract. Such covenant may be enforced by bill in equity against the township.

Section 1164 The contract may also provide for the laying or relaying of tracks upon such terms and upon such conditions as may be agreed upon.

Section 1165 No provision of this chapter shall be construed to repeal or modify any of the provisions of the Public Service Company law.

CHAPTER XVI

Water Supply and Water Works

ARTICLE I

In Townships of the First Class

Section 1180 Townships of the first class may contract with any adjoining municipality owning a waterworks system for a supply of water for public and private uses to be delivered into the lines of the township at or near the boundary thereof.

This section does not authorize a contract between a township of the first class and a municipality for the supply of water in territory being supplied by a private company.

Section 1181 A township making such contract may by ordinance provide and regulate and protect a system of distribution of the water after a certified copy of the plans and surveys for such system with a description of the sources from which it is proposed to derive the supply are filed in the Department of Health and a written permit for the construction of such system obtained from the Commissioner of Health in accordance with the provisions of the act of April twenty-second one thousand nine hundred and five (Pamphlet Laws two hundred and sixty) entitled "An Act to preserve the purity of the waters of the State for the protection of the public health."

Section 1182 In providing for regulating and protecting and extending its system of distribution of water the township may occupy public highways and may take injury or destroy private property. No highway under the jurisdiction of the State Highway Department shall be occupied until a permit therefor has been obtained from the State Highway Department. Property belonging to or used as a cemetery or a place of public worship or any public or parochial school or other educational or charitable institution or seminary shall not be taken injured or destroyed by virtue of this act.

Section 1183 If the compensation and damages arising from such taking injury or destruction of private property cannot be agreed upon the township may tender its bond as security to the party claiming or entitled to any damages or to the attorney or agent of any absent person or to the agent or other officer of a corporation or to the guardian or committee of any person under legal incapacity. The condition of the bond shall be that the township shall pay or cause to be paid such amount of damages as the party shall be entitled to receive after the same shall have been agreed upon or assessed in the manner provided in the following sections of this article.

In case the party or parties claiming damages refuse or do not accept the security so tendered the township shall give the party his or their agent attorney guardian or committee at least ten days' written notice of the time when the same will be presented to the court of common pleas for approval.

Thereafter the township may present its bond to the court and when approved the bond shall be filed in court for the benefit of those interested. Recovery may be had thereon for the amount of damages finally determined if the same is not paid or cannot be collected by execution on the judgment in the issue formed to try the question. Upon the approval of such security the township may enter into possession.

Section 1184 In case the compensation for damages accruing from such taking injury or destruction has not been agreed upon by the parties in interest the court of common pleas or any law judge thereof in vacation on application thereto by the township or any person interested in the property shall appoint three members of the board of viewers of the county as a board of view and appoint a time not less than ten nor more than twenty days thereafter when the board of view shall meet upon the property and view the same and the premises affected thereby.

Section 1185 The board of view may be appointed before or at any time after the entry taking or appropriation of any property to be used for the purpose set forth in section eleven hundred and eighty-two of this act. They shall have power to administer oaths and adjourn their hearings from day to day as they find necessary.

Section 1186 The board of view shall give at least five days' notice of the time of their first meeting by personal service upon the owners agents attorneys or representatives thereof if they reside within the county otherwise by handbills posted upon the premises or by such other notice as the court shall direct.

The board of view having been duly sworn or affirmed faithfully justly and impartially to decide and true report to make concerning all matters and things submitted to them and in relation to which they are authorized to inquire and having viewed the premises or examined the property shall hear all parties interested and their witnesses and having due regard to the advantages and disadvantages shall estimate and determine the damages for the property taken used or appropriated and to whom the same are payable.

They shall give at least ten days' notice thereof in the manner herein provided to all parties interested of the time and place when the board of view will meet and exhibit their report and hear any exceptions thereto. After making whatever changes are necessary and properly the board of view shall make report to the court showing the damages if any are allowed and shall file therewith a plan showing the properties taken injured or destroyed and the names of the persons to whom such damages are payable.

Section 1187 When the report of the board of view or any two of them is filed in court any party may within thirty days thereafter file exceptions thereto. The court may confirm the report or modify change or otherwise correct it or refer it back to the same or new viewers with like power as to their report. Or within thirty days from the filing of any report in court any party whose property is so taken used or appropriated may appeal to the court of common pleas and demand a trial by jury. Any party interested therein may within six months after final decree have an appeal to the Superior or the Supreme Court.

Section 1188 If no exceptions are filed or no demand made for trial by jury within thirty days after the filing of such report the same shall become absolute. The court may order what notices shall be given in connection with any part of said proceedings and may make all such orders as it deems requisite.

Section 1189 The costs of the board of view and all court costs incurred in the proceedings including advertising and printing and posting notices shall be defrayed by the township.

Section 1190 All damages when determined shall be assessed against and paid by the township so taking injuring or destroying the property.

CHAPTER XVI

Water Supply and Water Works

Construction Acquisition and Maintenance of Water Works in Connection with Boroughs

Section 1205 Any township of the first or second class may unite with a borough in the construction or acquisition and maintenance of works for the supply of water.

Section 1206 The construction of water works as provided for in the preceding section shall be after plans for such water works have been filed with the State Commissioner of Health and a permit issued in accordance with the Act of Assembly of April twenty-second one thousand nine hundred and five page two hundred sixty entitled "An Act to preserve the purity of the waters of the State for the protection of the public health."

Section 1207 Whenever any township of the first or second class unites with a borough in the construction or acquisition and maintenance of water works the commissioners or supervisors of such township after the passage of an ordinance or resolution to that effect may join with the councils of such boroughs now authorized by chapter six article seventeen section forty of the general borough act of May fourteenth one thousand nine hundred fifteen page three hundred and twelve so to join and apply to the court of common pleas for the appointment of a commission of water works. Such commission shall be composed of citizens of each of the boroughs and townships so uniting.

SENATE MESSAGE.

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows:

House Bill No. 1725

An Act to amend sections one, four and five of an act entitled "An Act empowering cities of the first class to purchase, lease, locate, construct, and equip, or otherwise acquire, transit facilities and to own, maintain, use and operate the same within their corporate limits; and within the limits of adjacent cities, boroughs and townships; to exercise the right of eminent domain in connection therewith, and prescribing the manner of ascertaining the damages sustained in connection with such exercise; to sell, pledge, or lease transit facilities; to grant licenses for the use of the same; to enter into agreements for the construction and operation of the same; to connect the tracks of railways with the tracks of railroad or railway companies and under certain conditions to use portions of the tracks of the latter; and empowering railroad, railway, and motor power companies to sell, purchase, and lease transit facilities to and from said cities, and to contract with said cities respecting the acquisition, construction, operation, and use of transit facilities." approved the seventeenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, so as to extend the provisions of the said act to railroads in said cities operated or organized to be operated on the principle generally known as the "Belt Line" principle.

With information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk then read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 1, page 4, line 29, by inserting after the word "municipality" the following: "Providing always That where there is an existing belt line railroad company the work of enlarging applying and carrying out the said belt line principle shall be done through the agency of such company and all property acquired through ownership lease or license for the purpose of carrying out the said belt line principle shall be acquired by through and in the name of such existing belt line railroad company"

Section 2 That section four of said act which reads as follows:

Also amend section 2, page 6, by inserting line 26 the following:

"Provided always That when there is an existing belt line railroad company the powers given in this section to cities of the first class their assigns lessees and licensees for track connections or use of other railway or railroad companies' tracks or facilities shall be exercised not by the city but by the said existing belt line railroad company and in such a case the said existing belt line railroad companies are hereby authorized and empowered to do every act matter and thing which is conferred upon cities of the first class their assigns lessees and licensees in the foregoing part of this section."

Amend section 3, page 7, line 11, by inserting before the word "any" the words "Section 5."

Also on page 8, line 9, by inserting before "any" the words "Section 5."

Also on page 9, line 6, by striking out after the word "determine" the remainder of the section and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"and any railroad company incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth is hereby authorized and empowered to sell lease assign or otherwise to grant and convey to any existing belt line railroad company or to any city of the first class any portion or portions of the tracks sidings depots yards or other transit or railroad facilities owned by such railroad within the limits of any city of the first class and required by such existing belt line railroad company or city for use as a portion of a railroad to be operated on the belt line principle."

Section 6 The county commissioners shall prepare and furnish annually to the county treasurer metal tags to be given by the county treasurer to the owners of dogs when such owners shall pay the license fee for said dogs Such tags shall be of metal and shall bear the name of the county issuing it and a serial number corresponding with the number on the license issued to said owner as provided in the preceding section of this act Such tags shall also have impressed thereon the calendar year for which such tag is issued and shall not be more than one inch wide or more than one inch in length and shall be equipped with a substantial metal fastening device The general shape of said tag shall be changed from year to year

If any such tag is lost it shall be replaced without cost by the county treasurer upon application by the person to whom the original license was issued and upon production of such license

Section 7 Any justice of the peace within the county who has qualified by having applied to the county treasurer and having received and receipted for necessary blanks and tags may issue such dog licenses and tags in like manner as prescribed for the issuance of licenses by the county treasurer. When a license is issued by a justice of the peace the person applying for the license shall pay fifteen cents to the said justice in addition to the other fees prescribed as the cost of said license. Said fifteen cents shall be retained by the justice of the peace as his fee for the issuance of said license and reporting the same and remitting payment therefor to the county treasurer. Such report and remittance shall be made by the justice of the peace within twenty-four hours after the issuance of any license by him. Whereupon the county treasurer shall make a record of and otherwise treat said license as though it had been issued from his office except that he shall also note upon his record the name of the justice issuing the license.

Every justice of the peace shall deliver the book or books from which he has issued licenses together with the stubs therein properly filled out and showing the names of each licensee and the number of the license issued to him to the county treasurer before the fifteenth day of January of each year.

Section 8 Any person becoming the owner after the fifteenth day of January of any year of any dog six months old or over which has not already been licensed or any person owning or keeping a dog which becomes six months old at any time after the fifteenth day of January of any year shall forthwith apply for and secure a license for such dog in the same manner as the annual license is obtained under the provisions of this act. If any such application is made at any time after the fifteenth day of July of any year the license fee shall be for each male or unspayed female dog one-half of the amount fixed as the annual license by county commissioners for male or spayed female dogs for each unspayed female dog one-half of the amount fixed as the annual license by the county commissioners for unspayed female dogs.

Section 9 No license or license tag issued for one dog shall be transferable to another dog except as provided in sections eleven and twelve of this act. Whenever the ownership or possession of any dog is permanently transferred from one person to another within the same county the license of such dog may be likewise transferred upon notice given to the county treasurer. This act does not require the procurement of a new license or the transfer of a license already secured when the possession of a dog is temporarily transferred for the purpose of hunting game or for breeding trial or show in this Commonwealth.

Section 10 Whenever any dog licensed in one county is permanently removed to another county the county treasurer of the county where the license was issued shall upon the application of the owner or keeper of such dog certify such license to the treasurer of the county to which the dog is removed. Such treasurers shall thereupon and upon the payment of a fee of twenty-five cents issue a license and tag for such dog in the county to which it is removed.

This section does not apply to dogs used during the hunting season for hunting game or temporarily for breeding trial or show in the Commonwealth nor for the transportation of dogs for hunting breeding trial or show purposes the home county license holding good for such purposes throughout the Commonwealth.

Section 11 Any person who keeps or operates a kennel may in lieu of the license for each dog required by this act apply to the county treasurer for a kennel license entitling him to keep or operate such kennel. Such license shall be issued by the county treasurer on a form prepared and supplied by the county commissioners and shall entitle the licensee to keep any number of dogs six months old or over not at any time exceeding a certain number to be specified in the license. The fee to be paid for each kennel license shall be five dollars for ten dogs or less and ten dollars for more than ten dogs permitted to be kept under the kennel licenses. With each kennel license the county treasurer shall issue a number of metal tags equal to the number of dogs authorized to be kept in the kennel. All such tags shall bear the name of the county issuing it the number of the kennel license and shall be readily distinguishable from the individual license tags for the same year.

Section 12 The licensee of a kennel shall at all times keep one of such tags attached to a collar on each dog six months old or over kept by him under a kennel license. Such tags may be transferred from one dog to another within the kennel whenever any dog is removed from the kennel. No dog bearing a kennel tag shall be permitted to stray or to be taken anywhere outside the limits of the kennel.

This section does not prohibit the taking of dogs having a kennel license outside the limits of the kennel temporarily and in leach nor does it prohibit the taking of such dogs out of the kennel temporarily for the purpose of hunting breeding trial or show.

Section 13 Any person may bring or cause to be brought into the State for a period of thirty days one or more dogs for show trial or breeding purposes.

Section 14 The county treasurer shall keep a record of all dog licenses and all kennel licenses and all permits issued during the year. Such record shall contain the name and address of the person to whom each license or permit is issued. In the case of an individual license the record shall also state the breed sex age color and markings of the dog licensed in the case of a kennel license it shall state the place where the business is conducted. The record shall be a public record and open to persons interested during business hours.

Whenever the ownership or possession of any dog licensed under the provisions of this act is transferred from one person to another except the temporarily transfer of dogs for hunting purposes or for breeding trial or show as provided in section nine of this act such transfer shall be noted on the record of the county treasurer.

Section 15 An accurate record of all license fees collected by the county treasurer or paid over to him by any justice of the peace shall be kept as a matter of information but all such funds shall be turned into the county funds. All moneys at present in the "dog fund" derived from taxation of dogs under the existing law shall be turned into the county fund. All bills incurred under this act or due at the time of the passage of this act shall be paid out of the county fund and any excess moneys collected under this act shall be used for other county purposes.

Section 16 The assessors for taxation purposes in each township borough town and city of this Commonwealth shall annually at the time of assessing property as required by law make diligent inquiry as to the number of dogs owned harbored or kept by any person so assessed.

The assessor shall annually on or before the thirty-first day of December make a complete report on a blank form furnished by the county commissioners to such commissioners setting forth the name of every owner of any dog or dogs how many of each sex are by him owned or harbored and if a kennel is maintained by any person such fact shall also be stated. It shall be the duty of the assessor at the time of making the assessment to notify the owner of such dog or dogs that he must obtain a license for the same as provided for in this act but the neglect or failure so to notify such owner shall not relieve the owner from his duty to obtain such licenses.

Section 17 On and after the fifteenth day of January one thousand nine hundred and eighteen it shall be unlawful for any person to own or keep any dog six months old or over unless such dog is licensed by the treasurer of the county in which the dog is kept and unless such dog at all times wears the collar and tag provided for by this act or unless such dogs are temporarily brought into the State for breeding trial or show purposes.

Section 18 It shall be the duty of every police officer to seize and detain any dog or dogs which bear a proper license tag and which are found running at large and unaccompanied by its owner or keeper. It shall be the duty of every police officer to kill any dog which does not bear a proper license tag which is found running at large. The chief of police or his agents of any city the high constable of any borough or the constable of any borough not having a high constable and the constable of any incorporated town or township shall cause any dog bearing a proper license tag and so seized and detained to be properly kept and fed and shall cause immediate notice either personal or by registered mail to be given to the person in whose name the license was procured or his agent to claim such dog within ten days. The owner of a dog so detained shall pay all reasonable expenses incurred by reason of its detention under the provisions of this section before the dog is returned.

Section 19 If after ten days from the giving of such notice such dog has not been claimed such chief of police or his agent constable or high constable shall dispose of such dog by sale or by destruction in some humane manner. No dog so caught and detained shall be sold for the purpose of vivisection. All moneys derived from the sale of such dog after deducting the expense of its detention shall be paid to the county treasurer and by him placed in the county fund. For services under sections eighteen and nineteen of this act such officers shall be paid the sum of one dollar for detaining a licensed dog and the sum of one dollar for the killing of a dog. All expenses incurred under this act or the preceding section and not otherwise provided for shall be paid by the proper county.

Section 20 For failure to perform his duty under the provisions of this act such police officer shall be liable to a penalty of two dollars for each offense which amount shall be deducted from any amount due such police officer from the county at any settlement between such officer and the county commissioners.

Section 21 Any person may kill any dog which he sees in the act of pursuing worrying or wounding any live stock or attacking human beings whether or not such dog bears the license tag required by the provisions of this act. There shall be no liability on such person in damages or otherwise for such killing.

Any unlicensed dog that enters any field shall constitute a private nuisance and the owner or tenant of such field or their agent or servant may kill such dog while it is in the field without liability or responsibility of any nature for such killing.

Licensed dogs when accompanied by their owner or handler shall not be included under the provisions of this section unless caught in the act of worrying wounding or killing any livestock or attacking human beings.

Section 22 All dogs are hereby declared to be personal property and subjects of larceny. Except as provided in section twenty-one of this act it is unlawful for any person except a police officer to kill injure or poison or to attempt to kill injure or poison any dog which bears a license tag for the current year.

It is unlawful for any person to place any dog button or any poison of any description in any place on his own premises or elsewhere where it may be easily found and eaten by dogs.

It shall be unlawful for any person except the owner or authorized agent to remove any license tag from a dog collar or to remove any collar with a license tag attached thereto from any dog.

It shall be unlawful for any person to harbor or permit to remain about his premises any dog not having a license.

This section does not prohibit the Board of Game Commissioners or any of its officers and agents from placing poison under the provisions of the game laws of this Commonwealth.

Section 23 It is unlawful for the owner or keeper of any female dog to permit such female dog to go beyond the premises of such owner or keeper at any time she is in heat unless such female dog is held properly in leash.

Section 24 The owner or keeper of every dog shall at all times between sunset and sunrise of each day keep such dog either (a) confined within an enclosure from which it cannot escape or (b) firmly secured by means of a collar and chain or other device so that it cannot stray beyond the premises on which it is secured or (c) under the reasonable control of some person or when engaged in lawful hunting accompanied by an owner or handler.

Section 25 Whenever any person sustains any loss or damage to any live stock or poultry by dogs or any live stock of any person is necessarily destroyed because of having been bitten by a dog such person or his agent or attorney may complain to any township auditor or to any justice of the peace magistrate or alderman of the township town borough or city. Such complaint shall be in writing shall be signed by the person making such complaint and shall state when where and how such damage was done and by whose dog or dogs if known. Such township auditor justice of the peace magistrate or alderman shall at once examine the place where the alleged loss or damage was sustained and the live stock or poultry injured or killed if practicable. He shall also examine under oath or affirmation any witness called before him. After making diligent inquiry in relation to such claim such township auditor justice magistrate or alderman shall determine whether any damage has been sustained and the amount thereof and if possible who was the owner of the dog or dogs by which such damage was done.

Any owner or keeper of such dog or dogs shall be liable to the owner of such live stock or poultry in a civil action for all damages and costs or to the county to the extent of the amount of damages paid by such county as hereinafter provided.

Section 26 Upon making the examination required in section twenty-five of this act the township auditor justice magistrate or alderman shall immediately make a certificate thereto signed and sealed by him that such appraisal was regularly and duly made. If by such examination it appears that any damage has been sustained by the complainant the township auditor justice magistrate or alderman shall deliver the report of such examination and all papers relating to the case to the claimant or his agent or attorney upon payment of the costs up to that time. Such report shall be delivered to the county commissioners to be filed in their office.

Section 27 Township auditors justices of the peace magistrates and aldermen for the special service required under sections twenty-five and twenty-six of this act shall receive two dollars for each case and five cents per mile for each mile traveled to be paid by the claimant in each case. In all cases where damages are awarded the fees paid by claimants shall be included in the amount of such damages.

Section 28 Upon the commissioners of the county receiving such report if it appears thereby that a certain amount of damage has been sustained by the claimant they shall immediately draw their order on the treasurer of the county in favor of the claimant for the amount of loss or damage such claimant has sustained according to such report together with necessary and proper costs incurred. Such amount shall be paid by the proper county. No person shall receive any order for any claim until the township auditor justice of the peace magistrate or alderman before whom the claim was made has certified that due diligence was made to ascertain whose dog or dogs did the damage and that the carcasses of the live stock or poultry killed and for which damages have been assessed were buried within twenty-four hours after the assessment of damages. The owners of any live stock or poultry killed by dogs or live stock necessarily destroyed because of having been bitten by a dog shall be paid fifty cents each for burial of such live stock or poultry killed to be paid as other damages under this section. Upon payment by the county of damages to live stock or poultry by dogs the rights of the owner of such live stock or poultry against the owner of the dog to the extent of the amount of damages so paid by such county shall enure to the benefit of the county.

Section 29 No payment shall be made for any item which has already been paid by the owner of the dog or dogs doing the injury. The fact that no such payment has been made shall be certified by the township auditor justice of the peace magistrate or alderman.

When any payment is made by the county for any live stock bitten by a dog such payment shall not exceed one hundred dollars for each horse or mule forty dollars for each head of cattle or six dollars for each head of swine.

Section 30 Any valid claims or parts thereof for loss or damage to sheep horses mules cattle or swine which have accrued under any general or local laws at any time prior to the passage of this act shall not abate by reason of the repeal of such general or local act but shall be paid out of the general fund of the proper county.

All claims or parts thereof remaining unpaid for any reason at the close of any year shall not abate but shall continue as claims until paid in full.

Section 31 If in the report of the township auditor justice of the peace magistrate or alderman the name of the owner of any dog or dogs having caused loss or damage to any live stock is definitely and conclusively shown the county commissioners shall notify such owner or keeper immediately to kill said dog or dogs and if said dog or dogs be killed in accordance with such notice or order the owner or keeper of said dog or dogs shall be exempt from all further liability.

Upon failure however of such owner to comply with such order within a period of ten days he shall be liable for the damages caused by said dog or dogs and the chief of police or his agent of the township town borough or city in which said dog or dogs are kept shall upon notice from the county commissioners kill such dog or dogs wherever found. For such service he shall be entitled to one dollar for each dog so killed to be paid by the proper county upon a certified statement to the commissioners that such dog or dogs have been killed by him. The county commissioners shall issue an order on the county treasurer for such amount unless payment has been made by the owner or keeper of the dog or dogs provided however that the owner or keeper of any licensed dog or dogs that have caused loss or damage to poultry shall not be obliged to kill said dog or dogs unless said dog or dogs are mad but shall be liable for said loss or damage.

Section 32 It is unlawful for any person knowingly to make any false statement or to conceal any fact required to be disclosed under any of the provisions of this act.

Section 33 In any proceedings under this act the burden of proof of the fact that a dog has been licensed or has been imported for breeding trial or show purposes or that a dog is under the age of six months shall be on the owner of such dog.

Any dog not bearing a license tag shall prima facie be deemed to be unlicensed.

Section 34 The Secretary of Agriculture through his officers and agents shall have the general supervision over the licensing and regulation of dogs and protection of live stock and poultry from damage by dogs in all counties of the Commonwealth. The commissioners of each county shall enforce within their respective jurisdiction the provisions of this act. To this end the Secretary of Agriculture may employ all proper means for the enforcement of this act. Any other State Department Bureau or Commission may on request of the Commissioner of Agriculture assist in the enforcement of the provisions of this act.

Section 35 Any person violating or failing or refusing to comply with any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding three months at the discretion of the court.

All fines collected under the provisions of this act shall be forthwith paid to the treasurer of the proper county.

Section 36 This act is intended as a complete and uniform system throughout the Commonwealth for the licensing of dogs and the protection of livestock and poultry from injury by dogs but nothing in this act shall interfere with any law for the protection and preservation of game. Except where such acts or parts of acts are specifically repealed this act does not repeal or affect any acts or parts of acts relating to mad dogs or dogs affected with any disease.

Section 37 Nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent the owner of a licensed dog from recovery by action at law the value of any dog which dog has been illegally killed by any police officer farmer stockman or other person within this Commonwealth from said police officer farmer stockman or other person. In case such police officer or other person fails to pay the value of such dog so killed the same shall be paid by the proper county. Said value of said dog to be ascertained in the same manner and form as provided in section twenty-five of this act for assessing the damage done to live stock by dogs.

Nothing in this act shall be so construed as to prevent the killing of a dog caught chasing deer at any time of the year on either public or private lands or to prevent the killing of dogs by any officer empowered to enforce the game laws of this Commonwealth when said dogs are pursuing game during the closed season for the training of dogs on game providing said dogs are not under the immediate control or accompanied by their owners or keepers and also provided that legal notice has previously been given said owner or keeper as required by the Game Laws of this Commonwealth.

Section 38 In the event that any one or more of the provisions of this act should be decided to be unconstitutional the court's decision holding the same unconstitutional shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this act it being the intention of the Legislature that the provisions of this act are severable.

Section 39 The powers and duties given to and imposed upon county commissioners and other officers by this act shall not extend to cities of the first and second class. In cities of the first and second class the power and duty to fix and collect license fees provided in section four of this act and issue license tags and otherwise perform and carry out the provisions of this act within the limits of such cities shall be and are hereby given to and imposed upon the council or councils of each of said cities respectively.

Section 40 This act does not repeal or in any wise affect any of the provisions of the following acts

The act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred and nine (Pamphlet Laws three hundred twenty-five) entitled "An act to provide for the protection and preservation of game game-quadrupeds and game-birds and song and insectivorous and other wild birds and prescribing penalties for violation of its several provisions"

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO PRINTING EXTRA COPIES OF HOUSE BILL NO. 682.

Mr. SIGGINS offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to.

In the House of Representatives, June 28, 1917.
Resolved (if the Senate concur), That if House Bill No. 682, entitled "An Act concerning townships and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto," is approved by the Governor, the Secretary of the Commonwealth is hereby directed to have printed five thousand extra copies of said act in advance sheet form, to be distributed as follows: 2,500 copies for the use of the House of Representatives, 1,500 copies for the use of the Senate, 500 copies for the Legislative Reference Bureau and 500 copies for the Governor.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

PRESENTATION SPEECHES.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Cox, will take the Chair.

MR. COX IN THE CHAIR.

Chairman COX.

Gentlemen of the House: In view of the strenuous contest, which was waged between our Speaker and myself at the beginning of this session, I appreciate the spirit which has prompted my friend, Dick Baldwin, in calling me to the chair on the closing day of the session.

Time has cooled the heat of the fight and left only the recollection of having met a worthy opponent and the realization of cementing old friendships and making new ones which I shall always treasure as the best of my possessions.

We have had a peculiar session, marked by many conflicts, factional and otherwise. We, of the right side of the House, are entirely satisfied with the results. We have presented a solid front trying to fight fairly for the right as we see it. Aside from the Decedents' Code there are few pieces of legislation that will stand out as monuments of our work, but I think excepting the defeat of the Sales Transit Bill the people of Pennsylvania are to be congratulated on what we have not done, rather than what we have done. We are confronted with the danger of too many laws, too much legislation, therefore to my mind it has been fortunate for the people that this Legislature has not encumbered our statute books with useless and unnecessary legislation.

In the British Navy all ropes and cables have a red thread running through them to distinguish them as Government property. The distinguishing thread that runs through this Legislature is friendship. I have noticed, day after day, as the conflicts have raged upon the floor of the House, the readiness with which the animosities are forgotten and how the members cherish their friendships for one another, even in the teeth of personal, party and factional differences.

Now that we have reached the parting of the way, I know that I experience, as does every other member, a feeling of sadness that we must give up our daily contact with good friends.

Viewed from this end of the session, Speaker Baldwin's regime seems like that of a benevolent despot. We realize that he has been given a hard task and he has performed it well. I congratulate him and trust that he will step to higher places.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Hess.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Chairman and members of the House of Representatives, ladies and gentlemen, when this House convened some six months ago it was amidst the chill of winter. Everywhere we saw the cold, rugged lines of a frozen landscape, but as the great orb of day from week to week climbed higher into the heavens surrounded by the flowers of spring. Not only did this House convene amid the chill of winter but this House convened amid the chill of political antagonism and a desire for factional supremacy, but day by day and week by week and month by month as the members of this House were associated with each other in their multitudinous duties; as they were thrown into closer contact with the other and as they began to understand the impulses of the heart and the inspiration of the souls of their fellow members the rugged lines gradually disappeared until to-day, and great brotherhood prevails among us as we realize that we have reached the hour when we are about to adjourn sine die when good-byes will be said, when hands will be clasped, some, perhaps for the last time, it is natural that we should approach this moment with a feeling akin to sadness. The members of this House will now go out into their accustomed places and take their positions amidst the world's activity. Many of them will go to their broad acres and contribute their bit in producing food which, at this time, is so essential in deciding the great issues of the grave crisis in which our nation is now engaged, a crisis that has led men to tug at their neighbors and at their brother's throats until civilization itself is staggering beneath the repeated blows. Others will go out to the mines of the State and will do their bit in contributing to the supplies of fuel that is now so highly valued and so badly needed. Others will go out to the counting house and banking rooms and workshop and factory and do their bit in those employments. Again, others will go out to the field of battle to do and to die if need be that Democracy shall not perish from the earth. It is entirely proper that at this time our love toward one another should find expression in something tangible and it is only natural that we should manifest it by paying special tribute to those who were in authority over us and who were called upon to carry the heaviest weight of responsibility during the session of 1917 which is now about to be drawn to a close. It now becomes my very pleasant duty, Mr. Speaker (addressing Mr. Baldwin) on behalf of the members of the House of Representatives of the session of 1917 to present to you, Mr. Speaker, a very beautiful watch. I am advised that the mechanic's art has been developed in this handsome timepiece to a point where it has been enabled to authorize the merchant who sold it to guarantee it to be so nearly mechanically perfect that it shall not lose twenty seconds in a year of 365 days. Our wish to you is, Mr. Speaker, that during the ensuing years you may live up to a standard that will be as perfect as the mechanism of this handsome timepiece. We congratulate you, Mr. Speaker, on the very able manner in which you have presided over this deliberative body, always retaining your self-respect, always with decorum and always endeavoring to maintain order in this House. In addition, Mr. Speaker, I have the honor, on behalf of the members of this House to present to you a very handsome chest of sterling silver. Our wish is, Mr. Speaker, that you may go down through the years—and we trust that your life will be blest with many of them—that the word "Sterling" shall be the only one that will be appropriate in describing your worth to your family, to your community and to the Commonwealth. On behalf of the Chief Clerk, I have the honor of presenting to you a very handsome gold watch chain with the hope that you will accept it in the spirit in which it is given. It comes from an old friend and I know that you realize full well what that means. I thank you.

Speaker BALDWIN. Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen and fellow-members, upon the assembling of this legislative body you thrust upon me a duty that I feared at the time I might not be able to perform to your satisfaction, and in a manner that would reflect honor and dignity upon this great Commonwealth. I stated at that time that it would be with your assistance, not by my superior intellect and ability; that the success and the work of this legislative body lay more within the power of the membership than it did in the hands of the Speaker.

I want at this time to say that I tried at all times to be fair to every member of this House, irrespective of factional differences or party differences. If I have made any errors during this session, it was misjudgment upon the part of the head and not because of any feeling in the heart. It is sad, indeed, to stop and think that we who have here during this session lived together and co-labored together in the light that our knowledge gave us for that which we thought was for the best interests of this great Commonwealth must part. I feel I can with confidence say to the people of this great Commonwealth that I believe the members of this House were at all times animated by high and lofty ideals, appreciating at all times the great responsibilities that were thrust upon them. I do believe that the future historian will say that the legislative body assembled in this hall gave as much thought and produced as good laws as any of its predecessors. The future, of course, will be kind to our faults, the present seldom is. But I believe that the future will show that you, my co-laborers, have produced as well as any of your predecessors, and I want to say at this time that that work was your work, not mine. The only difference between the membership of this body and your Speaker was that you had entrusted him with the power of maintaining the order of this legislative body, and there was not conferred upon him any further powers than those conferred upon him by the constituency that he represents. I am very grateful to you for your tokens of esteem, and I assure you that I appreciate them most highly.

I am sorry, indeed, to have to say farewell, but the time comes when we must say it. I say to you, my friends and co-laborers, farewell and God be with you.

Chairman COX. The Chair recognizes the Chief Clerk, Thomas H. Garvin.

Chief Clerk GARVIN. Mr. Speaker, I have the honor to present to you on this occasion, from the Chief Clerk, this gavel, the emblem of your authority, which during your incumbency of office as Speaker of this General Assembly you have wielded with justice and equity, or caused and allowed the same to be done.

Speaker BALDWIN. I thank you.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Beyer.

Mr. BEYER. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen, and especially you, my fellow representatives of this House, if you have tears prepare to shed them now. Sad indeed are the closing moments of this memorable session of 1917, notwithstanding what may have been said concerning the want of action and the accomplishments of this session. I believe Harrisburg can ever cherish in the years to come the finest recollections of the earnestness, zeal and endeavor of every single member of this House. The call of your state, the welfare of your people, never rests on the building up of laws or filling up your statute books with needless enactments, but the quality of your labor lies in doing justice to the petitions of your constituents presented from time to time for your consideration. I know as a member of the important committee over which I had the honor to preside that every single member of this committee faithfully attended to his duties, and was as anxious to lay aside a worthless proposition as he may have been to bring upon the floor of this House some meritorious measure. I know from the knowledge that I have of this House, that the same tribute is due to every other committee connected with this legislative work; but as the weeks pass by after we leave here to-day and the memories come back of the pleasant moments that we spent with each other in our joint labors, there are many smiling faces that will come back to us, many happy thoughts of instances upon the floor of this House, which for the time at least will console our thoughts and will make us wish to meet again.

Who will ever forget the earnestness with which my good friend from Philadelphia objected to every single Philadelphia bill I ever had the honor to present in this House? I will remember as long as I live the smiling yet suspicious countenance of Tom McNichol as he glanced in this direction hour after hour. Yet in this beautiful spring-time of the year, following the frosts of winter, of which the gentleman from Lancaster so eloquently spoke, I too have not forgotten that in the time of spring our thoughts turn to love. We have clasped hands, as we have often done before, and we have recognized in each other at least a determination to stand by our friends and to do justice to the respective organizations of which we happen to be members.

Then there are some amusing sides to this House. Who will forget Cabaret Smith, the champion of reform in liquor legislation? Who will forget that splendid speech delivered by my friend Mr. Stern on the anti-birth control bill, a speech that will linger as long as time rolls on? Then in the very early periods of this session, when factional strife ran high, the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Stites, sprang into prominence with his ox-tail soup, and we have tasted that soup ever since. Then in the busy moments of this session, while these reform bills were hanging in the balance, when every effort was needed in the struggle, I at least will never forget Gum Shoe Glass of Philadelphia, as he gumshoed over this House for votes. Who cares to forget Red Cap Powell with his hunters' bill, and the amendments of the red, white and blue that brought forth the merriment of the moment. And then on this side of the House we have the famous Lennox Twins, Messrs. Baldi and Golder of Philadelphia. Who will ever forget that generous manifestation of love and friendship that he wired over to our friend from Allegheny, Mr. Stadlander, when he was asked to kiss him as a token of his love and friendship only a few weeks ago? Then we have assembled here our old friend Pool Room Rich, who felt the sting of defeat, because you men in the experience of this life did not see fit to close all pool rooms early as he thought necessary, and his joy when we reconsidered it and sent it over to the Senate.

Who will forget the earnestness of Poor House Spangler in his debates with Lanius? Who will forget that smiling countenance of Jerry Simpson, with a little ray of sarcasm underlying his interrogations when he would rise and ask for some explanation of a bill? Who will forget that ready mind of our friend Siggins, who was always able to give those explanations to the bills? Then we have Hess, with his famous efforts in behalf of prison farms, Ramsey on Rules, and Dr. Campbell on Dope; Dunn on Pensions, and Cox on Points of Order. The most famous contribution to this session was McNichol and his smiles. Then when the House became unruly and some question appeared on a roll call, who will forget the earnestness of our friend Mitchell when he would ask for a verification of the roll? Is there a man here who has forgotten the dark horse amendments of our friend Wobensmith from Philadelphia, or the earnest arguments of Albee on Game, Millorn on Rivers and Private Streams, and our earnest friend Walter on Uniform State Laws? Who will ever forget Aron on Bills? Who cares to pass by the smiling countenances of our friend Flynn, the guardian of Democracy, and our earnest advocate of Democracy of as well, Sarig? What a pleasant recollection to remember our friend Reynolds and the earnestness of his appeal on behalf of divorce and divorce regulation in Pennsylvania, and how gracefully he accepted his defeat upon that bill? Then we have our dear old friend Jeff Smith from Philadelphia. With what earnestness he described political activities in the Thirteenth ward, to which he now can return! Phillips, the singer! After some of the darkest hours of this session, when I walked up this aisle feeling the sting of defeat, and was only reminded of it as I passed by the happy coterie of friends gathered around friend Phillips, singing, "There's a hole in the bottom of the sea."

Who will forget Rinn on Free and Equal Elections and on Grade Crossings? Has any one forgotten Boyd with a "hand out"? Who does not remember how Heffernan disappeared on the afternoon before the roll call on the police bill. Stadlander, they tell me, lives happy because he had a bunch of Pittsburgh bills, and by the grace of God received the signature of the Governor to one of them, now enacted into law. Then we have Wells on Capital Punishment, and Milner on Textbook Law, and Benninger on Crooked Roads. And then we have what I believe what no other session had: I remember as a boy while going to school and studying grammar, one of the principal sentences in the grammar book used to run like this, "Webster, Clay and Calhoun were great statesmen and orators," and as the closing hours of this session are passing by, we can conceive of the historical of the future sitting on the dome of this Capitol writing the history of this session, at least recording the fact that the most eminent orators of this session were Messrs. Rinn, Stites and Walker.

So I say to you, gentlemen, with this glorious contribution to the history of the State, it is but proper that we should take this occasion to congratulate ourselves upon the splendid record that we have made. This has been a House composed of men coming from the various walks of life, many of them representing the profession of the law, and many more of them outside of that profession, giving every evidence of true statesmanship and character. Therein perhaps lies the struggle which time and time again has taken upon the floor of this House, the earnestness, zeal and eagerness to do their duty, notwithstanding any appeal to the contrary might be made.

But, gentlemen of the House, the duty before me at this hour is even more pleasant than this. When the pearly gates of Heaven are opened and he of whom I now speak shall come to the gate, and he shall be met by Peter with a smiling countenance, and he shall then present the emblem which I have the honor now to hand to him to-day as a token of our esteem and affection, he will have the open door because of the certificate that you have given him. If ever a man stood at his post of duty in the face of factional strife and party contest, this man did, with his pencil in his hand carefully noting the vote upon the roll call of this House, without any effort to shine. Coming, as he does from the humble walks of life, and maintaining that same democracy, that same simplicity of character, and same smiling countenance that he had when this session first opened, he yet remains with us the same Bill Leib that he was when we first knew him. To this man, ever faithful and true, steadfast and earnest in his work, gracious and receptive of our friendship, eager at all times to extend a helping hand, to give counsel and give friendly advice, we present this beautiful gold watch. As this watch ticks and you hold it to your ear, you will remember, Mr. Leib, that our hearts are beating in common accord with the ticks of this watch, not only in friendship but also in generous regard for your worth as a man and your loyalty as a friend.

Mr. LEIB. Mr. Chairman and members of the House of Representatives, all that I can say at this time is that I heartily appreciate the present given to me, and I will say that in the future if you honor me as you have in the past, I will do anything I can to further your interests and to look out for everybody connected with the Legislature. I thank you.

Chairman COX. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Stites.

Mr. STITES. Mr. Chairman, members of the House and ladies and gentlemen, I have today a most delightful duty. Honest Tom Garvin is the subject of my little sketch. I think it is only fair to him, however, to say that I was not originally selected by the committee to make this little speech. The Committee's first selection was Al Rinn. Al begged off on the ground that the only time he had was two hours on election day and he said that upon this particular occasion he expected to be unusually busy dodging locomotives on certain grade crossings in his locality.

Another name was suggested to make this address: John Flynn of Elk, because of his service to his Party—I mean his service to the Party, and he was expected to make this address, but Flynn begged off on the ground that he had an engagement; that he was about to take lunch with Penrose and Governor Brumbaugh.

Still another name was suggested: Dr. Ulrich, of Lebanon, but, because of a bill which he recently had in the House, Dr. Ulrich will be busy making certain minor operations. The distinguished Robert Wallace of Lawrence was also mentioned but he was unable to perform this pleasant duty, because, along with Joe Grundy and other certain gentlemen of the Manufacturers' Association of Pennsylvania, he is busy today up at Pymatuning in the effort to determine whether the water of that section is liquid or real estate. The attention of the Committee was then bestowed upon Mitchell, of Jefferson, but unfortunately he could not serve because three of the leaders of the Woman's Suffrage Party are entertaining him today with a wine dinner.

Mr. Garvin, we have often wondered in your long service in this Hall, what the impression must be that passed before you to make themselves pregnant in your mind when you consider the foibles and the quirks of various members whom you have observed for many years? When you first came to these legislative halls your figure was little and thin; now your girth resembles somewhat that of Dr. Ulrich. You have grown old in the distinguished service of your State. I want to say to you that it is at great personal sacrifice that I am here today to make this speech; because I had an engagement. I had an engagement to look over some cases of cold storage eggs, but I sacrificed that engagement to perform this pleasant duty, and as we wonder what the impressions are that fasten themselves upon your mind from time to time, and, consulting the poetic fancy, we turn to the realm of doggerel verse and say:

When days are cold and days are hot,
Who is it sits upon this spot?
Who votes us whether we vote or not?
Tom Garvin.

Who pays us cash and all of that,
And gently grins behind his hat,
"Them boobs don't earn a cent of that,"
Says Garvin.

When Bill Leib feels that he is stuck,
And throws some ten votes in for luck,
"That boy's some smooth old working buck,"
Says Garvin.

When Baldwin lets the gavel fall,
And says, "By George, I'll clear this Hall,"
"That fellow is kidding us all,"
Says Garvin.

When birth control makes Izzy chaff,
Puts God and home upon his staff,
"My lips are chapped, don't make me laugh,"
Says Garvin.

When Maurer rises in his spunk,
And tells where labor's hopes are sunk.
"My God, that fellow must be drunk,"
Says Garvin.

When Ulrich wants the infants cut,
That health may not get in a rut,
"He's certainly some hard-hearted mutt,"
Says Garvin.

When Ramsey says, "Let's have fair play,"
"I'll fight to get it any day,"
"That guy's just talking to get his pay,"
Says Garvin.

When Pymatuning Wallace takes
His time to tell us of his lakes,
"That jobs chuck full of water snakes,"
Says Garvin.

When Fowler tells what he has done,
To keep old labor in the run,
"I'll bet that fellow carries a gun,"
Says Garvin.

When Freddie Beyer mounts the hill,
To get votes for his Police Bill,
"Reform's a bitter, bitter pill,"
Says Garvin.

When old Bill Benninger looks grave,
And gently snores while others rave,
"I wish that fellow would get a shave,"
Says Garvin.

When Snyder rises to besmirch,
A vote and leave Tom in the lurch,
"I'll bet that fellow would rob a church,"
Says Garvin.

When Charlie Walter takes a fling,
At statutes old and begins to sing,
"That fellow can talk on anything,"
Says Garvin.

When John Flynn sounds the funeral knell,
Of Woman Suffrage, sad to tell,
"The North American will give him hell,"
Says Garvin.

Now, good Old Tom, here's health and cheer,
Here's hope you'll be here many a year,
Look out for whiskey, wine and beer,
Tom Garvin.

I have, Sir, the pleasure to present to you this very beautiful stickpin. It is an emblem of the sincere regard of every member of this House. Every one of us has felt the influence of your benign smile and kindly hand. May you live long, Sir, and prosper.

Mr. GARVIN. Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen, members of the Pennsylvania Legislature of 1917, it is certainly a pleasant day to me. I desire to say to you that I fully appreciate the honor that you have conferred upon me by this beautiful present. I might say at this time, that I am sorry that the committee was caused so much trouble in finding a gentleman to make this presentation speech but I am happy indeed that the other gentlemen have for some unknown reason to me either had to decline or were taken off that assignment. I appreciate your kindness, one and all, and I appreciate the very kind remarks made by the gentleman in his presentation speech, and with my very best wishes to you all I assure you that I have simply done what I believe is my duty as the Chief Clerk of this House. I thank you kindly.

Chairman COX. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Delaware, Ramsey.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Chairman, ladies and fellow members, when there was brought into this hall this morning a certain present for one of our friends at the desk, someone remarked, "Why the refrigerator"? And it occurred to me, if we could use it for nothing else, that we might at least store away in cold storage all these beautiful reform measures that have fallen dead at this time, but we are not going to do that with it. We are going to present it to one of our friends, who like all the other men who have received attention from this House preceding this, has always served the members in every capacity in which he has been asked. Never have you gone in Bill Leib's office without you first inquired for Dale Meals, and whether it be night or day, you will always find, and you have always found, Dale Meals ready to serve every member of the House. And to you, Mr. Meals, we are presenting this beautiful piece of furniture with the hope that as it is the preserver of food, so might it be the preserver of our good cheer and fellowship for you. May you in the time to come, every time you open the door of this refrigerator, be met with the stored up smiles and thoughts of the members of the House of 1917. I am sure, with this as a token, that you will never forget us, and we will never forget you.

Mr. MEALS. Gentlemen, I thank you.

Chairman COX. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Sullivan.

Mr. SULLIVAN. Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen, and fellow members of the House, to-day we are reminded that all things have an end. Even this long session of the Legislature, to which we have been looking forward with a feeling of hope, has finally arrived, and it brings with it a shadow of sadness because of the parting with the many good friends that we have met under this Capitol dome. As we take ourselves to our respective homes in this Commonwealth, we shall carry with us the impressions made by the distinguished men with whom it has been our pleasure to serve. To the members of the Allegheny county delegation this gloom shall be greatly dispelled, because as we travel homeward, in our number shall be one from whom, the sunshine of whose disposition illuminates the darkest and uttermost crevices of the saddest heart. I have the honor to present to you, Mr. Brackney, this beautiful watch, and it is my wish and the wish of every member of this House that as it tolls off the seconds of time, that each tick will carry to you a message of our love and regard for you.

Mr. BRACKNEY. Mr. Chairman and member of the House, I thank you for your beautiful gift.

Chairman COX. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Chester, Mr. Whitaker.

Mr. WHITAKER. Mr. Chairman, it is the duty of a legislative body, entirely proper and fitting that such a legislative body as this House should be busy at making history, and whether we do that well or do it poorly, it is likewise our duty to write it down and preserve it for posterity. We should do that completely and accurately, and this House has taken thought to provide for the preservation of the records of this House by providing a Journal Clerk, whom we call "Skinny" down in Chester county. He will preserve the performances of this House in writing for future generations with accuracy, and fullness, and completeness, and I am sure that not a thing will be misread or mis-understood in these proceedings, just as well as I am certain that nobody will ever read them. The duties of preserving this record, of making this history of this Legislature, have devolved upon a very good friend, whom we call "Skinny" McDonald in Chester county. We have all learned to appreciate his friendship here, and therefore, Mr. McDonald, it is the pleasure of the House to present to you at this time as a token of our appreciation, not only for you, yourself, but for the earnest and conscientious work which you have done in preserving our records. We present to you this clock.

Mr. McDONALD. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen and members of the House, I am very grateful to you for this beautiful clock.

Chairman COX. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Dithrich.

Mr. DITHRICH. Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen and fellow members of the House, the closing hours of this session have been so fast and furious and so much has been crowded into them, that I have tried to collect my thoughts so that I might in a few appropriate remarks convey the impression made upon me in this my first session. I have not been able to do that, but I think you will all agree with me, and particularly the rural members, that the most pleasant thing in this last week was to find voting unanimously in favor of legislation for the City of Philadelphia. But the duty fell upon us as rural members to see that we did not get what we considered a very unwise measure, and I take this opportunity, gentlemen, to explain that while I was classed a few days ago as being a resident of the City of Pittsburgh, and while I would be proud to claim residence in that truly wonderful city, I feel that it is my duty to confess at this time that I am not a resident of Pittsburgh, but am of the beautiful borough of Coraopolis, on the Ohio river, in Allegheny county.

Mr. Chairman, I have a very pleasant duty to perform, but before going on that I would like to digress for just a moment and make comment in a very serious way. As many of you know, when I came to take my seat in this House, I came after serving six months on the Mexican border, and on the fifteenth day of July I will go out again with my regiment. One of the most pleasant anticipations is that I will be able to continue the friendships and cordial relations which I have made here with such friends as Captain Samuel Whitaker, of Chester, and Major Reitzel, of Lancaster. And what I want to make to the members of the House, and it is my only purpose in speaking on the subject, is an appeal to you as representatives of the people to look out for the members of the families of the enlisted men from the State of Pennsylvania who will go, God only knows where. I feel, Mr. Chairman, that the State of Pennsylvania can throw into this fight as much money, as many munitions, as large food supplies, and as many brave, courageous men as any other state in the Union. But many of those boys who are going out now, and particularly those who come from serving on the Mexican border, were in such financial straits when they returned, after serving there for fifteen dollars a month, and many of them at great sacrifice. After coming home they were in debt. Through the kindness of their friends and neighbors in certain localities, counties and municipalities, and some of those who work for the State, they have been recompensed for the time lost, but a great many of them have not, and they are going forth again. The State has responded nobly to the appeal of the American Red Cross, but there is still work to be done. I think we can rely on you, gentlemen, who are the representatives of the people, to exert yourselves to see that no family or relative of any enlisted man who goes to the front suffers. I know there will be gladness in the hearts of all the men if they have that assurance.

Now, gentlemen, there is some doubt in the minds of some of the members as to what has contributed most to whatever bitterness, short-lived hostility as it may have been, in this session; but there is no doubt in the mind of any one of us as to what has contributed to the gaiety, good will and cheerfulness of the session. I refer to our good friends, the reading clerks, "Pop" Faulkenstein, and his dear friend and assistant, Quay Hewitt. They have been untiring in their efforts, they have sung that roll from early morning until late at night, and will it not be pleasant if at some time we are awakened from our dreams to hear the dear voice of Quay Hewitt singing, "Albee, Aron, Baldi, Baldrige—let us get this out and go down and get a drink, Mr. Speaker." But they have gone through with it ably, guided by Tom Garvin and Bill Leib, and even on that memorable day when Canon and Chestnut both voted "aye" on the same day they were not disturbed, but went right on with it.

And now, Mr. Faulkenstein and Mr. Hewett, in making presentation of these purses of gold, I wish to say that as none of the eight members of this House who subscribed to Mr. Urich's ideas were members of the committee, there has been no commission retained, but it goes to you as subscribed by the members. And it is our sincere hope that amid the changing scenes of life, through all the trials and tribulations, that you will both go along carrying in your hearts the same happy song and on your faces the same happy and cheerful smiles.

Mr. FAULKENSTEIN. Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen and members of the House, I would be very much amiss if I did not carry out the sentiment of gratification and thanks to you, gentlemen, and I wish to assure you that I especially appreciate your kindness, and feel happy in the thought to know that I have earned your gratification.

Mr. HEWITT. Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen and members of the session of 1917, this occasion reminds me of a very beautiful sentiment:

"Not we give but what we share,
For the gift without the giver is bare;
He who gives himself with his alms feeds three, Himself, his hungry neighbor and me."

I accept this gift from you, my dear friends, in the spirit in which it is given, for I know that you have given yourselves with the gift. I thank you.

Chairman COX. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Mearkle.

Mr. MEARKLE. Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen and fellow members, the time is growing short and it is not my intention to take up your time of the many recollections that we have of this session, or of the one to whom I am about to pay tribute. There probably is no one who has rendered more service to the young members of this session than the gentleman who is known as the assistant resident clerk, in his compiling of what is known as the history of House bills. It was that journal that assisted us so much when we returned home to enlighten our constituents as to what position and where the various pieces of legislation were in the House. I therefore take great pleasure in presenting to our good friend from Allegheny county—the Chairman of the Seventh ward, which I have the honor to represent—my good friend Harry Hutchison, the clock which stands before him.

Mr. HUTCHISON. Mr. Chairman, friends and gentlemen of the House, I just wish to extend my many thanks for this beautiful remembrance.

Chairman COX. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Walker.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. Chairman and gentlemen of the House, to me the most important influence that has come in this session has been that received from the friends that I have made. I have two hundred and six friends in the House and I judge every man from the Speaker down who is also one of the two hundred and six, is also a friend. I am reminded that some one wrote "Friendship, mysterious cement of the soul; joiner of hearts and solder of society, I owe thee much." And to these friends that I met I want to say that I owe everyone of you much, and to me the closing hours of this session are almost like bidding farewell to one's best friend. I know that it is quite possible that some of us shall never meet again and I have been asked to repeat that which some of you heard me use a few nights ago with reference to the Judiciary General Committee, equally applicable to the entire membership of this distinguished House:

Other men will take our places,
Do the deeds that we have done,
Overmatch our little courage,
Wear the honors we have won,
For our life is passed.

Alas, as fairy spell,
Ever, ever are we parted
And we leave thee heavy hearted
With a look intense and longing,
And bid the old sweet life farewell.

At the opening of this session factionalism came from Philadelphia but it was not the hydra-headed monster that it appeared to be for, although we differed, we differed honestly. Every man did that which he deemed best. We are different therefore, from the old Irishman I heard about at one time who was once in a little town in which it was the habit or custom of the clergy in that town to race on the way to church every Sunday morning behind fine horse flesh. On one bright morning two of my compatriots from Ireland were standing at the roadside when there was a cloud of dust and one said to the other, "Do you see that now. There is the Presbyterian minister and the Baptist minister and the Episcopalian rector racing on Sunday morning." A moment later from another cloud came the rector of the Irishman's church. Then he says, "Look at the good man, racing like the devil to mass so that he won't keep the people waiting." There has been a sincerity I am sure, in the opposition which each of us have had to the other. The session is closing now; no wound rankles in any heart; all is order, harmony, prosperity and hope and it is that which we believe this session means to each of us. It also happens, and I am glad to acknowledge it, that we have among our members one upon whose heart the muse has spent considerable time; I refer to the Honorable Theodore Morgan of Mercer, who is not only a successful business man but he is also a poet and as he sat in our Halls and heard the debates there came to him this thought and he has made me a present of it. I shall be most happy to have each of you have it among your archives.

"Stand up old man, stare fate in the eye.
Keep right on with a stiff upper lip
If they break your hold, get another grip,
For we love the man who can stand the gaff
Who can take the punch, and come back with a laugh
And when the fighting is o'er, and the battle is done,
Offers his hand to the man who has won,
For life is a battle from beginning to end
And your foe of today is tomorrow your friend
So let hatred pass without thought or care,
For all we can task is let the fighting be fair."

I think, sirs, that the fight of this session has been fair. I know that from the great leader of the factional opposition in Philadelphia, I want to say that personally I have found Fred Beyer absolutely honest and fair. Mr. Chairman, it so happens that most of those who have received gifts today are big chiefs; there are officers and lieutenants and other officers of the House, but, Mr. Chairman, a great part of the success, in fact, I think that the great success of that which has been done by the desk is due to the man behind the gun. Today I have the honor on behalf of this House to present the coin of the realm to some, and as someone has said regarding friends, "Friends are, in life's exchange, the sterling coin, true tender for the rarest forms of joy; the only pauper is the friendless man." Mr. Chairman, so long as we live and so long as they live we will look upon them as our friends and now to him whom we all love, honor and respect to good old Jim Moore, I have the honor to present this purse. A faithful servant and one who has done his duty to the best of his ability is our good friend Higgins to whom I have the honor of presenting this purse; to Wilson, the message clerk, combs this message; that this House respects him so and its friendship for him is such that it is also sterling, and to him I have the honor of presenting this purse. Then comes the man we often look upon as a bugbear; the man whom I tried several times to inveigle into the breaking of his duty but failed, the Sergeant-at-Arms, Hunihan. He stood by his guns, Sir, no matter what others did, and he would stand by the order of the Speaker and the rules of this House, though the Heavens fell, and the House has appreciated and recognized his fidelity to duty and has asked me to present to him this purse. Mr. Chairman, there is another worthy one among the employes of this session, a man whose work will make memories of this session more pleasant. In the days to come we will forget some happenings and we will be compelled to refer to our Journal. Much of the benefit that will be received from the Journal is due to the effort of our friend, Salvatore DePierro, to whom I have the honor and privilege of presenting this purse.

I now have the honor to bring before the bar of the House a man who recognizes no chief but the Eternal, a man whose sole hope in life is that none of the members of this House will ever go to Hell—I refer to the Sky Pilot, the Rev. Dr. Zerfass. This House has appreciated his faithful performance of duty and they have asked me to say to him that they realize that the clergy are underpaid and they recognize that being men of great attainments and large parts and powers, it is necessary for them to have the wear-with-all that they may live, so they have asked me to present him with this purse.

Then I have the pleasure of bringing before the House a man who has been our friend; a man whom, personally, I have grown to admire, yes, it is possible for a man to say so without femininity, to almost love a man who has been with us before we came here and who will look after us when we have gone to our districts, Frank Bowman, the Superintendent of Stores, which have never been stored by him for private profit but which he has handed out with that whole-souled interest, which is written on his face:—to him this House presents this purse.

Then, Sir, it affords me deep pleasure to be one of those who like those of the past have recognized merit. My associate from Philadelphia, the Honorable James Franklin, came to this House in 1891. When he came here among those that ran up and down the aisles was our friend Clarence Seiler, the Chief Page. From a boy in knee breeches he has since become the Chief Page of the House and all of us know that it was he that guarded those who persisted in coming down and interfering with our singing and throwing paper at us when we did not want them to do that; he has looked after his duty as the faithful servant we expected and in fact know him to be when we elected him the Chief Page, so to him, on behalf of this body, I have the honor of presenting this purse.

Now, Sir, I presume one of the most pleasant recollections that we will have when we go from here is that recollection of the Speaker's Clerk, George Hill. It is perhaps only fair for me to say that since he comes from Delaware County, which will be, when I come back to the Assembly at the next session, the west end of my ward, that I should explain to the House the peculiar affection which I hold for him. He has, however, as all shall subscribe, served this Assembly well. He has served his Chief, the Speaker, but he has also served every man in this House that needed service; he has done things which were not expected of him, in the goodness of his heart, to serve us, and so it gives me sincere delight to give to my friend, George Hill, this purse.

Mr. Chairman, it may be that I am the last to be recognized at this time, I recall, some years ago, reading in one of the Annals that was handed to me, a few lines which always come to me on occasions like this.

In changing human days,
Though far away the maze of time may take us,
Through sore toil and fret,
Still memory twines its fingers round the past
Nor will it ever let old happenings fail,
Or out of mind be cast."

Our minds have engraved upon them, with the golden pencil of the Almighty, memory precious, and as time speeds on, more precious thought, I feel sure and certain that to the best of the individual ability of each of us we have done our duty. We have made our friends and the session of 1917 will be to us absolutely unforgettable, absolutely unbeatable.

Chairman COX. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from York, Mr. Lanius.

Mr. LANIUS. Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen and visitors, the Democrats, the little body on this side of the House, had not expected to inject themselves into this very decorous gathering this morning, but when reminiscences and partings are being recalled and made, we have decided to lift our voices in these greetings and partings. We have been besieged with many favors from our Republican friends on that side of the House. They have at various times accepted our brilliant ideas to such a large extent that we have been overwhelmed. We have been so successful in our suggestions to the Commonwealth that in these closing days we feel that it is just and fitting that we should say a word or two. Mr. Speaker and friend, I have been singularly successful. York county has received more special legislation, or has been offered more special legislation, in this session than in any previous session, and I believe that my colleague and myself on this side of the House are to be congratulated because our colleague on the other side of the House thought so much of us. We were first offered a beautiful almshouse, and this we indignantly rejected. But in a true generous spirit they donated it, and we have accepted it in the spirit in which it was offered. Later on, with a generous spirit he offered to give us a poor director who would serve two years without being elected, and, Mr. Speaker, we indignantly refused this kind offer. He persisted, and we have decided at this late hour not to discover that issue. Then again the kind gentleman from Dauphin offered us a tax collector and receiver for York county, and again we were overwhelmed with thanks for this great thought and kindness, and we were again compelled to refuse. Yes, we have been overwhelmed, and I believe that is also true of the many other members on this side of the House. And then we have had also so many other little things. We have had the association and kindnesses among each other, and we have grown to know the members of the House. We have grown to know that party lines were beaten down, and factionalism was only after all what we make it, or the conclusion we place upon the analysis we give it. We had grown to know that our Republican friends on the other side of the House did not look at the name on the bill nor cared any for its sponsor's affiliations. Yet after all the House of Representatives was a House which was not the bugaboo that the people of Pennsylvania are taught or instructed to believe, but that it was after all composed of a body of intellectual, honest men who desired to do nothing better than their duty by their conscience and their constituents.

Mr. Chairman, in these closing days we turn our eyes to our friends and open our hearts, our hands clasped perhaps for the last time, and we have felt with these parting words we may well say, God speed. Mr. Chairman, I desire at this time to thank my colleagues for all the courtesies which I personally have received, and I know that all on this side of the House join me in this. I appreciate to the fullest capacity and extent everything that has been done for me, and I know that my colleagues do the same. I say farewell, and wish you all luck, health and prosperity. God help you and prosper you.

We have in our delegation a man who in point of service matches well with that of the venerable gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Gransback. I had the honor to meet this gentleman in 1913 and irrespective of the various differences that may have arisen between us, I want to say that we have been able to understand each other, and I have learned to understand that irrespective of what the gentleman has done he has always been up and above board where everybody could see him. I have learned to respect his opinions and I now take the honor of declaring this appreciation as a token and testimonial of his worth; as a man and as a representative of this House. I refer to the Honorable John Flynn of Elk county, my friend. This is given to you by the members of your delegation, your personal friends and I desire to present to you this stickpin.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Chairman, and gentlemen, I am deeply touched by this tribute coming from you my fellow Democrats of the House. It is true that on this side of the House we have not always agreed on matters that have come before us for our consideration, but notwithstanding that in my number of years and experience in this House I have tried to make friends with those of my fellow members, even when we did not agree in regard to matters of legislation, and partisan matters and I certainly wish to say that I thank them very sincerely for this tribute.

Chairman COX. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Stern.

Mr. STERN. Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen and colleagues of the Assembly of 1917, much has been said this morning in a humorous and serious vein, in poem and in prose about many of our members. Each of the things said about the members were true and I don't believe that anybody will deny that what I say will be true when I say that the noblest Roman of them all has been forgotten and overlooked.

It becomes my pleasant duty, Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen, to remind you of the fact that we have in our midst, and have had all session, a man who has had many years upon his brow, a man who links the past with the present as no other man in this session does, a man who, when he was born in 1836, knew nothing, as no one at that time did, of any railroad. In 1836, the time when this man was born, it took two or three days to go from Philadelphia to Harrisburg; there was no telegraph and you could not communicate with a man under a week or get a response at Harrisburg; there was no phone, no phonograph, no wireless, no automobile, in fact, it seems that it has been given this man to live in the greatest age that we have ever known on the face of the earth—the past century. This man has lived eighty-two years of that century, which is the most remarkable century in the history of the world, in scientific achievement. This man has borne his burdens well. This man is loved, esteemed and respected by all who know him. To know him is to love him. Mr. Chairman, this man's career throughout all these years has been one of steadfast patriotism, of service with honor and distinction through our Rebellion and whose honorable discharge was secured at the end of it. This man will now go home and have pleasant dreams; he goes home, Mr. Chairman, with God's blessings and the good wishes of two hundred and six of his fellow members who hope that as our good friend, Harry Gransback, sits in this chair, which I take pleasure in presenting to him on behalf of the members of this House, he will have long and pleasant dreams.

Mr. GRANSBACK. Mr. Chairman, and fellow members, I thank you very kindly for the courtesy that has been shown to me, and I appreciate it very dearly and I give my thanks to you all.

Chairman COX. This ends the exercises for this morning. I thank you for your attention.

SPEAKER BALDWIN IN THE CHAIR.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. MEARKLE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to say for the information of the House that the amendments to this bill are satisfactory to the sponsor, after a conference held with the sponsor, Senator Buckman, of the motor vehicle bill and the Highway Department. We spent yesterday afternoon in going over it and the bill as these amendments come over here today are the same as to House Bill No. 919 which passed this House in April with the slight exception that it raises the fee five dollars on every thousand pounds above three thousand pounds on trucks but leaves the fees on motor vehicles identically the same as they were previously. That was my chief fight.

Mr. MERVINE. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, this bill, as I understand, as it is amended increases the licenses on trucks that are three thousand pounds five dollars on every additional thousand pounds. Now, Mr. Speaker, and gentlemen if you will realize it the trucks today are the commercial part of this country. If it were not for the automobile trucks we could not transport our goods in the same manner and get them to the market as we are getting them there today. A truck is not a luxury. If there should be an addition to the license it should be on the touring cars, pleasure cars, that are being used for purposes of luxury. I claim, gentlemen, that the taxes and licenses that are imposed on trucks today are good and plenty and it is more than it is in the State of New York or any other State that I have looked up the license charge. Every farmer that has a truck, it would be a very small truck that the truck and the load would not weigh three thousand pounds. With a thousand pound truck, the truck and the load would weigh three thousand pounds and over. I claim that a truck is not any harder on the road than a three thousand pound touring car and the majority of the pleasure cars run from 3500 to 4500 pounds, and gentlemen, for the good cause of the people that have to use trucks, I would ask you to vote down these amendments.

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, I should like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Mearkle.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Mearkle, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MEARKLE. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the gentleman as to whether or not the Pennsylvania Motorist's Association endorsed the Mearkle Bill going through the House?

Mr. MEARKLE. Mr. Speaker, I would say for the gentleman's information that the Pennsylvania Motor Federation is responsible for the bill and their attorney was present at the conference yesterday, and the many letters and telegrams which you received from your homes opposing it. The Buckman Bill has been withdrawn in favor of these amendments and they are perfectly satisfactory.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Agreeably to the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

SENATE MESSAGE.

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented the following extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, June 28, 1917.

Whereas Investigations by the several standing committees of the General Assembly have brought to the attention of the members thereof the need of readjustment in the organization management and administration of the co-ordinate branches of the State Government and

Whereas It appears that there is duplication of work encroachment of authority lack of co-ordination of similar duties and lack of such organization as is essential to the best business interest of the Commonwealth and

Whereas it is apparent to the members of the General Assembly as a result of their investigations that the salaries of many positions connected with public offices are disproportionate to the responsibilities imposed and

Whereas by reason of their present scheme of organization it has been possible for some divisions of the State Government to expend public moneys legally but not in conformity with the intent of the General Assemblies that appropriated such funds and

Whereas The present system of management has permitted certain divisions to expend unnecessarily and to develop along lines that have resulted in the aforementioned duplication of work and encroachment of authority any

Whereas The acts of Assembly creating some divisions have delegated powers and duties to new divisions that were originally possessed and discharged by divisions which have consequently become unnecessary or obsolete therefore

Be it Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That a joint committee to consist of five Senators two of whom shall be members of the minority political party to be appointed by the President pro tempore of the Senate and five Representatives two of whom shall be members of the minority political party to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives be and the same are hereby constituted a special committee whose duty it shall be to investigate the present organization of the co-ordinate branches constituting the Government of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania the number character duties and compensation of each position connected therewith the business methods and procedures now used in the management of public business the necessity for continuing and the cost of administration of the several divisions of the State Government and to report to the next General Assembly recommendations for such changes as will put the co-ordinate branches of the State Government on a sound business basis by co-ordinating similar duties preventing duplication eliminating encroachment and overlapping providing improved methods for supervising the expenditure of public moneys abolishing unnecessary or obsolete departments offices and positions and such other reorganizations as will improve the administration of the public business and will bring about greater economy and efficiency in the public service

This committee shall be authorized to employ such clerical expert or other assistance as necessary to discharge their duties and the funds for these expenses and the necessary traveling expenses of the members of the Committee shall be provided by an item in the General Appropriation Bill to be paid by the Auditor General and State Treasurer on requisition of the chairman of the Committee

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

Mr. McNICHOL. Mr. Speaker, there is an apprehension on the part of some of my colleagues as to the real purpose and intention of this resolution. I want to state to the members of this House that this resolution is perfectly satisfactory to the friends of the Governor, the assurance having been given that it is not in the nature of the creation of a commission that would assume the functions of the Catlin Commission or a commission of that character hereto created. The purpose of this committee or commission authorized under this resolution is to correct a condition that is due not to any mismanagement but due to overlapping arms. As an illustration, there are laws now on the statute books that call for an inspection to be made by the Department of Health and Sanitation, an inspection to be made upon the part of the Labor and Industry Department and an inspection made by the Fire Marshal's Department, three inspections made where only one would be necessary. It is for the purpose of making one man do the work where three are required now, not due to any fault or mismanagement but due to the overlapping law, and I would ask the members of this House to adopt the resolution.

Mr. BEYER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I simply want to make the statement to you that this resolution passed the Senate unanimously without a word against it.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I shall have no objection to the passage of this resolution if the House will agree to the insertion of an amendment to that resolution by striking out the word "mismanagement" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "overlapping of the laws;" otherwise I shall have to object.

Mr. SHOWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I believe our State government should be run as economically as it can possibly be. My recollection is that sometime ago an investigation was made in the various departments as to the salaries that were paid to the various officials and sub-heads. I think a man by the name of McDevitt was in charge of that investigation. Now, here is a body created for the purpose of investigating these various departments. I, for myself, see no reason why this resolution should follow when this other department or this other bureau already exists. If this resolution goes through the general appropriation bill provides for an expenditure of twenty-five thousand dollars to carry on this investigation. The twenty-five thousand dollars could have been spent to a far better purpose in the construction of roads, in the assistance of our schools, in an increased fund for Mother's Pension and a dozen other things that I might mention. I wish to put myself on record unequivocally against this resolution for the reason I feel that the money that the resolution would carry with it should not be spent for this purpose at this time.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I just want to state to the members of the House that this resolution is drawn without any animus toward any person or any department or any division of any department in this Commonwealth. I happened to be one of a committee for the purpose of investigating the work and the money paid by the State of Pennsylvania for the work done by the different departments comprising the State of Pennsylvania, and after being on that committee for three months I found that it was absolutely necessary in order that the work of the different departments should be done efficiently and economically, that this Legislature should appoint a commission for the sole and express purpose of going over the laws pertaining to the different departments of this Commonwealth in order that they might arrange a system whereby a portion of those laws could be repealed that the department and department heads would not overlap to the extent of four different times in some particular places. We found after a thorough investigation that it was no fault of the departments, but it was the fault of the law creating the different departments that had sprung up after the old law under which the State was run before we got the department system. In those different departments we found as high as four men performing the same work—almost identically the same—and almost at the same time, and we felt, after going after that matter carefully, that it would be to the best interests of the State of Pennsylvania that a resolution such as this be presented to the House and that a committee be appointed for the sole and express purpose of trying to arrange whereby the different departments could be held responsible for the work of that particular department, and that alone. The government then would fix a responsible head whereby every department would perform a certain particular work and no other department would perform that work. By doing that the State of Pennsylvania would save a hundred times what it would cost to create this commission and perform the work mapped out in the resolution for two years. I therefore beg the endorsement of this resolution.

MR. WHITAKER IN THE CHAIR.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Simpson.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Simpson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SIMPSON. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Allegheny why he did not direct this inquiry through a channel like the Economy and Efficiency Commission, and not take the chance of having a commission appointed, who would probably not be competent to go into the exact details of the situation?

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, the Economy and Efficiency Commission already appointed has made some recommendations, and of course they would be taken into consideration by this commission.

Mr. COX. But the resolution does not say so, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SIMPSON. But with the commission appointed by this resolution, their suggestions, of course, would be taken into consideration just the same as their suggestions were taken into consideration at the investigation.

Mr. COX. The point that I am trying to develop here, Mr. Speaker, from Mr. Simpson is why he wants to deviate from an absolutely proper channel to an absolutely improper one, when we know that the experience of the Economy and Efficiency Commission is very high. Now in business walks of life we generally go to the experts to get our information, and we do not go to the average layman to seek it. I think if we have an Economy and Efficiency Commission, and they are absolutely conversant with the situation, this commission should be directed through that channel. I have no personal opposition to this resolution, but I did want to develop why the Economy and Efficiency Commission was left out of this resolution. I would like to have the gentleman answer that question.

Mr. SIMPSON. As I said in the beginning, the resolution was prepared and presented without any thought of animus towards any person or any department.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I am not charging that the resolution was prepared with any feeling against any department, but I am asking you why you did not go to the Economy and Efficiency Commission for that information.

Mr. SIMPSON. So far as the investigations were concerned, we found in a great many instances that the Economy and Efficiency Commission had made recommendations that were not carried out, and we thought with a commission appointed for the purpose of collecting the laws and having them repealed so that the overlapping would stop, it would be very much better than to continue the Economy and Efficiency Commission as it is now.

Mr. COX. Would not this commission perform the same function that you are now asking for this commission?

Mr. SIMPSON. My judgment is that they could not.

Mr. COX. Why?

Mr. SIMPSON. I just take it from the past. They have not made recommendations that would correct this. We found it was necessary to appoint such a commission to make recommendations that would correct this.

Mr. COX. I believe that this resolution will have to lie over for printing. I raise that as a point of order.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman object to the consideration of the resolution at the present time?

Mr. COX. No, Mr. Speaker, I have no objections.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Strike out the following in paragraph 5: "Whereas, the present system of management has permitted certain divisions to expand unnecessarily and to develop along lines that have resulted in the aforementioned duplication of work and encroachment of authority, and," insert in lieu thereof the following: "Whereas, by reason of the overlapping of the laws of this Commonwealth there has been duplication of work."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments?

The Chair hears objection.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate somebody who knows something about the matter. The explanation that we have in reference to this resolution seemingly has said nothing about the appropriation the bill carries with it. I want to call your attention to three lines in this appropriation bill which has reference to this particular resolution. It says there that these men "shall be appointed for the purpose of supervising the expenditures of public moneys, abolishing unnecessary or obsolete departments, offices and positions and such other reorganizations as will include the administration of the public business and will bring about greater economy and efficiency in the public service." If that is true that this commission of men appointed by this House and the Senate shall have the power to remove these people we surely should be against this resolution that they have just reported, and we should object to it. I will read again for the information of the House. (The paragraph as above was again read.) If this committee has that power they surely have too much power and we should let that report be taken to the next Legislature.

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, when this House convened in January in the eyes of some of its members, investigations were the highest aim; in the eyes of other members, investigations were all wrong. We had on our desks the report of the Economy and Efficiency Commission. During all of this session I doubt if fifty per cent of the members of the House have referred to it in any way. I object to any argument on the floor of this House drawn from that report. I believe it was an excellent report, and from examination of it I found it so. Here between days we have everybody getting together for the purpose of spending twenty-five thousand dollars to improve the State Government and to reduce the number of jobs for politicians to fill. Now, Mr. Speaker, was there any disposition on the part of this body or of the body in the other side to reduce the number of jobs during this session. We did not want any bill passed that reduced jobs; we did not want to save any money and the same gentlemen that were so cynical about that sort of thing are now backing this resolution. I trust that we have had enough of this so-called investigation and this resolution will be voted down. These overnight conceptions should be voted down, because just a few moments ago this House was actively working against this sort of thing.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. BEYER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. BEYER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is not confining himself to the amendment.

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, the amendment was objected to and is no part of the resolution. It is the main question that is before the House.

The SPEAKER. The main question is now part of the resolution.

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, this overnight getting together—the gentlemen of this House did not know whether or not they were for or against this resolution until fifteen or twenty minutes since and I don't think it consistent with the dignity of this House of with the decency of the conduct of legislation to spring an important measure of this sort in favor of economy and efficiency into the last hours of the session after the clock has been turned back for many hours and ask this House to adopt it. I would not like to believe it is in good faith and I do not believe it will bring good results. I think we will make ourselves ridiculous if we adopt it.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I renew the offer of the amendment that was presented by me a few minutes ago. I understand there is no objection now.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendment? The Chair hears objection.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that under our rules this resolution cannot be considered at this time but must lie over for one day.

The SPEAKER. The point of order raised by the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Hess, is well taken. The resolution will lie over for printing.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to state to the House that he thinks that it will not be very long until the General Appropriation Bill will be before us. It is highly important that every member remain, because it will take 104 votes to pass the bill. The Chair desires to state that he will not permit that bill to be passed without verification of the roll; therefore, it will be important that you all stay here until that bill is passed, if it takes until 12 o'clock to-night.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, I want to state to the members of the House at this time that in case the General Appropriation Bill shall not carry sufficient appropriation for the public schools, I shall do my utmost to defeat it.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is not confining himself to the question of personal privilege. The Chair will have to declare him out of order.

The SPEAKER. The Chair has information that the report of the Conference Committee on the General Appropriation Bill will be here soon. The House will be at ease for a few minutes.

The SPEAKER. The House will be in order.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 1303.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I offer the report of the Conference Committee on House Bill To. 1303.

The SPEAKER. The report will be read by the Clerk. The Clerk then read the report as follows:

On the question,
Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1303?

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I might be better able to enlighten the House as to what this sitting of the Conference Committee has done with reference to this bill. At this time the Committee struck out on page 15, line 23, beginning with the word "and" down to and including the word "general" on line 29, which reads "and in cases in which in the judgment of the Attorney General the Commonwealth should intervene by the employment of counsel for the employment of attorneys, witness fees, costs, and other expenses in the collection of inheritance taxes and for the payment of the services, costs and expenses of special district attorneys appointed by the Attorney General." That has been stricken out.

At this time the Committee also struck out on page 114 all of section 34 which is the appropriation of three hundred thousand dollars to reconstruct and repair the county roads of the highways of the City of Philadelphia. The other sections have been renumbered accordingly. I might as well go on at this time and explain the proposition insofar as the committee is concerned to comply now with the proposition concerning the State Normal School. In placing in the appropriation bill the paragraph concerning the superintendent of the West Chester State Normal School, that was done with a view of eliminating a condition which otherwise could not be eliminated by any other method. The proposition was proposed and explained to the committee that after, even after, Mr. Phillips had been tried by—

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.
The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Armstrong will state his point of order.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, this part of the bill having been stricken out and Dr. Phillips not being under discussion, I rise to a point of order that the discussion of Dr. Phillips is out of place.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will rule the point of order is not well taken. The gentleman from Delaware is a member of the Committee of Conference and it is a majority report.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to another point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, I understood the Chair as ruling sometime ago, that anything transpiring in committee is not to become public before the House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair does not hold that it is a parallel case. The Chair holds that a member of a Conference committee has a right to make a report and explain to the House their reasons for arriving at and making the report, and explain their manner of making it. A Conference Report is different from a report of a committee of the House. It is not an uncommon thing for a Conference Committee to be requested to make a full report of their reasons for certain changes that they made in a bill.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I am going to make this report at this time because I know that some members of the House will want to know why the committee placed that in the General Appropriation.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, I insist on my point of order. I claim that the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Ramsey, is out of order when he discusses why it was placed in. His discussion must be limited on why it has been stricken out.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Ramsey, is entirely within his rights when he explains the reason why it was put there and why anything was taken out.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I stated when interrupted by Mr. Milliron, that this was placed in the bill with a view of correcting a condition which has injected politics into the State Normal School at West Chester, and it being the only way in which those who are interested in the proposition feel that they are able to bring about the removal of Mr. Phillips from the West Chester Normal School.

Mr. SONES. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I am sorry that I have to get on the floor concerning this provision of this report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1303. The local fight—the political local fight in Chester County, if there is one, and I presume there is, does not concern me in the discussion of this objectionable feature to this bill. I have not followed up the West Chester Normal School very closely for the last few years, but as far as I know the West Chester Normal School had a larger attendance during the last year than at any time during its previous history. I had the honor to graduate from that institution and the man who is here called in question was my friend and always treated me like a father would a son, and whatever the relations are between Dr. Phillips and other political men in Chester County, as I have said before, don't concern me in the discussion of this part of this bill, but I would be an ingrate here if I sat idly by and did not protest against this. Dr. Phillips is my friend and I am here to say that this will not go through with my sanction in the shape that it is in. Dr. Phillips has largely made the State Normal School at Chester and brought it up to what it is. The history and development of that Normal School is largely synonymous with the history of Dr. Phillips. I hope and trust that the members of the House will join with me against this part of the bill. Dr. Phillips is not here and he cannot even defend himself. To use an athletic term, this is a "strike below the belt." We should not tolerate this. If the gentleman were here and could defend himself on the question it would be different, but it behooves us as members of this House to interfere with this matter. We are not interfering in any local matter in Chester County; not at all. If it was a local matter, purely, I would leave it to the members of that County, but the State has taken over the Normal Schools and the Normal Schools are now an integral part of the Commonwealth and it affects me, in Schuylkill County, just as much as any member or citizen in Chester County. This appropriation according to its terms is contingent upon the removal of this eminent gentleman; this appropriation will be withheld as long as Dr. George N. Phillips shall be connected in any way directly or indirectly with this institution. I am sorry that I must stand here and take this position, but as stated before, Dr. Phillips is an old friend of mine and I cannot sit here and let this go through. Gentlemen of the House I ask you to join with me in protest against this section of this bill.

Mr. CANON. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that this is a very unusual way to discharge a principal of the Normal School. The law provides means by which any of these gentlemen who occupy these positions as principals could be put out of their places. It has been done many times. The gentleman says there does not seem to be any other way to eliminate this gentleman from this position. It seems to me a strange proceeding to have to resort to this kind of way, to write into an appropriation bill a condition that the money is not available so long as this man is connected with the school, in any capacity; could not even be a janitor. A man who has spent his life on that school; building it up, building it so well that he is known all over this State as an able educator. Let them proceed in the usual way to eliminate him. It is a scandalous proposition to try to besmirch the character of a man in this way. Let them take it into the courts; let the trustees cite him to appear and bring in testimony and the reasons why he should be dismissed, but let us not try to dismiss him in this dishonorable way. I say that the members of this House ought to insist that this should be stricken out of the Appropriation Bill. I say, we will be willing to stay here as long as is necessary to correct this evil, and let us not allow a thing of this kind to be done in this way during the closing hours of this Legislature.

Mr. MAURER. Mr. Speaker, while I am thoroughly in sympathy with the expression made by my colleague here regarding the schools and not in sympathy with the bill as a whole and the committee's report and the particular part that I object to is the one in which they slashed the appropriation from the Department of Labor and Industry. You have cut out their necessary needs for the department—about two hundred and seventy thousand dollars. I mention this because of the fact that the Department needs the money now more than ever. For the past six months we have sat in this House and listened to talks about war measures, preparedness and patriotism and here is a time when we are going to take thousands and thousands of our young men out of our industries; men that are going with good eyesight, quick, supple and able to avoid accident, and you are going to cripple the best department in the State, one that looks after safety devices, health and sanitation, by taking away the appropriation to do their work. One, the Department of Hygiene, to that you allow just enough to keep the official at the head of the Department, but all he can do is sit there in his chair and draw his salary with one clerk and he is helpless if you take away the means with which to do the work, you might as well cut out the department entirely. I have here an amendment to amend this bill and I hope that this conference report will not be concurred in and that you will vote it down as a whole and the conference will still go on and I will submit these amendments and ask that they be put in the bill. Unless this is done I will never vote for the bill as it is if I stay here the rest of my life. I would be an ingrate if I did not do this or see that this is done for the preservation of human life; for the health and safety of life, the industrial arm for the employers and employees—more than any other department that is in the State or any other department that you will ever have in the State, and yet this one particular department you see fit to slice, to cut out completely nearly three hundred thousand dollars. I don't want to charge the committee with any dishonest motives; I just simply don't believe that they realized the importance in allowing this report of the committee, and I don't conceive that anyone of them would do anything that they believe is not right or that they knew was wrong, but I do know whatever their intentions, what effect this will have to demoralize and take down one of the State's most important departments. I hope this House will not pass this bill at this time so that our friends of the Professor will have good time to defend him. I don't know this professor but I have been told that he is an old school instructor. I have never met him and don't know him. I would be an ingrate to my constituency and would not be fit to hold the position here or a seat in this House if I voted for this bill, and I won't vote for it if I have to stay here for the rest of my life; I would stay here and rot before I would do that.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, before taking up the debate on this bill I want to say with regard to Section 1, page 22, that this will be an established precedent. I want to say that the objections I have made have been made because I think that this will be the saddest event that ever occurred in this State or any other State of punishing a man or the principal of a school without first giving the man a fair chance of having been heard. If the principal of a State Normal School has committed an offense the State has a right to discharge him, if there is any charge against him. The law provides that a man shall be heard in the matter. This bill would be in violation of the law that protects a man in public office. If there is no other reason why we ought to vote against concurrence in this report, if it be for no other purpose than for this, I want to call your attention to another matter with regard to the public school appropriation. You will recall when this bill passed the House that we amended the appropriation from eighteen to nineteen million dollars. I want to say this in regard to that, that when I went home after the press of this State had hurled broadcast the fact that the Appropriations Committee of the House had allowed us a million dollars increase or two million dollars more. Men in the educational work in my county took me by the hand and said, "I want to thank you, if you had anything to do in bringing that about." But when we looked at the bill and found that the impressions that the Appropriations Committee were leaving with the members of this House is what was acquired naturally through the press by people in this State, were not true and I looked with shame upon these men. Here is what happened: Two years ago we appropriated for the public schools of this State sixteen million dollars. This year, in this bill, we appropriated eighteen million dollars, and it is mighty easy to deceive a man or woman who is not in close touch with the matter that when they say "We are getting two million extra in the public schools," I know from the first day this Legislature met until the present time that the slogan of the Speaker and the majority of the members of this House was whatever mistakes we may make, wherever we may err, there is one thing we will take care of and that is the little red schoolhouse. I want to say in connection with that: Since we are engaged in the great conflict across the waters we hear so much said about the fact that America has money and it has men to fight its battles. They forget the idea that there is one other thing that America has that no other nation in the world has: That is brain that has been developed in the public schools of this State. I rise at this time with a good deal of shame when I think that that was cut to eighteen million dollars from nineteen millions. Here is what there was in 1915: we appropriated sixteen million; now these appropriation bills carry eighteen million dollars. This bill carries with it something more. In 1915 under special bills passed by the Legislature of Pennsylvania there was one hundred and thirty-nine thousand dollars for extension and alterations in Normal Schools; three hundred and sixty thousand dollars for the payment of debts of Normal Schools; twenty-five thousand dollars for the purchase of Normal Schools; three hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars to liquidate mortgages on Normal Schools; two hundred thousand dollars for agricultural extension. Now, when this bill appears before us in its present form, as it has appeared all through the session, as reported from the Appropriations Committee, it includes these little general appropriation bills, one million and forty-nine thousand dollars, and instead of the State paying to the schools of this State an extra two million they are paying less than a million. I want the members of this House to understand fairly and squarely so that when they go back to their constituents they will deny the assertion that the State is giving them two million more dollars because the figures which never lie, although the Legislature might, prove that we are getting less than a million dollars increase for the public schools.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Armstrong. Mr. Milliron.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Armstrong, Mr. Milliron, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, yes sir.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman states that the elementary schools were getting less than a million dollars more than they got two years ago?

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, yes sir.

Mr. WOODWARD. Have you any idea how much less?

Mr. MILLIRON. Forty-nine thousand dollars less.

Mr. WOODWARD. The elementary schools in this bill get over one million one hundred thousand dollars more than they got two years ago. When we decided to appropriate money to the public schools this year we submitted the matter to the Department of Education and the fact that there would be eighteen million dollars appropriated and we asked them to fix the items and decide on where it should go. When they submitted these items to us we found nearly every dollar of the excess was being taken for new features in connection with the work of the public schools and we felt that to change that we ought to say that the elementary schools will get one million one hundred thousand more than they got two years ago.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, I wish to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Woodward.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Woodward, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODWARD. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, in the statement of what the different departments of the public school system of this state asked for, what did they ask for high schools?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. Speaker, they asked for $950,000. I think.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman is only going to think about it, I do not want to go into the statistics which I have right here.

Mr. WOODWARD. I will have it for you in a moment. I don't have a copy of the bill here, but my recollection is that it was $950,000.

Mr. MILLIRON. In order to relieve the gentleman from any further embarrassment, I withdraw my interrogation.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. Speaker, I correct that, it was a million dollars.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, it is a rather unpopular thing to object to the general appropriation bill when we are all given a certain amount by this bill which benefits us directly or indirectly, but I do believe this is an imposition to ask us to pass this bill in its present form. One of the worst features of the bill is that every member of the House should be put on record as saying that they will discharge any man in the State of Pennsylvania at the head of one of the Normal Schools. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, if we were to give this authority, if this power were invested in the Legislature to discharge a man, would not we on the other hand have the power to hire a man to take that place; would not the same rule work both ways? Could not we put an amendment here in order to say that the gentleman from Philadelphia shall take his place? Really it is just as fitting to say that, as to say that this gentleman shall be removed for the reason, as the gentleman stated, that there are some little factional differences existing—differences of which we know nothing, except what is told us. Now Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I think this is unfair to the country members of the state of Pennsylvania to break down the great appropriation bill, carrying with it the amount of money that this does, without giving the House a chance to go into it.

In the agricultural department and farm bureau, that bureau up to this time has had a $30,000 to $40,000 appropriation; we have had an appropriation of $40,000 given for the Farmers Institute. This is one of the greatest things that has happened in this state for the education of the agricultural interests in this state. If we are afraid to give a little body like this the sum of $40,000 to encourage the agricultural interests of the state of Pennsylvania, why are we coming down here? Why are we willing to cut this out? The reason for cutting this out I know not. They tell me State College is taking up practically the same line of pursuit, and is going to send a man into each county; but the farm bureau of each county is supported by the county itself. If a man is sent in there, half of his salary is paid by the county commissioners, and the other half by State College. But with this small appropriation to encourage the agriculturists of Pennsylvania cut out, I do not see why we should injure the agricultural interests of this state by standing by and allowing this to be done just on the eve of adjournment. Now gentlemen of the House, with these objectionable features in the bill—I will not say anything about the Philadelphia part which has been eliminated, I think it is up to us to correct this bill. The proper method of doing this I know not. I do not know whether the proper method is to defeat this bill and go home, or whether we ought to stay here and amend it, but I do think it is unfair to the country members of the State of Pennsylvania to force this through without giving any one a chance to get this appropriation for the Farmers' Institute.

Mr. STITES. Mr. Speaker, I move to refer this report back to the Conferees with instructions to strike out on page 22, lines 4 to 11 inclusive in section 1, and the entire section 35, on pages 114 and 115.

Mr. MITCHELL. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. J. O. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, I wish to further amend that.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman please send his amendment in writing to the desk?

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I know I would not be in order to discuss the question now, but I want to make a frank statement to the House at this time.

The SPEAKER. Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the privilege is granted to the gentleman from Delaware.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I want to say to the members of the House that I personally believe the sentiment of this House to be opposed to the section of the bill which touches on Dr. George Phillips. I believe that the committee of Conferees with the permission of the House, can have this bill recommitted to them, or withdraw the bill, and in a short time return the bill with that section eliminated. As to section 35, which is now 34, 34 having already been stricken out, that section has to deal with a resolution which has already passed both branches of the Legislature.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, that resolution has been laid over for printing.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I beg your pardon, I was going to ask this House to give unanimous consent for the committee to withdraw this bill at this time.

Mr. STITES. Mr. Speaker, I think that is a very excellent idea of the gentleman from Delaware, if instructions are given as to what they want the conferees to do. It may be there are other suggestions, and I think there should be an opportunity given for the members of the House to record what they want, and so instruct the conferees.

The SPEAKER. Does the Chair understand the gentleman to object?

Mr. EHRHARDT. Mr. Speaker, I object.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I will give the gentleman my moral word that the instruction of the House will be met, so far as my knowledge of the sentiment is concerned, which, as I understand it, is for the elimination of both sections.

The SPEAKER. I think the House will proceed much faster if there is an objection made to the withdrawal of the bill at this time, and we consider the amendments. Then the conferees can have the amendments and suggestions and can go over them when they take the matter up. The amendment offered by the gentleman, Mr. J. O. Campbell, will be read.

The Amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Moved by the gentleman from Butler, Mr. Campbell, seconded by the gentleman from Susquehanna, Mr. Allen D. Miller, to amend the motion of the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Stites, by changing the appropriation for the Public Service Commission of the Commonwealth on line 12, page 83, by changing from $350,000 to $568,200; and second that the appropriation for the Department of Public Instruction, under sub-title "Schools" on page 19, line 18, be changed from $18,000,000 to $19,000,000; and third, that the appropriation for the Bureau of Workmen's Compensation on page 66, line 22, be changed from $150,000 to $240,800; and on page 67, line 2, changed from $250,000 to $321,800.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments offered by the gentleman from Butler?

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, the report of the conference committee cannot be amended in the House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to inform the member from Elk that this is a motion to instruct the conference committee. The motion is now under consideration, and not amendments to the bill.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, it amounts to the same thing. I just want to make this statement in connection with the amendment offered by the gentleman from Butler and also the original motion of the gentleman from Montgomery—

The SPEAKER. The Chair would like to inform the gentleman from Elk that if there are no objections, the Chair will permit him to go ahead and explain both motions, but really the only motion before the House now is the amendment offered by the gentleman from Butler. The Chair hears no objection, and the gentleman from Elk will proceed.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, this House is now getting into a very bad tangle. If we vote to adopt this resolution, it would simply mean a reprint of this entire bill, which cannot be done, as I understand, before another legislative day, and this House has already passed a resolution to adjourn on Thursday at noon, so that while it is possible to strike out certain parts of this bill, it is not possible to insert any new features.

Mr. J. O. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, I wish to say that it might seem a little impertinent to suggest to the conferees, and through them to the Appropriations Committees, just what we should appropriate. I frankly admit I am not very competent to do that. I do not know what the amount of the income is and just how it has been expended through the Appropriation Bill, but I have tried to gather together in this amendment the items of objection that appear before this House, so that our conferees might have some understanding of how the House feels upon these things, and what the House feels should go into this bill.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would like to inform the gentleman from Butler that the House cannot go into the question of the bill at all. There is only one thing the House can do, and that is to express the wishes of the House through this motion, and that will not be binding on the conferees.

Mr. J. O. CAMPBELL. I felt, Mr. Speaker, as if I ought to apologize for doing this thing, and I am telling the reason why I am doing it.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that this motion is out of order because this House cannot instruct conferees. This is a joint conference of the House and Senate, and this body has no power to instruct such conferees. It can reject this report, and you have the power to name new conferees, or you can request the present conferees to reconsider this matter, but this House cannot instruct joint conferees.

The SPEAKER. The question is not whether this House can instruct the joint conferees, the question is whether this House can to its own conferees express its wishes. The Chair rules the point of order is not well taken.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, before deciding on that point of order, I would ask you whether or not it is true that the report before this House at this time is a report of the Conference Committee of the House and Senate, a joint committee.

The SPEAKER. It is.

Mr. FLYNN. Well, then, Mr. Speaker, I would ask you to rule on that, whether this House can instruct a joint committee.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is inclined to think that the question at this time is whether the House will adopt the report or whether it will not.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, that is it.

The SPEAKER. If the House decides that question, then any instruction that it chooses to give to the conferees, the Chair will hold it has a right to give them; but those instructions are only to the conferees of this House, not to the joint conferees.

Mr. J. O. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do not adopt the re-report of the Conference Committee on House Bill No. 1303.

Mr. ALLAN D. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is this: Is it not true that if you do not concur in the report of this committee, that you will have to appoint a new committee under the rules?

The SPEAKER. The Chair will state for the benefit of the House, in answer to the gentleman from Clearfield, that if the House does not adopt this report, the House can then proceed to express its wishes to the Conference Committee appointed by this House.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I want to ask the gentleman from Butler, Mr. J. O. Campbell, to withdraw that motion and allow a motion to be made to adopt the report of the Conference Committee, which to my mind looks better upon the Journal, and then, if in the judgment of the House, it is deemed best not to adopt the report, it would seem better to defeat an affirmative motion rather than a negative one. I think that is the same thing, Mr. Speaker.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. STERN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. STERN. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that the motion of the gentleman from Butler is out of order, because there are two other motions before the House, a motion of the gentleman from Montgomery and the amendment to that motion.

The SPEAKER. The Chair declares that the motions being offered to the House are not in order, but he permitted them to go on, hoping that they would arrive at some solution, and if the gentleman from Butler had insisted upon his point of order, the Chair would have sustained it. The question before the House is, Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. SHOWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I wish the Chair would state clearly to the House the question now before us, so that nobody makes a mistake.

The SPEAKER. The question is whether the House will adopt this report. The significance of adopting it means that if the Senate also adopts it the bill becomes a law.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to, and the report was not adopted.

Mr. STITES. Now, Mr. Speaker, I renew the motion I made a few minutes ago with reference to the instruction of the House conferees, and with regard to that I want to say that I embraced two features in my motion.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the motion for information.

The motion was then read the second time.

The SPEAKER. The motion is not at this time in order. The House has already refused to adopt the report.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I have a recommendation here that I would like to offer for the benefit of the committee, but I am afraid it takes—

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that there is nothing before the House at this time with the exception of arranging for a conference on House Bill No. 1303.

The SPEAKER. The Chair decides the point of order well taken.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 1303 WITHDRAWN.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the report of the Conference Committee on House Bill No. 1303 be withdrawn.

Mr. McCAIG. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the "ayes" appeared to have it. Whereupon a division was called for, and seventy-two gentlemen having voted in the affirmative and sixty-five in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative, the motion agreed to, and the report withdrawn.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 1303.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, the House having non-concurred in the amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 1303, I now move that the Chair appoint a Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1303.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints as a Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1303, Messrs. Woodward, Ramsey and Flynn.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

Mr. STITES. The Chair having declared my motion out of order, and a Conference Committee having now been appointed, I renew my motion.

RECESS.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will declare a recess for half an hour.

AFTER RECESS.

The time of recess having elapsed, the House reconvened. The SPEAKER (Richard J. Baldwin) in the Chair.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the report of the Conference Committee on House Bill No. 1303 and in doing so I desire to explain that the Conference Committee has stricken out from this bill the section on page 22, line 4 and ending at line 11, which relates to the West Chester

Normal School and the principal thereof. They have also stricken out sections 34 and 35 on page 114, the one relating to the highways in the city of Philadelphia and the other which provides for the expenses of the joint committee of the House and Senate authorized to investigate the operation of the State Departments under a concurrent resolution which was defeated this afternoon.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the report of the Committee of Conference.

The report was read by the Clerk as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 1303.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee on Conference?

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to explain, for the benefit of the members of the House, that it would be a physical impossibility to insert anything in this bill and have it reprinted without extending the time of this Legislature. I would say more than that: That I sincerely believe that such action would not be justified for the reason that while certain objections have been raised on the floor to the work of the Conference Committee, notably the objection raised by the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Maurer, in regard to the amount of the appropriation to the Department of Labor and Industry, I would like to call the attention of the House to the fact that it was not the purpose of any member of this committee to cripple any department of the State Government. It is possible that some few mistakes may have been made; but as a matter of comparison, in the Department of Labor and Industry at the last session there were nine hundred and fifty-eight thousand and some odd dollars appropriated. In this bill, as now reported, it carries the sum of $1,363,093.32 to the Department of Labor and Industry. In addition to that we have found that while there were certain salaries that were perhaps not adequately provided for, through oversight, that this bill carries an appropriation of $200,000 for such contingency, that amount being appropriated to what is known as the Salary Board. Out of that fund, too, it has been proposed that the amount which was reduced in connection with the Farm Bureau work be taken. I want to explain the reduction in that item: That was purely an oversight and misunderstanding of the facts on the part of the Committee. It was stated at the conference that this was a duplication of work being done by Pennsylvania State College in the various counties but we found that there are some counties, I believe sixteen in number, which do not have the regular Farm Bureau, and that is taken care of by the State Division of Agriculture. Now then the total appropriation for that department in the past has been somewhere near forty thousand dollars, and his Excellency, the Governor, has called our attention to it when it was too late to print the bill, and the Chairman and the whole Appropriation Committee of the House satisfied him that forty thousand dollars could also be taken care of out of this contingent fund.

So that there is nothing in this bill, so far as I know, at the present time that could be objectionable to the members of the House. It is true that we could not give to each department all of the money that we would have liked to have given because we must keep within the revenues of the Commonwealth. We would have liked to have been even more liberal. I think this bill provides a liberal appropriation for the schools. We would have liked to have done even better, but it seemed to be impossible to give to all these departments and worthy causes as much money as we would like to have given. I therefore call upon the members of the House to support the report of the Conference Committee not only because it seems necessary under the circumstances that now exist but also because I believe it to be a fair report.

Mr. MAURER. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Flynn, I would say that Mr. Flynn, while he has covered the subject fairly well, has not made the subject plain to the members of the House. He speaks of the appropriation two years ago and the amount of the appropriation this session. He forgets to mention that when the appropriation for the Workmen's Compensation Bureau was made two years ago we adjourned in May, when the appropriation was made, but the act did not become operative until January first next, nearly seven months later and therefore, the act has only been in operation a year and a half now. The appropriation expired June first last. While the appropriation was only made for eighteen months, the Appropriation Committee at that time understood that that was all the time the appropriation had to run. He also forgets to mention the fact that during the first six months of 1916, last year, the machinery was new and there were only a few accidents coming in day after day, and then more and more, and it really took six months until the act became operative with all its force; so that when you get down to the actual figures of the thing the appropriation two years ago was just about nine months' pay for the operation of the act, taking the Department of Statistics. I know well when that became operative. There were only a few employees in there; they didn't need any more; but as business increased from day to day they had to get more people in to do the work. Now, that is exactly why it took less two years ago than now. Besides now each day the work is increasing, especially these times when industry is so actively engaged. Two years ago industry was not so actively engaged as now.

Now, from another angle: Two years ago we passed a bill here increasing the Department of Factory Inspection by fifty men. The old number was fifty and the new one hundred; but the Department of Labor and Industry, now realizing that the money was short, that we had not appropriated enough, did not put on the fifty inspectors at once; the fact of the matter is that they were a whole year before they had one-half of that additional fifty inspectors appointed and it was only quite recently that they had the full one hundred inspectors on. Inquired and objected at the delay in appointing them because of the necessity of their work. I went to the Department and protested and they answered me by saying: "Mr. Maurer, the appropriation is not enough to pay these men for the whole two years and we are only putting them on as fast as we feel that the appropriation will hold out." Now you have one hundred inspectors and you know they should have two hundred; but the appropriation two years ago was not enough to meet running expenses at that time. Now the machinery is here and they need extra or additional money to maintain the forces of that department.

Now, gentlemen, those are the facts. If the Conference Committee did not understand them, that is to be deplored. I am sure they could have found out if they went to the Department offices to find out.

Now they have taken out that forty thousand dollars and they tell us they are sorry and that it was an omission, but that don't help you farmers any.

And then there is another one hundred thousand dollars stricken off the school appropriation here on page 18, line 27, that was in the original bill. I am going to advise the Conference Committee, if you are honest and sincere in the desire to have us adjourn in good style and all of us go home feeling that we done our duty, then you, who compose the conference, I advise you to continue in session and take this bill, the original House Bill No. 1303, and bring it out and submit it as your report, and I do not question but what this House will accept your report. That is what we want, at least, as far as I am concerned; the farmers want it. This report is without the forty thousand dollars for the farmers in and this is one hundred thousand dollars less than the school wants; but the original bill is pretty good and they will be satisfied. I therefore hope that your conference will use this original bill as it is now, Mr. Speaker, and submit it as your report. I am positively opposed to accepting the report which you have just now submitted.

On the question recurring.

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee on Conference?

Mr. RININGER. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The motion was seconded by Messrs. Aron, Baker, Baldi, Benninger, Beidelspacher, Bouton, Boyd, Theodore Campbell, Conner, Eby, Flynn, Heyburn, Jones, Lanius, Marvin, Ananias David Miller, Ogden, Perry, Powell, Rininger, Scott, Vodges, Woodward, and others.

The SPEAKER. More than twenty members having joined in moving the previous question, the question is Shall the main question now be put?

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring.

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee on Conference?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I ask that the roll be verified.

The SPEAKER. The roll will be verified.

The roll was verified as follows:

Less than the majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the Report of the Committee of Conference was not adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE ON SENATE BILL NO. 1024.

Mr. STERN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which Senate Bill No. 1024, entitled

An Act providing for the payment of consequential damages arising from the taking injury or destruction of private property by municipal corporations in the construction or enlargement of their works highways or improvements was defeated last night be reconsidered.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was not agreed to.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE ON CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON HOUSE BILL NO. 1303.

Mr. STERN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1303, the General Appropriation Bill, was defeated be reconsidered.

Mr. GOLDER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the "ayes" appeared to have it.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that a report of a Conference Committee defeated twice cannot be reconsidered; or, in fact, defeated once, cannot be reconsidered.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would like to state that this was not the report that was defeated before. The point of order is not sustained.

The Chair decides the motion to reconsider is carried, and the report of the Committee of Conference is now before the House.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I think that motion to reconsider the vote has to be made by a man that voted in the negative. Is not that right, Mr. Speaker, by one who voted in the minority?

The SPEAKER. The point of order is raised too late.

SENATE MESSAGE.

SENATE BILLS FOR CONCURRENCE.

Senate Bill No. 790 (House Bill No. 2115)

An Act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of an animal rescue league in and for any city borough or township within this Commonwealth prohibiting any city borough or township in and for which an animal rescue league is incorporated from collecting and disposing of lost and stray animals and animals running at large and authorizing any such city borough or township to make appropriations to the animal rescue league in and for the same.

Referred to the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation.

Senate Bill No. 1644 (House Bill No. 2116)

An Act for the licensing and regulation of public garages and automobile repairing establishments and to regulate the ownership of automobiles motor trucks motor cycles and other vehicles received therein and providing penalties for violations thereof.

Referred to the Committee on Judiciary General.

RECESS.

Mr. WALTER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House take a recess for fifteen minutes.

Mr. WHITAKER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the "ayes" appeared to have it.

Whereupon a division was called for and ninety-seven gentlemen voting in the affirmative and twenty-four in the negative, the motion was agreed to and the House took a recess for fifteen minutes.

AFTER RECESS.

The SPEAKER (Richard J. Baldwin) in the Chair.

The SPEAKER. The House will please be in order.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I move you that further consideration of this conference report be postponed for the present.

Mr. CONNER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

RECESS.

The SPEAKER will declare a recess for one hour.

AFTER RECESS.

The SPEAKER (Richard J. Baldwin) in the Chair.

The SPEAKER. The House will be in order.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I move you that the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1303, be recommitted to the Committee on Conference for a further conference with the Senate Committee.

Mr. MARVIN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. J. O. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. J. O. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, we have on our files Senate reprint of Senate Bill No. 1303, File Folio 11361. It shows that Senate Bill No. 1303 has passed the House and passed the Senate. I would like to ask for a history of that bill.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would say that the Clerks have the history of the bill on their desks. They might read the history of the bill to the gentleman from Butler. The Speaker cannot, of course, out of his mind give the history of the bill. The Chair realizes that it is the same bill that is now with the Committee of Conference. That is the Chair's understanding as to the inquiry on House Bill No. 1303, the General Appropriation Bill.

Mr. J. O. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, I have asked for information as to the history of House Bill No. 1303, and I would ask that the Speaker give it.

The SPEAKER. The history of the bill, so far as the Chair's recollections goes; it was first introduced into the House by Mr. Woodward, it was referred to the Committee on Appropriations. It was finally reported to the House and passed by the House and went to the Senate. It was there amended and sent back to the House. The House refused to concur to the amendments, and a conference committee was appointed. That is all the history that the Chair can give the gentleman. The Chair might further say that the Senate insisted upon its amendments and subsequently it went to a conference committee on a motion of the House.

Mr. J. O. CAMPBELL. I find by comparison of the bill with the conference report which is before the House, that there have been increases in the amounts appropriated to the Auditor General's Department, in the conference report bill, over that as passed by the House and Senate of $229,000, and I find there have been increases in the appropriation to the Treasury Department in the Conference report bill over the bill as passed by the House and Senate of $64,500. I also find there has been a deduction—

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. STERN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. STERN. Mr. Speaker, there is nothing before the House.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken. The bill is not before the House.

Mr. J. O. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, I made a misstatement and I would like to correct it. I said $229,000 to the Auditor General. I should have said $179,000. I want to correct that.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would inform the gentleman that a point of order has been asked for.

Mr. FOWLER. I would like to rise to a point of information. That is whether the conference committee could not take the original bill. There has been something said here that the Conference Committee could not amend the bill they have now reported without its being sent to the printer. The point I would like to make is, whether they could take the original bill as passed by the Senate and strike out from that bill anything they would wish in order to overcome this difficulty.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman must appreciate that the Chair cannot answer for what the Senate will do.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I am asking whether it can be done.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would say that he cannot answer for what could or could not be done in the Senate. The House will be at ease for five minutes.

The SPEAKER (Richard J. Baldwin) in the Chair.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, the Committee on Conference reports again on House Bill No. 1303. It has several changes which will necessitate a reprint, which will take the printer, as we understand, about an hour to finish. The following has been inserted and taken out of the bill, and in order that the members might be acquainted with it, I would say, first, the wording in the Attorney General's item which we have already spoken about in the other report, has been changed; second, the Superintendent Phillips matter for normal schools; third, we have re-inserted $40,000 for the emergency fund of the Public Grounds and Buildings; fourth, the Department of Agriculture $40,000, Farmers' Institute fifth, Labor and Industry the $300,000 item has been increased to $355,000; the Division of Hygiene increased to $38,800, an increase of $28,800, for salaries of clerks; sixth, the elimination of $300,000 for Philadelphia suburban roads; seventh, the elimination of section 34 for the investigation of the co-ordinate branches of the Government; eighth, we have reduced the Governor's contingent fund to $24,000 and inserted the words "to be used at his discretion."

Mr. MILLIRON. I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. MILLIRON. Mr. Speaker, did I understand that nothing could be inserted in this bill.

The SPEAKER. Indeed the gentleman will have to answer that himself or ask the Lord.

Mr. MILLIRON. Well, I got the information from the Chair and I thought he would remember.

The SPEAKER. The Chair does not know what the gentleman's understanding was.

Mr. MILLIRON. Well, I only remember what the Chair said.

The SPEAKER. The Chair does not know what the gentleman understood or what he did not understand.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to say that we are in accord with the instructions of the Attorney General.

RECESS.

The SPEAKER. It will probably take about one hour for the bill to be printed, and the Chair will declare a recess for that time.

AFTER RECESS.

The SPEAKER (Richard J. Baldwin) in the Chair.

The SPEAKER. The time of recess having elapsed the House will be in order.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I call up the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1303, File Folio 11969.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the report.

YAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the Conference Report adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

REASONS FOR VOTE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 1303.

Most of the objectionable features in this bill having been removed, and realizing that to contest this measure further might involve the State in additional expense by the necessity of convening an extra session, while still protesting against the reduction by the Senate in the amount of the appropriation to the public school fund as originally passed by the House, and believing that further opposition would accomplish nothing but useless delay, I shall vote "aye" on the adoption of the Report of the Committee of Conference.

CARL C. BALDRIGE.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE TO NOTIFY THE SENATE THAT THE HOUSE IS READY TO ADJOURN.

Mr. SCOTT offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to wait upon the Senate and inform that body that the House is ready to adjourn at 12 o'clock noon, this day.
